Youth Homelessness Report

Sacsheen Scott
Project Manager, Office of Community Services Programs, DHCD
Overview of Youth Homelessness

- Youth experience homelessness for various reasons including domestic violence, conflicts with family members, and system exits without adequate income.

- Youth experiencing homelessness are primary represented in larger jurisdictions such as Anne Arundel County, Baltimore City, and Prince George’s County.

- According to data reported by CoC Point-In-Time and Youth Reach MD youth counts, some youth are overrepresented among youth experiencing homelessness.
Systemic Barriers Affecting Youth Experiencing Homelessness

- Seventy-four surveys were completed by all CoC leads and 54 providers as well as a handful of youth experiencing homelessness between the ages of 18-24.

- Access to housing, transportation, and variations of homeless youth definitions were significant barriers serving youth experiencing homelessness.
ADDRESSING YOUTH HOMELESSNESS

Youth Homeless Resources Administered Federal
- Emergency Solution Grant (ESG)
- Family Unification Program (FUP) Vouchers
- Runaway and Homeless Youth Program
- McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance

State
- Youth REACH MD
- Homelessness Solutions Program (HSP) Grant
- New Futures Bridge Subsidy Program
- Host Homes
- Restoration Gardens (Permanent Supportive Housing)
- Local Management Boards
Systemic Gaps Affecting Youth Experiencing Homelessness

- CoCs, youth and service providers note that affordable and subsidized housing are critical issues within the homeless system.

- Fifty-seven percent of CoCs and homeless service providers indicated that they do not provide housing or services specifically targeted to unaccompanied youth.

- Service providers noted a need for more services for youth transitioning from foster care and services for youth under 18.
