OFFERING MEMORANDUM
of the
COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION
MARYLAND DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
Relating to $25,000,000
Residential Revenue Bonds
2006 Series S (Federally Taxable Pass Throughs)

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this Offering Memorandum, which includes the cover page, the Appendix and the attached Official Statement of the Community Development Administration (the "Administration") dated November 15, 2006 (the "Official Statement"), is to set forth information in connection with the sale by the Administration, an agency in the Division of Development Finance of the Department of Housing and Community Development (the "Department"), a principal department of the government of the State of Maryland (the "State"), of $25,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series S (Federally Taxable Pass Throughs) (the "2006 Series S Bonds").

Contemporaneously with the issuance of the 2006 Series S Bonds, the Administration plans to issue $10,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series O (Non-AMT) (the "2006 Series O Bonds"), $85,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series P (AMT) (the "2006 Series P Bonds"), $95,120,000 aggregate principal amount of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series Q (Non-AMT) (the "2006 Series Q Bonds") and $24,880,000 aggregate principal amount of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series R (AMT) (the "2006 Series R Bonds", and together with the 2006 Series O Bonds, the 2006 Series P Bonds and the 2006 Series Q Bonds, the "Tax-Exempt Bonds").

The Administration is authorized to issue the 2006 Series S Bonds pursuant to Sections 4-101 through 4-255 of the Housing and Community Development Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended (the "Act"), and a Residential Revenue Bond Resolution providing for the issuance of Residential Revenue Bonds adopted by the Administration as of August 1, 1997 and amended and restated as of July 15, 2005 (the "Bond Resolution"), for the benefit of Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, a New York banking corporation with trust powers and having a corporate trust office in Baltimore, Maryland, as trustee (the "Trustee"). The 2006 Series S Bonds will be issued pursuant to a Series Resolution Providing for the Issuance and Sale of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series S (Federally Taxable Pass Throughs) which will be adopted by the Administration prior to the issuance of the 2006 Series S Bonds (the "2006 Series S Bond Resolution"). The Bond Resolution and the 2006 Series S Bond Resolution are collectively called the "Bond Resolutions." The 2006 Series S Bonds, the Tax-Exempt Bonds, the prior Series of Bonds previously issued by the Administration under the Bond Resolution (the "Prior Bonds") and any additional Bonds which the Administration may issue under the Bond Resolution (collectively called the "Bonds") are and will be on a parity, equally and ratably secured under the Bond Resolution, except to the extent that such additional Bonds shall be issued on a subordinated basis in accordance with the Bond Resolution. The Bonds are special obligations of the Administration, payable solely from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged therefor under the Bond Resolution. The Administration has no taxing power. The Bonds do not constitute a debt of the State, any political subdivision thereof, the Administration or the Department, or a pledge of the faith, credit or taxing power of the State, any such political subdivision, the Administration or the Department.

THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM MUST BE READ IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ATTACHED OFFICIAL STATEMENT. THE OFFICIAL STATEMENT CONTAINS ADDITIONAL INFORMATION CONCERNING THE ADMINISTRATION, THE ADMINISTRATION'S RESIDENTIAL REVENUE BOND PROGRAM (THE "PROGRAM") AND THE BONDS WHICH ANY POTENTIAL INVESTOR SHOULD REVIEW IN ORDER TO MAKE AN INFORMED INVESTMENT DECISION.

The Bond Resolution authorizes the Administration to issue Bonds to provide funds to finance or refinance any loan, project, facility, undertaking or purpose for which the Administration is authorized to undertake, finance or provide financing for pursuant to the Act ("Program Assets"), including, but not limited to mortgage loans or portions of or participations in mortgage loans ("Mortgage Loans") to finance or refinance the purchase of owner-occupied single family residences by persons or families of limited incomes, to refund Bonds or other obligations (including bonds issued by the Administration under resolutions other than the Bond Resolution), for the funding of reserves, for the payment of Costs of Issuance or to achieve any other of the Administration's purposes. In addition to Mortgage Loans, the Bond Resolution permits financing of various types of Loans, including, without limitation, loans to finance various types of housing developments within the State, which include single family residences, multi-family residential rental facilities, and group living facilities (collectively, the "Developments") which promote sound community development and provide housing for occupancy, in substantial part, by persons or families of limited incomes. The Loans must also meet the requirements set forth in the Bond Resolution. Program Assets may include, without limitation, whole loans (with or without Credit Enhancement), including Mortgage Loans, and purchases of mortgage-backed securities.

The 2006 Series S Bonds are the first taxable bonds to be issued under the Bond Resolution. While it is anticipated that proceeds of the 2006 Series S Bonds will be used to make or purchase Mortgage Loans, proceeds of taxable bonds of the Administration may be used to purchase (a) certain Loans meeting the eligibility requirements for the Administration's tax-exempt loans but for the first-time homebuyer requirement in a non-targeted area, (b) refinancing Loans where the first mortgage is an adjustable rate loan or other loan with potential for an increased interest rate, where the borrower meets income limit requirements for the tax-exempt program and where the appraised value of the property does not exceed the purchase limits for the tax-exempt program, and (c) certain other Loans that the Administration wishes to finance.

The 2006 Series S Bond Resolution will contain 2006 Series S Program Determinations which limit the Loans to be financed to Mortgage Loans on Single Family Residences and require all such Mortgage Loans to be insured by FHA or guaranteed by the United States Department of Veteran Affairs ("VA"), the United States Department of Agriculture, Rural Development (the "USDA/RD") Guaranteed Rural Housing Loan Program, private mortgage insurance acceptable to the Administration or mortgage insurance provided by the Maryland Housing Fund ("MHF"). See Appendix B – "THE PROGRAM" and Appendix G – "MORTGAGE INSURANCE AND GUARANTEE PROGRAMS" contained in the Official Statement attached herewith.

The Bond Resolution does not require that Loans be secured by Credit Enhancement. In addition, the Bond Resolution permits the Administration to require Loans to be secured by Credit Enhancement other than FHA mortgage insurance, private mortgage insurance, MHF mortgaged insurance, or VA or USDA/RD guarantees. Such Credit Enhancement may include a variety of forms and may be provided by a variety of Credit Enhancers. See the definitions of Credit Enhancement and Credit Enhancer in Appendix C – "DEFINITIONS" and Appendix D – "SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION" contained in the Official Statement attached herewith.

A brief description of the 2006 Series S Bonds is included in this Offering Memorandum. Brief descriptions of the security for the Bonds, the Department and the Administration, the Program, the definitions of certain terms and the summary of certain provisions of the Bond Resolution are included in the Official Statement attached herewith and in Appendices A, B, C and D thereto, which should be read in its entirety in conjunction with this Offering Memorandum. Appendices E and F therein contain certain information regarding the outstanding indebtedness of the Administration and its redemption requirements for the Bonds from Prepayments of Loans as required by the Code, respectively. A summary of the FHA Mortgage Insurance Program, the VA Home Loan Guaranty Program, the USDA/RD Mortgage Guarantee Program, the private mortgage insurance acceptable to the Administration and the MHF Insurance Program is included as Appendix G to the Official Statement. The financial statements of the Program, investments held in the Residential Revenue Bond Funds, information concerning Mortgage Loans financed under the Program, information concerning the prepayment speeds of Mortgage Loans under the Program and the proposed forms of the opinions of Bond Counsel for the Tax-Exempt Bonds are included as Appendices H, J, K, L and M to the attached Official Statement, respectively. The financial statements of the Maryland Housing Fund are included in Appendix I to the attached Official Statement. The proposed form of the opinion of Bond Counsel in connection with the issuance of the 2006 Series S Bonds is included as Appendix A to this Offering Memorandum. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein or in the Official Statement are defined in the Bond Resolutions. All summaries herein of any statute, agreement or document are qualified in their entirety by reference to such statute, agreement or document, and all summaries of the 2006 Series S Bonds are qualified in their entirety by reference to the definitive form thereof and the information with respect thereto contained in the Bond Resolutions. Copies of the Bond Resolutions and the Act are available for inspection at the offices of the Administration at 100 Community Place, Crownsville, Maryland 21032-2023. Requests to inspect copies of the Bond Resolutions and the Act should be directed to Investor Relations, at (410) 514-7326 or by e-mail at cda_bonds@dhcd.state.md.us.

THE 2006 SERIES S BONDS

General Description

The 2006 Series S Bonds are dated the date of delivery thereof. The 2006 Series S Bonds will bear interest from the date of delivery until their maturity or earlier redemption. Interest on the 2006 Series S Bonds will be payable semiannually on March 1 and September 1 of each year (each an "Interest Payment Date") commencing March 1, 2007. If any such dates are not business days, then such payments will be made on the next business day. Interest on the 2006 Series S Bonds will be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. 2006 Series S Bonds subsequently issued in exchange for or upon the registration or transfer of 2006 Series S Bonds will be dated the date of authentication thereof and will bear interest from the Interest Payment Date next preceding the date of the authentication thereof, unless the date of such authentication is after a Record Date and on or prior to the next succeeding Interest Payment Date, in which case they will bear interest from such Interest Payment Date; provided, however, that if interest on the 2006 Series S Bonds is in default, the 2006 Series S Bonds issued in place of 2006 Series S Bonds surrendered for transfer or exchange will bear interest from the date to which interest has been paid in full on the 2006 Series S Bonds, or made available for payment in full on Outstanding 2006 Series S Bonds. The 2006 Series S Bonds will be issuable only as fully registered bonds and will be registered in the name of Cede & Co., as registered owner and nominee for The Depository Trust Company, New York, New York ("DTC"), which will act as securities depository for the 2006 Series S Bonds. Purchases of the 2006 Series S Bonds will be in book-entry form only, in minimum principal amounts of $5,000 or any integral multiple thereof. The 2006 Series S Bonds will mature on September 1, 2037 subject to earlier redemption as hereinafter described.

Application of 2006 Series S Bond Proceeds

The Administration will deposit from the proceeds of the sale of the 2006 Series S Bonds, $25,000,000 into the 2006 Series S Program Account of the Program Fund to provide funds to make or purchase Mortgage Loans.

The costs of issuance, including underwriters' compensation, relating to the 2006 Series S Bonds will be funded by the Administration from available moneys not included in the amounts set forth below. The application of proceeds of the 2006 Series S Bonds is summarized below:

Deposit of 2006 Series S Bond Proceeds into:
2006 Series S Program Account	$25,000,000
Gross Proceeds of 2006 Series S Bonds	$25,000,000

Redemption Provisions

Optional Redemption. The 2006 Series S Bonds are subject to redemption at the option of the Administration, in whole or in part at anytime, on or after March 1, 2016, at a redemption price equal to the principal amount thereof to be redeemed, plus accrued interest thereon to but not including the redemption date.

In addition, the 2006 Series S Bonds are subject to redemption at the option of the Administration, in whole, but not in part, at any time the outstanding principal amount of the 2006 Series S Bonds is equal to or less than $2,500,000, at a redemption price equal to the principal amount thereof to be redeemed, plus accrued interest thereon to but not including the redemption date (a "Clean-Up Redemption").

Special Redemption. The 2006 Series S Bonds are subject to special mandatory redemption at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest thereon, in whole or in part, at any time without premium from repayments of principal and Recovery Payments related to Loans made or purchased using funds in the 2006 Series S Program Account of the Program Fund ("Recovery Payment" means any payment by a mortgagor or any other recovery of principal on a Loan not applied to scheduled installment of principal and interest on the Loan (including any deficiency in the payment of any scheduled installments of principal and interest then due and payable or interest paid in connection with a Prepayment of a Loan). A Recovery Payment includes, without limitation, (i) Prepayments, (ii) the portion of any Insurance Proceeds (to the extent not applied to the repair or restoration of any mortgaged premises), (iii) Liquidation Proceeds, and (iv) amounts from the sale, transfer or other disposition of a Program Asset, or net recovery from Credit Enhancement to the extent not included in Insurance Proceeds, in each case representing such principal amounts; provided, however, that the Administration shall not voluntarily sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of a Program Asset made or purchased with the proceeds of the 2006 Series S Bonds unless the 2006 Series S Bonds are otherwise subject to redemption as described under the heading "THE 2006 SERIES S BONDS – Redemption Provisions – Optional Redemption").

The 2006 Series S Bonds are subject to special redemption, at the option of the Administration, in whole or in part, at any time on or after January 1, 2008, at a redemption price equal to the principal amount thereof to be redeemed, plus accrued interest thereon to but not including the redemption date, from amounts on deposit in the Program Fund relating to the 2006 Series S Bonds not expended for the purposes of financing Mortgage Loans (see Appendix B – "THE PROGRAM – Existing Portfolio and Available Funds Under the Bond Resolution" contained in the Official Statement attached herewith).

Estimated Weighted Average Life of the 2006 Series S Bonds. The term "weighted average life" refers to the average amount of time that will elapse from the date of issuance of a security until each dollar of principal of such security is repaid to the investor. The weighted average life of the 2006 Series S Bonds will be influenced by, among other factors, the rate at which the Mortgage Loans allocable to such 2006 Series S Bonds are originated and prepay.

Levels of prepayments on mortgage loans are commonly measured by a prepayment standard or model. The standard used in this Offering Memorandum is The Bond Market Association, formerly the Public Securities Association (“PSA”), prepayment standard or model (the “PSA Prepayment Model”). The PSA Prepayment Model represents an assumed monthly rate of prepayment of the then outstanding principal balance of a pool of mortgage loans. The PSA Prepayment Model does not purport to be either an historical description of the prepayment experience of any pool of mortgage loans or a prediction of the anticipated rate of prepayment of any pool of mortgage loans, including Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series S Bonds. “100 percent PSA” assumes prepayment rates of 0.2 percent per year of the then-unpaid principal balance of a pool of mortgage loans in the first month of the life of the pool of mortgage loans and an additional 0.2 percent per year in each month thereafter (for example, 0.4 percent per year in the second month) until the thirtieth month. Beginning in the thirtieth month and in each month thereafter during the life of the pool of mortgage loans, 100 percent PSA assumes a constant prepayment rate of 6 percent per year. Multiples will be calculated from this prepayment rate standard, e.g. “200 percent PSA” assumes prepayment rates will be 0.4 percent per year in month one, 0.8 percent per year in month two, reaching 12 percent per year in month thirty and remaining constant at 12 percent per year thereafter. “0 percent PSA” assumes no prepayments of principal of a pool of mortgage loans will occur for the life of the pool of mortgage loans.

The following table sets forth the estimated weighted average life (in years) of the 2006 Series S Bonds based upon various rates of prepayments for the Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series S Bonds. The table assumes, inter alia, that (i) all Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series S Bonds have originated by April 30, 2007 at a weighted average mortgage rate of 5.99%, (ii) all Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series S Bonds prepay on a constant basis at the percentage of the PSA Prepayment Model indicated in the table, (iii) all scheduled payments of principal and interest on Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series S Bonds are timely received and the Administration experiences no defaults and no foreclosure losses on such Mortgage Loans, (iv) there will be no optional redemption of the 2006 Series S Bonds, and (v) there will be no special redemption from amounts on deposit in the Program Fund relating to the 2006 Series S Bonds not expended for the purpose of financing Loans. However, the column labeled “With Clean-Up Call” assumes that the then Outstanding 2006 Series S Bonds are called in their entirety pursuant to a Clean-Up Redemption on the earliest date on which a Clean-Up Redemption may occur.

Notwithstanding such assumptions, (i) the Administration has the right to redeem the 2006 Series S Bonds pursuant to optional redemption at any time on or after March 1, 2016 and (ii) the Administration has the right to redeem the 2006 Series S Bonds pursuant to optional redemption at any time the outstanding principal amount of such 2006 Series S Bonds is equal to or less than $2,500,000. See “THE 2006 SERIES S BONDS – Redemption Provisions – Optional Redemption.” To the extent the 2006 Series S Bonds are redeemed pursuant to optional redemption, the estimated weighted average life of the 2006 Series S Bonds will differ from the projected weighted average life of such 2006 Series S Bonds, at various prepayment rates, set forth in the following table.

There is no assurance that prepayments on the Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series S Bonds will conform to any particular prepayment rate. The rate of principal payments on pools of mortgage loans is influenced by a variety of economic, geographic, social and other factors, including the level of mortgage interest rates, the rate at which homeowners sell their homes or default on their mortgage loans and changes in mortgagors’ housing needs, job transfers, unemployment and mortgagors’ net equity in the mortgage properties. The Administration makes no representations or warranties that actual experience with respect to the Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series S Bonds will conform to the assumptions made herein or that any particular prepayment rate or estimated average life will be achieved. The actual maturity of the 2006 Series S Bonds is likely to occur earlier, and could occur significantly earlier than the stated maturity, due to the foregoing influences upon prepayments and the rate of prepayments of the Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series S Bonds.

Percent of PSA Prepayment Model	Without Clean-Up Call	With Clean-Up Call
0%	21.20	21.20
25%	18.19	18.11
50%	15.87	15.74
75%	14.01	13.80
100%	12.50	12.25
150%	10.25	9.88
200%	8.69	8.26
300%	6.73	6.33
400%	5.58	5.27
500%	4.84	4.60

As a result of the special redemption provisions, the Administration can make no assurance that a particular Bond will not be redeemed prior to its maturity. The Administration cannot accurately predict the volume of Recovery Payments, including Prepayments, or other moneys which will be available for the special redemption of 2006 Series S Bonds in the future.

General Provisions. If fewer than all of the 2006 Series S Bonds are to be redeemed and are no longer held in book entry form, the Trustee will select the particular 2006 Series S Bonds or portions thereof to be called for redemption by lot. The Trustee will mail notice of the redemption to the registered owners of any 2006 Series S Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed not less than 15 days (or, in the case of 2006 Series S Bonds then registered under DTC's book-entry-only system of registration, 30 days) nor more than 90 days before any date upon which 2006 Series S Bonds may be redeemed at their last addresses appearing upon the registration books. Such notice by mail is sufficient and published notice of the call for redemption need not be given. The notice of redemption may be conditional. If conditional, the notice will set forth the conditions precedent to such redemption and that if such conditions have not been met prior to the redemption date, such notice will be of no force and effect. Notice otherwise having been provided, the 2006 Series S Bonds designated in the notice will become due and payable at the applicable redemption price, plus interest accrued to the redemption date. On and after the redemption date, such 2006 Series S Bonds will cease to bear interest and such 2006 Series S Bonds will no longer be considered as outstanding under the Bond Resolution.

DTC and Book Entry

At the time of delivery of the 2006 Series S Bonds, DTC will act as securities depository for the 2006 Series S Bonds. The ownership of one fully registered 2006 Series S Bond in the aggregate principal amount of such maturity, initially will be registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for DTC, or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC, and deposited with DTC or its designated custodian. DTC, the world's largest depository, is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. DTC holds and provides asset servicing for over 2.2 million issues of U.S. and non-U.S. equity issues, corporate and municipal debt issues, and money market instruments from over 100 countries that DTC's participants ("Direct Participants”) deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the post-trade settlement among Direct Participants of sales and other securities transactions in deposited securities, through electronic computerized book-entry transfers and pledges between Direct Participants’ accounts. This eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct Participants include both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. DTC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation (“DTCC”). DTCC, in turn, is owned by a number of Direct Participants of DTC and Members of the National Securities Clearing Corporation, Government Securities Clearing Corporation, MBS Clearing Corporation and Emerging Markets Clearing Corporation (NSCC, GSCC, MBSCC and EMCC are also subsidiaries of DTCC), as well as by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the American Stock Exchange LLC, and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant, either directly or indirectly (“Indirect Participants”). DTC has S&P’s highest rating: AAA. The DTC Rules applicable to its Participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. More information about DTC can be found at www.dtcc.com and www.dtc.org.

Purchases of 2006 Series S Bonds under the DTC system must be made by or through Direct Participants, which will receive a credit for the 2006 Series S Bonds on DTC’s records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each 2006 Series S Bond (“Beneficial Owner”) is in turn to be recorded on the Direct and Indirect Participants’ records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase. Beneficial Owners are, however, expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct or Indirect Participant through which the Beneficial Owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the 2006 Series S Bonds are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of Direct or Indirect Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in 2006 Series S Bonds, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the 2006 Series S Bonds is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all 2006 Series S Bonds deposited by Direct Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC’s partnership nominee, Cede & Co., or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The deposit of 2006 Series S Bonds with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other DTC nominee do not effect any change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the 2006 Series S Bonds; DTC’s records reflect only the identity of the Direct Participants to whose accounts such 2006 Series S Bonds are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The Direct or Indirect Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

The Trustee will make payments of principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series S Bonds to Cede & Co., or such other DTC nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. DTC’s current practice is to credit Direct Participants’ accounts upon DTC’s receipt of funds and corresponding detailed information from the Trustee, on the payable date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC’s records. Payments by Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in “street name,” and will be the responsibility of such Participant and not of DTC, the Administration or the Trustee, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of principal, premium (if any) and interest to Cede & Co. (or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC) is the responsibility of the Administration or the Trustee, disbursement of such payments to Direct Participants is the responsibility of DTC, and disbursements of such payments to the Beneficial Owners entitled thereto is the responsibility of Direct and Indirect Participants. DTC, the Trustee and the Administration are not responsible for and make no representations concerning the manner of, or any charges that may be associated with, payments by Direct Participants or Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct Participants, by Direct Participants to Indirect Participants, and by Direct Participants and Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time.

Redemption notices shall be sent to DTC. If less than all of the 2006 Series S Bonds are being redeemed, DTC's practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each Direct Participant to be redeemed.

DTC, Cede & Co. or such other DTC nominee will not consent or vote with respect to the 2006 Series S Bonds, unless authorized by a Direct Participant in accordance with DTC's Procedures. Under its usual procedures, DTC mails an omnibus proxy to the Administration as soon as possible after the record date for any consent or vote. The omnibus proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those Direct Participants to whose accounts the 2006 Series S Bonds are credited on the record date (identified in a listing attached to the omnibus proxy).

Neither the Administration nor the Trustee will have any responsibility or obligation to the Direct Participants or the Beneficial Owners with respect to (A) the accuracy of any records maintained by DTC or any Participant; (B) the payment by any Participant of any amount due to any Beneficial Owner in respect of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series S Bonds; (C) the delivery or timeliness of delivery by any Participant of any notice to any Beneficial Owner which is required or permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions to be given to Bondholders; or (D) any other action taken by DTC, or its nominee, Cede & Co., as Bondholder, including the effectiveness of any action taken pursuant to an Omnibus Proxy.

The Administration and the Trustee cannot give any assurances that DTC will distribute payments of principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series S Bonds paid to DTC or its nominee, as the registered owner, or any redemption or other notices, to the Direct Participants or that they will do so on a timely basis, that Direct Participants or Indirect Participants will distribute to Beneficial Owners any payments or notices received by them or do so on a timely basis, or that DTC will serve and act in the manner described in this Offering Memorandum.

So long as Cede & Co. is the registered owner of the 2006 Series S Bonds, as nominee of DTC, references in this Offering Memorandum to the owners of the 2006 Series S Bonds shall mean Cede & Co. and shall not mean the Beneficial Owners and Cede & Co. will be treated as the only Bondholder of 2006 Series S Bonds for all purposes under the Bond Resolutions.

The Administration may enter into amendments to the agreement with DTC or successor agreements with a successor securities depository, relating to the book-entry system to be maintained with respect to 2006 Series S Bonds without the consent of Beneficial Owners or Bondholders.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as a depository with respect to the 2006 Series S Bonds at any time by giving reasonable notice to the Administration or Trustee. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor depository is not obtained bond certificates will be printed and delivered. The Administration may decide to discontinue use of the system of book entry transfers through DTC (or a successor securities depository). In that event, bond certificates will be printed and delivered.

Information in this section concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry system has been obtained from sources that the Administration believes to be reliable, but the Administration takes no responsibility for the accuracy thereof.

LEGAL MATTERS

The authorization, issuance and delivery of the 2006 Series S Bonds are subject to receipt of the opinion of Ballard Spahr Andrews & Ingersoll, LLP, Washington, D.C., Bond Counsel, which will be in substantially the form set forth in Appendix A. Fitch, Inc. (“Fitch”) has assigned to the 2006 Series S Bonds the rating of “AA” and Moody’s Investors Service (“Moody’s”) has assigned to the 2006 Series S Bonds the rating of “Aa2”. Each rating reflects only the view of Fitch and Moody’s, respectively, and an explanation that such rating may be obtained from the issuing rating agency. There is no assurance that such ratings will be maintained for any given period of time or that they will not be lowered or withdrawn entirely by the issuing rating agency, if, in its judgment, circumstances so warrant. A downward change in or withdrawal of a rating may have an adverse effect on the market price of the 2006 Series S Bonds. The Administration has no obligation or duty to provide Owners of the 2006 Series S Bonds with notice of any change in or withdrawal of a rating.

$25,000,000
Community Development Administration
Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development
Residential Revenue Bonds
2006 Series S (Federally Taxable Pass Throughs)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as Bond Counsel to the Community Development Administration (the “Administration”), an agency in the Division of Development Finance of the Department of Housing and Community Development (the “Department”), a principal department of the government of the State of Maryland (the “State”), in connection with its issuance and sale of $25,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Residential Revenue Bonds 2006 Series S (Federally Taxable Pass Throughs) (the “2006 Series S Bonds”). With the proceeds of the 2006 Series S Bonds, the Administration will make a deposit into the 2006 Series S Program Account of the Program Fund under the Bond Resolution (as defined herein). Funds in the Program Fund will be made available to make or purchase mortgage loans (the “Mortgage Loans”) to finance the acquisition of single-family residences located in the State.

The 2006 Series S Bonds are being issued under and pursuant to (1) Sections 4-101 through 4-255 of the Housing and Community Development Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended (the “Act”), (2) the Residential Revenue Bond Resolution (the “Bond Resolution”), originally adopted by the Administration as of August 1, 1997 and amended and restated as of July 15, 2005, and accepted by Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, Baltimore, Maryland, as trustee (the “Trustee”), and (3) the Series Resolution Providing for the Issuance and Sale of $25,000,000 Principal Amount of Residential Revenue Bonds 2006 Series S (Federally Taxable Pass Throughs), adopted as of December 1, 2006 (the “Series Resolution”), pursuant to which the 2006 Series S Bonds are authorized to be issued. The Bond Resolution and the Series Resolution are referred to collectively as the Resolutions. Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein have the respective meanings given to such terms in the Resolutions.

The 2006 Series S Bonds mature, bear interest and are subject to redemption as provided therein and in the Resolutions. The 2006 Series S Bonds are issuable initially as fully registered bonds without coupons in the denominations of $5,000 or any integral multiple thereof. Principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series S Bonds will be paid as provided in the Resolutions by the Trustee to the persons in whose names the 2006 Series S Bonds are registered on the registration books of the Administration maintained by the Trustee.

In connection with the issuance of the 2006 Series S Bonds, we have examined and considered the Act, the Resolutions, the Code, a specimen of the 2006 Series S Bonds and such other opinions, documents, certificates, letters and matters of law as we have deemed necessary to render the opinions set forth below.

Based upon the foregoing we are of the opinion that:

1. The Administration was duly created and validly exists under the provisions of the Act as an agency in the Division of Development Finance of the Department with full power to issue the 2006 Series S Bonds for the purpose of financing the Mortgage Loans.

2. The Resolutions have been duly adopted and executed by the Administration, are valid and binding upon the Administration, are in full force and effect and are enforceable in accordance with their terms. The 2006 Series S Bonds are entitled to the benefit and security of the Resolutions for the payment thereof in accordance with the terms of the Resolutions.

3. The 2006 Series S Bonds have been duly authorized, executed and issued in accordance with the Constitution and the laws of the State, including the Act, now in force and represent valid and binding special obligations of the Administration, enforceable in accordance with their terms and the terms of the Resolutions subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights and the reasonable exercise in the future by the State and its governmental bodies of the police power inherent in the sovereignty of the State, the application of equitable principles where equitable remedies are sought and limitations on enforcement of judgments against public bodies. The 2006 Series S Bonds are payable from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged therefor pursuant to the Resolutions.

4. The form of the specimen 2006 Series S Bonds is consistent with the form of the 2006 Series S Bonds provided in the authorizing Series Resolution.

5. The 2006 Series S Bonds, their transfer, the interest payable thereon and any income derived therefrom, including any profit realized in their sale or exchange, are exempt from taxation of every kind and nature whatsoever by the State or by its political subdivisions, municipal corporations or public units of any kind under existing law, except that no opinion is expressed as to such exemption from Maryland franchise taxes or estate or inheritance taxes.

6. Interest on the 2006 Series S Bonds is taxable as ordinary income for purposes of federal income tax.

In rendering the foregoing opinions, we have assumed the accuracy and truthfulness of all public records and of all certifications, documents and other proceedings examined by us that have been executed or certified by public officials acting within the scope of their official capacities and have not verified the accuracy or truthfulness thereof. We have also assumed the genuineness of the signatures appearing upon such public records, certifications, documents and proceedings.

We call to your attention that the 2006 Series S Bonds are special obligations of the Administration and will be payable solely from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged for the payment thereof under the Resolutions, including the Mortgage Loans pledged thereunder, and the rights thereunder to any income, revenues, issues, profits and insurance proceeds and other sums of money payable thereunder. The Administration has no taxing power. The 2006 Series S Bonds do not constitute a debt of the State, any political subdivision thereof, the Administration or the Department, or a pledge of the faith, credit or taxing power of the State, any such political subdivision, the Administration or the Department.

We express no opinion herein with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the Official Statement prepared in respect of the 2006 Series S Bonds or as to any other matter not set forth herein.

Very truly yours,

In the opinion of Bond Counsel, assuming compliance with certain covenants in the Bond Resolutions intended to assure compliance with the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and subject to the exceptions under “Tax Exemption and Related Considerations” herein, interest on the 2006 Series Bonds is excludable from gross income for federal income tax purposes under existing laws, regulations, rulings and judicial decisions. Interest on the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series Q Bonds is not, and interest on the 2006 Series P Bonds and the 2006 Series R Bonds is, a tax preference item directly subject to the alternative minimum tax on individuals and corporations. A discussion of the requirements for, the extent of and exceptions to such exclusion is contained under “Tax Exemption and Related Considerations” herein. In the opinion of Bond Counsel, the 2006 Series Bonds, their transfer, the interest payable thereon and any income derived therefrom, including any profit realized in their sale or exchange, are exempt from taxation of every kind and nature whatsoever by the State of Maryland or by any of its political subdivisions, municipal corporations or public units of any kind under existing law, except that no opinion is expressed as to such exemption from Maryland franchise taxes or estate or inheritance taxes.

The 2006 Series O Bonds, 2006 Series P Bonds, 2006 Series Q Bonds, and 2006 Series R Bonds are collectively called the “2006 Series Bonds”.

Contemporaneously with the issuance of the 2006 Series Bonds, the Administration plans to issue $25,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series S (Federally Taxable Pass Throughs) (the “2006 Series S Bonds”). See “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS - Additional Bonds - Taxable Bonds” herein.

This Official Statement speaks only as of its date, and the information contained herein is subject to change. The information contained under this caption is qualified by reference to the entire Official Statement. This introduction is only a brief description of the Official Statement and potential investors should review the entire Official Statement, as well as the documents summarized or described herein, in order to make an informed investment decision. All terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in Appendix C – “DEFINITIONS” or in the Bond Resolutions (as hereinafter defined).

Authorization

The Administration is authorized to issue the 2006 Series Bonds pursuant to Sections 4-101 through 4-255 of the Housing and Community Development Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended (the “Act”), and a Residential Revenue Bond Resolution providing for the issuance of Residential Revenue Bonds adopted by the Administration as of August 1, 1997 and amended and restated as of July 15, 2005 (the “Bond Resolution”), for the benefit of Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, as trustee (the “Trustee”). The 2006 Series O Bonds will be issued pursuant to a Series Resolution Providing for the Issuance and Sale of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series O (Non-AMT) that will be adopted by the Administration prior to the issuance of the 2006 Series O Bonds (the “2006

Series O Resolution”). The 2006 Series P Bonds will be issued pursuant to a Series Resolution Providing for the Issuance and Sale of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series P (AMT) that will be adopted by the Administration prior to the issuance of the 2006 Series P Bonds (the “2006 Series P Resolution”). The 2006 Series Q Bonds will be issued pursuant to a Series Resolution Providing for the Issuance and Sale of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series Q (Non-AMT) that will be adopted by the Administration prior to the issuance of the 2006 Series Q Bonds (the “2006 Series Q Resolution”). The 2006 Series R Bonds will be issued pursuant to a Series Resolution Providing for the Issuance and Sale of Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series R (AMT) that will be adopted by the Administration prior to the issuance of the 2006 Series R Bonds (the “2006 Series R Resolution” and, together with the 2006 Series O Resolution, the 2006 Series P Resolution and the 2006 Series Q Resolution, the “Series Resolutions”). The Bond Resolution and the Series Resolutions are collectively called the “Bond Resolutions.”

Bonds Issued Under Bond Resolution

As of June 30, 2006, the Administration had issued 66 prior Series of Bonds under the Bond Resolution. As of June 30, 2006, $1,132,535,000 in aggregate principal amount comprising 43 Series of Bonds were outstanding under the Bond Resolution. Since June 30, 2006, the Administration issued Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series H, 2006 Series I and 2006 Series J in the aggregate principal amount of $220,000,000, all on July 13, 2006, and Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series K, 2006 Series L, 2006 Series M and 2006 Series N in the aggregate principal amount of $360,000,000, all on September 14, 2006 (such 2006 Series H, I and J Bonds and 2006 Series K, L, M and N Bonds, and all other prior Series of Bonds are collectively referred to herein as the “Prior Bonds”). The Bond Resolution provides for the issuance of Additional Bonds, which will be on a parity with the Prior Bonds and the 2006 Series Bonds, and will be equally and ratably secured under the Bond Resolution. See “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS – Additional Bonds” herein. The Prior Bonds and the 2006 Series Bonds, together with any Additional Bonds issued under the Bond Resolution and secured on a parity basis, are referred to collectively as the “Bonds.” The Bond Resolution also allows the issuance of Subordinate Bonds which will not be on a parity with the Bonds. To date, the Administration has not issued Subordinate Bonds under the Bond Resolution. The Administration may, from time to time, enter into Qualified Hedges which may be secured on a parity basis with the Bonds. See “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS - Interest Rate Swap” and Appendix D - “SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION.”

The Bonds are special obligations of the Administration, payable solely from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged therefor under the Bond Resolution. The Administration has no taxing power. The Bonds do not constitute a debt of the State, any political subdivision thereof, the Administration or the Department, or a pledge of the faith, credit or taxing power of the State, any such political subdivision, the Administration or the Department.

Purpose of Bond Resolution

The Administration adopted the Bond Resolution pursuant to the Act primarily to finance single family housing loans under the Residential Revenue Bond Program (the “Program”), but has reserved the right to finance and also may issue Bonds to finance other kinds of housing and other types of loans permitted to be financed under the Bond Resolution. In addition to whole single family housing loans, other types of loans and other kinds of housing that may be financed by the Administration under the Bond Resolution include portions of or participations in single family housing loans made, purchased or otherwise financed by the Administration, home improvement loans, housing rehabilitation loans, as well as loans to finance or refinance developments authorized by the Act, including, without limitation, multi-family housing projects, group housing facilities and shared living facilities. To date, the Administration has applied proceeds of Bonds only to finance single family housing loans and participations in single family housing loans and to fund reserves related thereto. See “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS” and Appendix D – “SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION”.

The 1980 General Certificate

Between 1980 and the adoption of the Bond Resolution on August 1, 1997, the Administration issued bonds for its single family program under a general certificate providing for the issuance of single family program bonds (“Single Family Program Bonds”), which general certificate was adopted by the Administration as of May 1, 1980, as supplemented (the “1980 General Certificate”). The Administration expects, but is not required, to finance new loans for its single family program in the foreseeable future primarily under the Bond Resolution. The Administration also expects, however, to finance loans under the 1980 General Certificate from time to time in connection with refunding or other economic measures.

As of July 1, 2006, $194,815,000 in aggregate principal amount of bonds were outstanding under the 1980 General Certificate. Bonds issued under the Bond Resolution are not secured by or payable from the assets of the 1980 General Certificate.

Draw Down Mortgage Revenue Bonds

The Administration issued its Draw Down Mortgage Revenue Bonds, Series 2005-1 and Series 2005-2, in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $600,000,000 (collectively, the “Draw Down Bonds”), pursuant to an Indenture of Trust, dated as of September 1, 2005 (the “Draw Down Indenture”), between the Administration and Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, as Trustee. The initial drawing by the Administration provided funds, in part, to finance the retirement of the Administration’s Draw Down Mortgage Revenue Bonds, Series 2002-1 and Series 2002-2. The remaining portion of the initial drawing and each subsequent drawing by the Administration provides funds to be used to pay at maturity or redeem prior to maturity certain Prior 1980 General Certificate Bonds (as defined below) and certain Prior Bonds. As a result of the foregoing, funds representing prepayments and repayments of mortgage loans financed with such Prior 1980 General Certificate Bonds and Prior Bonds are transferred and deposited into a bond escrow fund established under the Draw Down Indenture as security for such principal amount of Draw Down Bonds as has been drawn down by the Administration until such time as all or a portion of the Draw Down Bonds are redeemed or purchased in accordance with the Draw Down Indenture. The Draw Down Bonds are not secured by the Bond Resolution.

Use of Proceeds of the Bonds

The Bond Resolution authorizes the Administration to issue Bonds to provide funds to finance or refinance any loan, project, facility, undertaking or purpose that the Administration is authorized to undertake, finance or provide financing for pursuant to the Act (“Program Assets”), including, but not limited to, mortgage loans, or portions of or participations in mortgage loans (“Mortgage Loans”), to finance or refinance the purchase of owner-occupied single family residences by persons or families of limited incomes, to refund Bonds or other obligations (including bonds issued by the Administration under resolutions other than the Bond Resolution), to fund reserves, to pay Costs of Issuance or to achieve any other of the Administration’s purposes. In addition to Mortgage Loans, the Bond Resolution permits financing of various types of Loans, including, without limitation, loans to finance various types of housing developments within the State, which include single family residences, multi-family residential rental facilities, and group living facilities (collectively, the “Developments”) which promote sound community development and provide housing for occupancy, in substantial part, by persons or families of limited incomes. The Loans also must meet the requirements set forth in the Bond Resolution. Program Assets may include, without limitation, whole loans (with or without Credit Enhancement), including Mortgage Loans, and mortgage-backed securities.

The funds made available from the issuance of the 2006 Series O Bonds will be used to (a) refund a portion of the Administration's Draw Down Bonds, as a result of which amounts on deposit in the escrow fund established under the Draw Down Indenture will be made available to make or purchase Mortgage Loans and (b) provide funds to be deposited into the Reserve Fund.

The funds made available from the issuance of the 2006 Series P Bonds will be used to (a) make or purchase new mortgage loans; (b) refund a portion of the Administration's Draw Down Bonds, as a result of which amounts on deposit in the escrow fund established under the Draw Down Indenture will be made available to make or purchase Mortgage Loans; and (c) provide funds to be deposited into the Reserve Fund.

The funds made available from the issuance of the 2006 Series Q Bonds will be used to refund certain Prior Bonds, as a result of which funds related to such Prior Bonds will be used to make or purchase Mortgage Loans upon redemption or payment at maturity of the 2006 Series Q Bonds with proceeds of additional Bonds with long-term maturities.

The funds made available from the issuance of the 2006 Series R Bonds will be used to refund certain Prior Bonds, as a result of which funds related to such Prior Bonds will be used to make or purchase Mortgage Loans upon redemption or payment at maturity of the 2006 Series R Bonds with proceeds of additional Bonds with long-term maturities.

The Administration, however, will not apply available funds relating to the issuance of the 2006 Series Q Bonds or the 2006 Series R Bonds to the making or purchase of Mortgage Loans until on or after the payment at maturity of the 2006 Series Q Bonds or the 2006 Series R Bonds with proceeds of additional Bonds with long-term maturities. If the 2006 Series Q Bonds and the 2006 Series R Bonds are not refunded with additional Bonds, funds made available from the issuance of the 2006 Series Q Bonds and the 2006 Series R bonds will be applied to the payment at maturity of the 2006 Series Q Bonds and the 2006 Series R Bonds.

See "THE 2006 SERIES BONDS — Application of 2006 Series Bond Proceeds" and Appendix D — SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION".

The Series Resolutions will contain Series Program Determinations for the 2006 Series Bonds, which limit the Loans to be financed to Mortgage Loans on Single Family Residences and require all such Mortgage Loans to be insured by FHA or guaranteed by the United States Department of Veteran Affairs ("VA"), the United States Department of Agriculture, Rural Development (the "USDA/RD") Guaranteed Rural Housing Loan Program, private mortgage insurance acceptable to the Administration or mortgage insurance provided by the Maryland Housing Fund ("MHF"). See Appendix B – "THE PROGRAM," and Appendix G – "MORTGAGE INSURANCE AND GUARANTEE PROGRAMS."

The Bond Resolution does not require that Loans be secured by Credit Enhancement. In addition, the Bond Resolution permits the Administration to require Loans to be secured by Credit Enhancement other than FHA mortgage insurance, private mortgage insurance, MHF mortgage insurance, or VA or USDA/RD guarantees. Such Credit Enhancement may include a variety of forms and may be provided by a variety of Credit Enhancers. See the definitions of Credit Enhancement and Credit Enhancer in Appendix C – "DEFINITIONS" and Appendix D – "SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION".

Appendices A, B, C and D, respectively. Final maturity.

Optional Redemption.

The 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds are subject to redemption at the option of the Administration, in whole or in part at any time, on or after March 1, 2016, at a redemption price equal to the principal amount thereof to be redeemed, plus accrued interest thereon to but not including the date of redemption.

The 2006 Series Q Bonds and the 2006 Series R Bonds are not subject to redemption prior to maturity.

Special Redemption. The 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds are subject to special redemption, at the option of the Administration, in whole or in part, at any time and at the redemption prices available below, from:

- (1) Recovery Payments from any Series of Bonds;
- (2) amounts on deposit in the Program Fund relating to the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds not expended for the purposes of financing Mortgage Loans (see Appendix B – “THE PROGRAM – Existing Portfolio and Available Funds Under the Bond Resolution”); and
- (3) excess Revenues from any Series of Bonds, including without limitation, amounts resulting from any reduction in the Reserve Fund from any Series of Bonds.

2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds redeemed pursuant to such special redemption provision shall be redeemed at a price equal to the principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest thereon; provided, however, that PAC Bonds (as defined below) redeemed pursuant to paragraph (2) above shall be redeemed at a price equal to the principal amount thereof plus a premium that maintains the same yield as the original purchase price thereof (as more fully set forth in the 2006 Series P Resolution), plus accrued interest to the date of redemption.

As a result of the special redemption provisions, the Administration can make no assurance that a particular Bond will not be redeemed prior to its maturity. The Administration cannot accurately predict the volume of Recovery Payments, including Prepayments, or other moneys which will be available for the special redemption of Bonds in the future. See “Risks of Redemption as a Result of Nonorigination” and “Risks of Redemption as a Result of Prepayment and Other Excess Revenues” below.

PAC Bond Redemption. An amount equal to 100% of the Prepayments of Mortgage Loans financed from the proceeds of the 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds (the “2006 Series Prepayments”) will be applied first to the redemption of the 2006 Series P Bonds maturing on September

1, 2037 (the “PAC Bonds”), in an amount up to the cumulative amounts set forth in the following table, prior to the redemption of other Bonds. Such redemption shall be made so that the cumulative amount of such redemptions shall not exceed the cumulative amount shown as of each date set forth in the table below. Such redemptions may occur at such times and with such frequency as the Administration elects, but at least once in each semiannual period, commencing with the semiannual period ending September 1, 2007. Such cumulative amounts are derived from certain assumptions related to such Mortgage Loans including the assumption that all such Mortgage Loans are purchased as expected and that 2006 Series Prepayments on such Mortgage Loans are received at a rate equal to 75% of the Bond Market Association standard prepayment model (“BMA”, formerly known as “PSA”, the Public Securities Association) and that 100% of such amounts will be used to redeem PAC Bonds. If the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds are redeemed from the proceeds of the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds not used to finance Mortgage Loans, the amount of the PAC Bonds redeemed will be proportional to the total amount of the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds being redeemed, and the cumulative amounts set forth in the table below will be reduced on a proportional basis.

Payment Date	Cumulative Amount	Payment Date	Cumulative Amount
September 1, 2007	$ 150,000	March 1, 2012	$14,055,000
March 1, 2008	715,000	September 1, 2012	15,750,000
September 1, 2008	1,690,000	March 1, 2013	17,395,000
March 1, 2009	3,060,000	September 1, 2013	18,990,000
September 1, 2009	4,805,000	March 1, 2014	20,535,000
March 1, 2010	6,755,000	September 1, 2014	22,035,000
September 1, 2010	8,655,000	March 1, 2015	23,485,000
March 1, 2011	10,505,000	September 1, 2015	24,360,000
September 1, 2011	12,305,000	and thereafter

If the amount available for such redemption is less than $100,000, the Administration may delay redemption of the PAC Bonds until the amount available for such redemption totals $100,000 or more.

2006 Series Prepayments in excess of the amounts set forth in the above table and up to the cumulative amounts set forth in the following table, may be applied to the redemption of Bonds other than the PAC Bonds; provided that such 2006 Series Prepayments may be used to redeem the PAC Bonds if there are no other 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds Outstanding or if such redemption is necessary to preserve the tax-exempt status of the 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds. One hundred percent (100%) of the 2006 Series Prepayments in excess of cumulative amounts set forth in the following table, may be applied by the Administration to the redemption of Bonds, including the PAC Bonds. The cumulative amounts in the following table are derived from certain assumptions related to such Mortgage Loans including the assumption that 2006 Series Prepayments are received at a rate equal to 400% of the BMA. If 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds are redeemed from the proceeds of the 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds not used to finance Mortgage Loans, then the cumulative amounts set forth in the table below will be reduced on a proportional basis.

Payment Date	Cumulative Amount	Payment Date	Cumulative Amount
September 1, 2007	$ 810,000	March 1, 2012	$54,465,000
March 1, 2008	3,790,000	September 1, 2012	58,685,000
September 1, 2008	8,745,000	March 1, 2013	62,390,000
March 1, 2009	15,330,000	September 1, 2013	65,645,000
September 1, 2009	23,100,000	March 1, 2014	68,505,000
March 1, 2010	31,035,000	September 1, 2014	71,015,000

September 1, 2010	38,045,000	March 1, 2015	73,215,000
March 1, 2011	44,225,000	September 1, 2015	75,145,000
September 1, 2011	49,670,000	and thereafter

Prepayments on mortgage loans are commonly measured relative to a prepayment standard model. The BMA represents an assumed monthly rate of prepayment of the then outstanding principal balance of a pool of new mortgage loans. BMA does not purport to be either an historic description of the prepayment experience of any pool of mortgage loans or a prediction of the anticipated rate of prepayment of any pool of mortgage loans. One hundred percent (100%) BMA assumes prepayment rates of 0.2 percent per year of the then-unpaid principal balance of such mortgage loans in the first months of the life of the mortgage loans and an additional 0.2 percent per year in each month thereafter (for example, 0.4 percent per year in the second month) until the 30th month. Beginning in the 30th month and in each month thereafter during the life of the mortgage loans, 100% BMA assumes a constant prepayment rate of six percent per year. Multiples of BMA will be calculated from this prepayment rate series. For example, 200% BMA assumes prepayment rates will be 0.4 percent per year in month one, 0.8 percent per year in month two, reaching 12% per year in month 30 and remaining constant at 12% per year thereafter.

The following table sets forth the last year and weighted average number of years that the PAC Bonds will be Outstanding (“Average Life”) based on the receipt of 2006 Series Prepayments at certain percentages of the BMA and certain assumptions related to the Mortgage Loans financed from the proceeds of the 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds, including the assumptions that (1) all such Mortgage Loans are purchased at the times currently anticipated by the Administration, (2) 2006 Series Prepayments in amounts in excess of 75% of the BMA and not exceeding a cumulative percentage of 400% of the BMA are applied when received to redeem 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds other than the PAC Bonds and (3) 2006 Series Prepayments in excess of 400% of the BMA are applied proportionally to the redemption of all 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds then Outstanding, including the PAC Bonds. In producing the following projections related to the PAC Bonds, the Mortgage Loans financed from the proceeds of the 2006 Series Bonds are assumed to have originated by April 30, 2007 at a weighted average mortgage rate of 5.99%.

Percent of BMA Standard Prepayment Model	Last Year Outstanding	Average Life (Years)
0%	2037	28.15
25%	2037	12.96
50%	2019	6.75
75%	2015	5.00
100%	2015	5.00
200%	2015	5.00
300%	2015	5.00
400%	2015	5.00
500%	2015	4.93

However, 2006 Series Prepayments in excess of 400% of the BMA are not required to be applied proportionally to the redemption of all 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds then Outstanding. Actual events, including, among others, the actual receipt of 2006 Series Prepayments and the application of such 2006 Series Prepayments in excess of 400% of the BMA to the redemption of PAC Bonds in amounts that are less than or greater than an amount that is proportional to all 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds then Outstanding, will likely be different than the events assumed in determining the above table. Therefore, the actual last year and weighted average number of years that the PAC Bonds will be Outstanding may differ from any of the years or percentages stated above.

Cross-Call Practices. Unless otherwise (i) provided in a Series Resolution, (ii) required by the 1986 Code, or (iii) directed by the Administration, excess Revenues and Prepayments of Mortgage Loans financed with proceeds of any Series of Bonds, to the extent transferred to the Redemption Fund, may be applied to the redemption of the Series having the highest effective bond yield. As a result, the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds, including the PAC Bonds, may be redeemed from excess Revenues and Prepayments of Mortgage Loans financed with the proceeds of other Series of Bonds provided that any redemptions of PAC Bonds with excess Revenues and Prepayments of Mortgage Loans financed with the proceeds of other Series of Bonds shall not cause the amount of PAC Bonds to have been redeemed to exceed the amounts set forth in the first table set forth under the subheading “PAC Bond Redemption” above (as adjusted for reduction of said amounts due to redemption of 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds from proceeds of the 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds not used to finance Mortgage Loans).

The Administration generally expects to apply excess Revenues or Prepayments to the redemption of the Series having the highest effective bond yield. Unless otherwise (i) provided in a Series Resolution, (ii) required by the 1986 Code, or (iii) directed by the Administration, the Administration reserves the right to redeem Bonds, including the 2006 Series O Bonds and 2006 Series P Bonds, that do not have the highest effective bond yield.

“Ten-Year Rule” Requirements. The 1986 Code requires generally that prepayments of mortgages financed with an issue of qualified mortgage bonds must be used to redeem bonds of that issue by the close of the next semiannual period, if the prepayments are received more than ten years after the issuance of the bonds or any prior refunded issue (the “Ten Year Rule”). Appendix F hereto is a table showing the percentage of mortgage prepayments received in any particular period that must, under the Ten Year Rule, be used for redemption of bonds of the issue that financed the mortgages, including the 2006 Series Bonds. The table is based on an allocation of bond proceeds between any “new money” (nonrefunding) portion, which will not be subject to the Ten Year Rule until ten years after the date of issuance, and any portion used, directly or indirectly, to refund one or more prior issues, each of which has its own ten year period which applies to the refunding issue. The Ten Year Rule applies generally to all issues of tax-exempt qualified mortgage bonds issued after December 31, 1988.

Risks of Redemption as a Result of Nonorigination. Subject to a de minimis exception, proceeds relating to the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds deposited directly to the Program Fund to make or purchase Mortgage Loans and not used to finance Mortgage Loans within 42 months of the date of issuance will be used to redeem the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds as required by the 1986 Code. See Appendix B – “THE PROGRAM – Existing Portfolio and Available Funds Under the Bond Resolution.”

On October 20, 2003, the Administration made an unused proceeds call from certain Prior Bonds in the amount of $32,400,000. For more detail, refer to the filing with the National Recognized Municipal Securities Repositories on October 7, 2003 and see the Department’s website, www.dhcd.state.md.us, CDA Bonds – Investor Information.

Risks of Redemption as a Result of Prepayments and Other Excess Revenues. All Mortgage Loans permit partial or complete prepayment without penalty. Mortgage Loans also may be terminated prior to their respective final maturities as a result of events such as default, sale (including potentially a sale of all or part of the Mortgage Loan portfolio), condemnation or casualty loss. A number of factors, including general economic conditions, homeowner mobility and mortgage market interest rates, will affect the rate of actual prepayments for a particular portfolio of mortgage loans. Therefore, it is difficult to predict prepayments for the Administration's portfolio from available data about other pools of mortgage loans. For information concerning the prepayment speeds of Mortgage Loans under the Program, see Appendix L – "RESIDENTIAL REVENUE BOND PROGRAM PREPAYMENT SPEED OF MORTGAGE LOAN PORTFOLIO BY BOND ISSUANCE."

It is not possible to predict the amount of excess Revenues that may be generated under the Bond Resolution. Any excess Revenues received under the Bond Resolution and not applied to make or purchase new Mortgage Loans, shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of the Bond Resolutions and federal tax laws, which provisions may permit or require the special redemption of Bonds from such excess Revenues.

General Provisions. If fewer than all of the 2006 Series Bonds of like Series and maturity are to be redeemed and are no longer held in book-entry form, the Administration will determine the particular 2006 Series Bonds or portions thereof to be called for redemption. The Trustee will mail notice of the redemption to the registered owners of any 2006 Series Bonds or portions thereof to be redeemed not less than 15 days (or, in the case of 2006 Series Bonds then registered under DTC's book-entry-only system of registration, 30 days) nor more than 90 days before any date upon which 2006 Series Bonds may be redeemed at their last addresses appearing upon the registration books. Such notice by mail is sufficient and published notice of the call for redemption need not be given. The notice of redemption may be conditional. If conditional, the notice will set forth the conditions precedent to such redemption and if such conditions have not been met prior to the redemption date, such notice will be of no force and effect. Notice otherwise having been provided, the 2006 Series Bonds designated in the notice will become due and payable at the applicable redemption price, plus interest accrued to the redemption date. On and after the redemption date, such 2006 Series Bonds will cease to bear interest and such 2006 Series Bonds will no longer be considered as outstanding under the Bond Resolution.

DTC and Book-Entry

At the time of delivery of the 2006 Series Bonds, DTC will act as securities depository for the 2006 Series Bonds. The ownership of one fully registered 2006 Series Bond for each series and maturity, in the aggregate principal amount of such maturity, initially will be registered in the name of Cede & Co., as nominee for DTC, or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC, and deposited with DTC or its designated custodian. DTC, the world's largest depository, is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. DTC holds and provides asset servicing for over 2.2 million issues of U.S. and non-U.S. equity issues, corporate and municipal debt issues, and money market instruments from over 100 countries that DTC's participants ("Direct Participants") deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the post-trade settlement among Direct Participants of sales and other securities transactions in deposited securities, through electronic computerized book-entry transfers and pledges between Direct Participants' accounts. This eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct Participants include both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. DTC is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation ("DTCC"). DTCC, in turn, is owned by a number of Direct Participants of DTC and Members of the National Securities Clearing Corporation, Government Securities Clearing Corporation, MBS Clearing Corporation and Emerging Markets Clearing Corporation (NSCC, GSCC, MBSCC and EMCC are also subsidiaries of DTCC), as well as by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., the American Stock Exchange LLC, and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as both U.S. and non-

U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant, either directly or indirectly (“Indirect Participants”). DTC has S&P’s highest rating: AAA. The DTC Rules applicable to its Participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. More information about DTC can be found at www.dtcc.com and www.dtc.org.

Purchases of 2006 Series Bonds under the DTC system must be made by or through Direct Participants, which will receive a credit for the 2006 Series Bonds on DTC’s records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each 2006 Series Bond (“Beneficial Owner”) is in turn to be recorded on the Direct and Indirect Participants’ records. Beneficial Owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchase. Beneficial Owners are, however, expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the Direct or Indirect Participant through which the Beneficial Owner entered into the transaction. Transfers of ownership interests in the 2006 Series Bonds are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of Direct or Indirect Participants acting on behalf of Beneficial Owners. Beneficial Owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in 2006 Series Bonds, except in the event that use of the book-entry system for the 2006 Series Bonds is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all 2006 Series Bonds deposited by Direct Participants with DTC are registered in the name of DTC’s partnership nominee, Cede & Co., or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. The deposit of 2006 Series Bonds with DTC and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. or such other DTC nominee do not effect any change in beneficial ownership. DTC has no knowledge of the actual Beneficial Owners of the 2006 Series Bonds; DTC’s records reflect only the identity of the Direct Participants to whose accounts such 2006 Series Bonds are credited, which may or may not be the Beneficial Owners. The Direct or Indirect Participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

The Trustee will make payments of principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series Bonds to Cede & Co., or such other DTC nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. DTC’s current practice is to credit Direct Participants’ accounts upon DTC’s receipt of funds and corresponding detailed information from the Trustee, on the payable date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC’s records. Payments by Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in “street name,” and will be the responsibility of such Participant and not of DTC, the Administration or the Trustee, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of principal, premium (if any) and interest to Cede & Co. (or such other nominee as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC) is the responsibility of the Administration or the Trustee, disbursement of such payments to Direct Participants is the responsibility of DTC, and disbursements of such payments to the Beneficial Owners entitled thereto is the responsibility of Direct and Indirect Participants. DTC, the Trustee and the Administration are not responsible for and make no representations concerning the manner of, or any charges that may be associated with, payments by Direct Participants or Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to Direct Participants, by Direct Participants to Indirect Participants, and by Direct Participants and Indirect Participants to Beneficial Owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time.

Redemption notices shall be sent to DTC. If less than all of the 2006 Series Bonds are being redeemed, DTC’s practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each Direct Participant to be redeemed.

DTC, Cede & Co. or such other DTC nominee will not consent or vote with respect to the 2006 Series Bonds, unless authorized by a Direct Participant in accordance with DTC's Procedures. Under its usual procedures, DTC mails an omnibus proxy to the Administration as soon as possible after the record date for any consent or vote. The omnibus proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those Direct Participants to whose accounts the 2006 Series Bonds are credited on the record date (identified in a listing attached to the omnibus proxy).

Neither the Administration nor the Trustee will have any responsibility or obligation to the Direct Participants or the Beneficial Owners with respect to (A) the accuracy of any records maintained by DTC or any Participant; (B) the payment by any Participant of any amount due to any Beneficial Owner in respect of the principal of and premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series Bonds; (C) the delivery or timeliness of delivery by any Participant of any notice to any Beneficial Owner which is required or permitted under the terms of the Bond Resolutions to be given to Bondholders; or (D) any other action taken by DTC, or its nominee, Cede & Co., as Bondholder, including the effectiveness of any action taken pursuant to an Omnibus Proxy.

The Administration and the Trustee cannot give any assurances that DTC will distribute payments of principal of, redemption premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series Bonds paid to DTC or its nominee, as the registered owner, or any redemption or other notices, to the Direct Participants or that they will do so on a timely basis, that Direct Participants or Indirect Participants will distribute to Beneficial Owners any payments or notices received by them or do so on a timely basis, or that DTC will serve and act in the manner described in this Official Statement.

So long as Cede & Co. is the registered owner of the 2006 Series Bonds, as nominee of DTC, references in this Official Statement to the owners of the 2006 Series Bonds shall mean Cede & Co. and shall not mean the Beneficial Owners and Cede & Co. will be treated as the only Bondholder of 2006 Series Bonds for all purposes under the Bond Resolutions.

The Administration may enter into amendments to the agreement with DTC or successor agreements with a successor securities depository, relating to the book-entry system to be maintained with respect to 2006 Series Bonds without the consent of Beneficial Owners or Bondholders.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as a depository with respect to the 2006 Series Bonds at any time by giving reasonable notice to the Administration or Trustee. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor depository is not obtained bond certificates will be printed and delivered. The Administration may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry transfers through DTC (or a successor securities depository). In that event, bond certificates will be printed and delivered.

Information in this section concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry system has been obtained from sources that the Administration believes to be reliable, but the Administration takes no responsibility for the accuracy thereof.

Definitive Bonds

DTC (or a successor securities depository) may discontinue providing its service with respect to the 2006 Series Bonds at any time by giving notice to the Administration and discharging its responsibilities with respect thereto under applicable law. In addition, the Administration, in its sole discretion and without the consent of any other person, may elect not to use or may terminate the services of DTC (or a successor securities depository). Under such circumstances, 2006 Series Bonds in definitive form will be delivered as provided in the Bond Resolutions and registered in accordance with the instructions of the purchasers, and the following requirements of the Bond Resolutions will apply.

Interest on the 2006 Series Bonds will be payable by check or draft mailed by the Trustee to the registered owner thereof or, upon the request of a registered owner of 2006 Series Bonds having a principal amount of $1,000,000 or more, by wire transfer from the Trustee to the registered owner thereof. The principal of and redemption premium, if any, are payable at the corporate trust office of the Trustee upon presentation of the 2006 Series Bonds on or after the date of maturity or redemption. Each exchange or transfer of the 2006 Series Bonds may require the payment by the owner of any tax, fee or other charge imposed by law and a reasonable transfer fee of the Trustee.

SECURITY FOR THE BONDS

Provisions of Bond Resolution

Pursuant to the Bond Resolution, the security for the Bonds is a pledge of and lien on:

- (1) proceeds of the sale of Bonds (other than proceeds deposited in trust for the retirement of Outstanding Bonds);
- (2) the Administration's right, title and interest in and to all Program Assets financed from such proceeds;
- (3) Revenues;
- (4) all money, investments and other assets held in the funds and accounts established by or pursuant to the Bond Resolution and the earnings thereon, except for any money, investments, assets or income held in the Rebate Fund or in any fund or account created by a Series Resolution or a Supplemental Resolution which provides that such fund or account shall not be subject to the lien of the Bond Resolution; and
- (5) any and all other property of every description and nature from time to time hereafter by delivery or by writing of any kind conveyed, pledged, assigned or transferred to the Trustee as and for additional security under the Bond Resolution by the Administration or by anyone on its behalf or with its written consent.

The pledge and security interest are subject to (i) the power of the Administration to direct the withdrawal of amounts from such funds and accounts free and clear of such pledge and security interest upon the conditions provided in the Bond Resolution subject to the filing of a Cash Flow Certificate, (ii) other specific limitations set forth in the Bond Resolution and (iii) with respect to one or more Series of Bonds, the power of the Administration to grant a lien on the same property and rights (or any portion thereof) on a parity with or subordinate to the lien granted to the Trustee for the benefit of the owners of the Bonds (provided, however, any funds, assets or other property pledged to or for the benefit of the Credit Enhancer or Credit Facility Provider shall be available to the Credit Enhancer or Credit Facility Provider only after it has made payment under the Credit Enhancement or Credit Facility, as appropriate) and to exclude all moneys deposited into any fund or account with respect thereto from the pledge to the Trustee securing payment of the Bonds or to limit such pledge. Moneys necessary to pay arbitrage rebate, if any, to the United States are administered outside of, and are not subject to the lien of, the Bond Resolution. For a description of the provisions of the Bond Resolution for releasing of moneys or other assets from the lien of the Bond Resolution, see "SECURITY FOR THE BONDS – Cash Flow Statements and Certificates".

The pledge made and security interests granted by the Bond Resolution and the covenants and agreements therein set forth are for the equal benefit, protection and security of holders of all Bonds, all of which, regardless of the time or times of their issue or maturity, shall be of equal rank without preference, priority or distinction of any Bond over any other except as expressly provided or permitted herein. Subordinate Bonds need not be of equal rank with other Bonds and shall be entitled to the preferences and priorities provided in the Series Resolution authorizing the issuance of Subordinate

Bonds. See “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS”. The Administration may, from time to time, enter into Qualified Hedges which may be secured on a parity basis with the Bonds. See “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS - Interest Rate Swap” and Appendix D - “SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION.”

The Bonds are special obligations of the Administration payable solely from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged therefor under the Bond Resolution. The Administration has no taxing power. The Bonds do not constitute a debt of the State, any political subdivision thereof, the Administration or the Department, or a pledge of the faith, credit or taxing power of the State, any such political subdivision, the Administration or the Department.

Program Assets

Loans. The Mortgage Loans expected to be financed with the proceeds of the 2006 Series Bonds may be either whole Mortgage Loans or participations in Mortgage Loans. Mortgage Loans (including participations in Mortgage Loans) financed by the Administration with proceeds of the 2006 Series Bonds will be pledged as Program Assets under the Bond Resolution, and the Trustee will retain all right, title and interest in each such Mortgage Loan or participation interest for the equal and ratable security of the Bonds.

Pursuant to a Mortgage Participation Agreement, dated December 1, 1998, as amended (the “Mortgage Participation Agreement”), among the Administration, Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company (successor by merger to Allfirst Bank), as fiscal agent thereunder (the “Fiscal Agent”), as Trustee under the Bond Resolution and as trustee under the 1980 General Certificate, the Administration may combine amounts available from the Program Fund under the 1980 General Certificate with amounts available from the Program Fund under the Bond Resolution to purchase Mortgage Loans which are held in trust by the Fiscal Agent. The Administration has applied certain proceeds of Prior Bonds and may apply proceeds of other Series of Bonds under the Bond Resolution designated by the Administration to purchase participations in such Mortgage Loans that are also funded from amounts available from the Program Fund under the 1980 General Certificate. Each participation interest purchased with proceeds of a Series of Bonds and pledged as a Program Asset under the Bond Resolution will consist of a participation interest in a Mortgage Loan held by the Fiscal Agent pursuant to the Mortgage Participation Agreement, and the Trustee will retain all right, title and interest in a pro rata portion of the payments, the mortgage and interests arising thereunder for the equal and ratable security of the Bonds. Payments of principal on all such Mortgage Loans, including Prepayments or recoveries from foreclosure of defaulted Mortgage Loans, will be divided between the Trustee and the trustee under the 1980 General Certificate, pursuant to the Mortgage Participation Agreement, on a pro rata basis in conformance with the contributions of proceeds from the Series of Bonds designated by the Administration and amounts available from the Program Fund under the 1980 General Certificate which are used to make Mortgage Loans for this purpose.

Each Mortgage Loan under the Bond Resolution is expected to have an original term of 30 or 40 years, with equal monthly payments of principal and interest. In addition, the Administration offers loan products with a five-year interest-only payment period followed by a 30-year period of principal and interest payments; and a seven-year period of interest-only payments followed by a 23- or 33-year period of principal and interest payments. Each such Mortgage Loan is expected to bear interest at fixed annual rates to be established from time to time by the Administration, with as little as 0% of the interest allocable to participation interests purchased with amounts available from the Program Fund under the 1980 General Certificate and up to 100% of the interest allocable to participation interests purchased with proceeds of the Bonds. The interest rate of such Mortgage Loans resulting from blending the interest rates attributable to the participation interests purchased from amounts available from the Program Fund under the 1980 General Certificate with the interest rates attributable to the participation interests purchased from the proceeds of the Bonds will comply with the requirements of the Code.

Each of the Loans financed with the proceeds of Prior Bonds issued under the Bond Resolution have been Mortgage Loans. Loans have been and may be insured by FHA or private mortgage insurance, acceptable to the Administration, or guaranteed by VA or USDA/RD. In addition, Loans may be insured by the Maryland Housing Fund, and Loans with a loan-to-value ratio of 80% or less may be uninsured if certain requirements of the Administration are met. See Appendix G – “MORTGAGE INSURANCE AND GUARANTEE PROGRAMS – The MHF Insurance Program.” Proceeds of mortgage insurance or a guarantee paid upon default of Mortgage Loans held by the Fiscal Agent under the Mortgage Participation Agreement will be apportioned on a pro rata basis in conformance with the participation interests held in each Mortgage Loan. The Bond Resolution does not require that a Loan financed in the future be secured by Credit Enhancement. Credit Enhancement of all or a portion of a Loan, if any, will be provided in accordance with the applicable provisions set forth in the Series Resolution authorizing a particular Series of Bonds. Credit Enhancement of Loans includes (but is not limited to) any credit enhancement, insurance, guaranty, risk-sharing arrangement or any other form of credit support for a Loan (or any portion thereof) as provided in any Series Resolution or Supplemental Resolution.

Each of the Mortgage Loans financed with the proceeds of the Prior Bonds and each of the Mortgage Loans expected to be financed with the proceeds of the 2006 Series Bonds will be secured by a first lien mortgage. However, the Bond Resolution does not require that a Loan financed in the future be secured by a Mortgage constituting a mortgage lien on a Development, or that the lien of any Mortgage be a first lien. Any of the Loan requirements may be varied pursuant to Credit Enhancement of such Loan or, if the Loan is not Credit Enhanced, as required or permitted by the Administration.

Pursuant to the Bond Resolution, the Administration may, in its discretion: (i) sell any Loan not in default, (ii) release any Loan from the lien of the Bond Resolution, or (iii) materially modify, amend or alter any security for, or any terms or provisions, of any Loan or Mortgage. Before selling or otherwise transferring a Loan not in default (other than transfer of a Program Asset to a provider of Credit Enhancement or a Credit Facility provided that payment is made under the terms of the Credit Enhancement or Credit Facility), the Administration is required to file with the Trustee a Cash Flow Certificate taking such sale, release, cancellation, modification, amendment or alteration into account. The Administration may materially modify, amend, alter, release or cancel any terms or provisions of any Credit Enhancement.

Generally, the ability of the Administration to pay debt service on the Bonds depends upon the receipt of sufficient Revenues, principally comprising principal and interest payments on Loans, and earnings on investment of moneys in funds and accounts under the Bond Resolution. The Reserve Fund has been established to provide for the payment of debt service on the Bonds if Revenues for that purpose are at any time insufficient. If, however, Borrowers fail to satisfy their respective Loan obligations, and the proceeds of Credit Enhancement, if any, are insufficient, sufficient moneys may not be available to pay principal of and interest on the Bonds. The failure of a Borrower to make timely payment on its Loan or the occurrence of an event of default with respect to a Program Asset does not constitute a default with respect to any other Program Asset. Similarly, the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Bond Resolution does not, of itself, constitute an event of default with respect to any Program Asset. Under such circumstances, neither the Administration nor the Trustee has the right to accelerate payment of any Program Asset not in default. The 2006 Series Bonds are not secured by or payable from the assets and revenues of the 1980 General Certificate.

Developments. In addition to financing Loans, Bonds may be issued under the Bond Resolution to provide funds for the making, purchasing or otherwise financing or refinancing of Developments, including any project, facility, undertaking or purpose that the Administration is authorized to undertake, finance or provide financing for pursuant to the Act as now or hereafter in effect, including, without limitation, Single Family Residences, multi-family housing, group housing, shared living facilities, home improvements, housing rehabilitation and any undertaking or project, or portion thereof, which is defined as a “community development project,” a “public purpose project,” an “energy conservation project,” a “home improvement project,” an “infrastructure project” or a “special housing facility” by the Act.

Reserve Fund

The Reserve Requirement, as of any date of calculation, is the aggregate of the amounts specified as the Reserve Requirement for each Series of Bonds in the applicable Series Resolution. During fiscal year 1997, the Administration adopted the provisions of GASB 31, which require that the financial statements of the Administration reflect investments at fair value. Accordingly, the balance of the Reserve Fund reported at June 30, 2006, includes investments at fair value. As of June 30, 2006, the available balance in the Reserve Fund was $21,699,549, of which $7,260,180 was cash equivalents. The fair value of investments was $14,439,369, of which $14,044,137 was the book value of investments and $395,232 was the increase in fair value of investments. See Appendix J – “INVESTMENTS HELD IN THE RESIDENTIAL REVENUE BOND FUNDS” herein. The amount currently on deposit in the Reserve Fund is at least equal to the aggregate Reserve Requirement established in the Series Resolutions which is 2% of the sum of: (i) the aggregate lendable proceeds on deposit in the 2006 Series O Proceeds Account and the 2006 Series P Proceeds Account of the Program Fund relating to the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds and all Prior Bonds, and (ii) the aggregate principal amount of the Mortgage Loans then outstanding made or purchased from amounts described in clause (i) above.

If moneys in the Revenue Fund are insufficient to provide for the payment when due of any Principal Installment, interest on the Bonds or any Sinking Fund Installment with respect to the Bonds, the Trustee shall withdraw from the Reserve Fund and pay into the Revenue Fund the amount of such deficiency. If any such withdrawal results in the balance in the Reserve Fund falling below the amount of the Reserve Requirement, any such deficiency shall be replenished from amounts available in the Revenue Fund following payment of Principal Installments, Sinking Fund Installments, redemption premium (if any) and interest on the Bonds. The failure of the Administration to maintain the Reserve Requirement will not, in and of itself, constitute an Event of Default under the Bond Resolution.

The Trustee may, at the direction of an Authorized Officer, withdraw any amount in the Reserve Fund in excess of the Reserve Requirement, and any amount anticipated to be withdrawn in connection with the purchase or redemption of Bonds, and credit such amount to the Revenue Fund. The Reserve Fund and the Reserve Requirement may be funded with moneys or Cash Equivalents, in accordance with the requirements of the Bond Resolution and any Supplemental Resolution, or as determined to be deposited therein by the Administration. If, pursuant to a Supplemental Resolution, amounts obtained under a Credit Facility or Credit Enhancement are to be used to pay the Principal Installments of and interest on Bonds, then amounts in the Reserve Fund that would otherwise have been used for such purposes may be applied to reimburse the Credit Facility Provider or Credit Enhancer for the amounts so obtained, all in accordance with such Supplemental Resolution.

Collateral Reserve Fund

The Administration has established a Collateral Reserve Fund under the Bond Resolution to provide additional pledged collateral as it deems appropriate. The Bond Resolution does not require the funding of the Collateral Reserve Fund, except as determined by the Administration. Any moneys, Cash Equivalents (e.g., letters of credit, insurance policies, sureties, guaranties or other security arrangements), Program Assets, Non-Conforming Loans (i.e., Loans which do not comply with the mortgage eligibility requirements of the Code) or other assets on deposit in the Collateral Reserve Fund are pledged as security for the Bonds, but may be transferred to any other Fund or Account or withdrawn, free and clear of the lien of the Bond Resolution, by the Administration upon receipt by the Trustee of an Administrative Request and, with respect to amounts deposited pursuant to prior Series Resolutions, a Cash Flow Certificate.

Moneys, Cash Equivalents, Program Assets, Non-Conforming Loans and other assets may be deposited into the Collateral Reserve Fund in accordance with the requirements of a Series Resolution or a Supplemental Resolution. Such Series Resolution or Supplemental Resolution may establish terms, conditions and provisions relating to the funding of the Collateral Reserve Fund, disbursement of moneys or Cash Equivalents and the sale, disposition or release of Non-Conforming Loans from the Collateral Reserve Fund as well as the maintenance of such assets required to be held in such fund with respect to either a Series of Bonds or generally. The Collateral Reserve Fund was established with an initial deposit of $8,750,000. As of June 30, 2006, the fund had purchased Mortgage Loans with an original principal balance of $8,764,712. As of June 30, 2006, the Collateral Reserve Fund held Mortgage Loans with an outstanding principal balance of $4,872,344, and Investment Obligations in the amount of $6,508,158. See Appendix J – “INVESTMENTS HELD IN THE RESIDENTIAL REVENUE BOND FUNDS” herein.

In February of 2004, the Administration made a contribution of $45,000,000 to a new account called the Warehouse Loan Fund, established under the Collateral Reserve Fund of the Bond Resolution, for purchasing loans until a subsequent issuance is closed. Program Funds from a new issuance may be used to purchase loans from the Warehouse Loan Fund and return proceeds to the Warehouse Loan Fund. The Administration expects to apply certain amounts deposited into the Program Fund from proceeds of the 2006 Series Bonds to purchase Mortgage Loans from the Warehouse Loan Fund. For information on the status of the Warehouse Loan Fund, see Appendix B – “THE PROGRAM – Existing Portfolio and Available Funds Under the Bond Resolution – Status of Available Funds” and Appendix J – “INVESTMENTS HELD IN THE RESIDENTIAL REVENUE BOND FUNDS” herein.

Cash Flow Statements and Certificates

The Administration is required to file with the Trustee a current Cash Flow Statement whenever any Series of Bonds is issued, unless such filing is not required by a Rating Agency, provided that the Administration shall file with the Trustee a current Cash Flow Statement at least annually.

A Cash Flow Statement shall consist of a certification and calculation made by or for the Administration and signed by an Authorized Officer giving effect to the action proposed to be taken and demonstrating that:

- (i) Revenues;
- (ii) interest and other income estimated by the Administration to be derived from the investment or deposit of money available for payment of the Parity Obligations in any fund or account created by or pursuant to the Bond Resolution (which estimate shall be based upon the investments or deposits in any fund or account at the rate of return thereon or, in the case of future investments or investments or deposits expected to be made at the time of such certificate, at an assumed rate or reinvestment rate reasonably determined by the Administration);
- (iii) any fees charged by the Administration and any other available revenues; and
- (iv) any other moneys or funds pledged to the payment of the Parity Obligations, will be sufficient, in the judgment of an Authorized Officer of the Administration, to pay the principal of and interest on all Outstanding Bonds and other Parity Obligations described in the calculation in the current and in each succeeding Bond Year. A Cash Flow Statement shall include all Outstanding Bonds and other Parity Obligations, together with one or more Series of Bonds to be issued by the Administration, all as may be required by the Bond Resolution, and may exclude any or all Subordinate Contract Obligations. To the extent specified in a Supplemental Resolution, a fund or account established in said Supplemental Resolution shall not be taken into account when preparing a Cash Flow Statement.

In addition, the Cash Flow Statement shall demonstrate that: (1) the amount of moneys and Investment Obligations held in any Fund or Account pledged to the payment of the Bonds (valued at their cost to the Administration, as adjusted by amortization of the discount or premium paid upon purchase of such obligations ratably to their respective maturities), together with accrued but unpaid interest thereon, (2) the outstanding principal balance of Loans, together with accrued but unpaid interest thereon, and (3) any other assets, valued at their realizable value, pledged for the payment of the Bonds and other Parity Obligations, will equal or exceed the aggregate principal amount of and accrued but unpaid interest on Outstanding Bonds and other Parity Obligations; provided that in the event a Series Resolution specifies that, for purposes of the requirements of this paragraph, the Loans financed by such Series of Bonds shall be valued at other than their outstanding principal balance, then, with respect to such Loans, such other value shall be used in the calculations required by this paragraph.

The Administration is required to file with the Trustee a current Cash Flow Certificate:

(i) upon purchase or redemption of Bonds of a Series in a manner other than (A) as contemplated in the most recent Cash Flow Statement filed by the Administration with the Trustee, or (B) on a basis whereby the Bonds of each maturity of such Series are purchased or redeemed in the proportion that the amount Outstanding of such maturity bears to the total amount of all Outstanding Bonds of such Series, with respect to purchases or redemptions to be made from Recovery Payments or excess Revenues;

(ii) prior to withdrawing moneys from the Revenue Fund for payment to the Administration free and clear of the pledge and lien of the Bond Resolution, in an amount in excess of the amounts determined to be available for such purpose in the most recent Cash Flow Statement filed with the Trustee;

(iii) prior to selling or otherwise transferring any Loan not in default, except with respect to the sale or release of Non-Conforming Loans and Loans secured by a Credit Facility or a Credit Enhancement that continues in effect after such release provided that payment is made under the Credit Enhancement or Credit Facility.

A Cash Flow Certificate shall consist of a statement of an Authorized Officer of the Administration to the effect of one of the following: (1) the proposed action is consistent with the assumptions set forth in the most recent Cash Flow Statement; or (2) after giving effect to the proposed action, in the current and each succeeding Bond Year in which Bonds are scheduled to be Outstanding, the amounts described in clauses (i) through (iv) in the description of the Cash Flow Statement above will be sufficient, in the judgment of an Authorized Officer of the Administration, to pay the principal of and interest on all Outstanding Bonds described in the calculation, except that to the extent specified in a Supplemental Resolution, a fund or account established in said Supplemental Resolution shall not be taken into account in connection with such Cash Flow Certificate; or (3) the proposed action will not in and of itself materially adversely affect the amounts described in clauses (i) through (iv) in the description of the Cash Flow Statement above, except with respect to such funds or accounts that may be specified in such Supplemental Resolution to not be taken into account in connection with such Cash Flow

Certificate. The Administration, at its option, may file a Cash Flow Statement in lieu of a Cash Flow Certificate in any instance when it is required to file a Cash Flow Certificate.

Cash Flow Statements and Cash Flow Certificates shall be based upon the Administration's reasonable expectations, and shall be based upon assumptions consistent with those used in the most recent Cash Flow Statement or such other assumptions as shall not adversely affect any of the Rating Agencies' ratings on the Bonds. Such assumptions and information are subject to change which may materially affect the conclusions expressed in the statement or certificate. Accordingly, Bondholders should be aware that the existence of a Cash Flow Statement or Cash Flow Certificate does not assure that the conclusions expressed therein will accurately reflect future revenues or events.

Investment of Funds

Pending application to the purposes of each fund or account, moneys held in the various funds and accounts under the Bond Resolution will be invested in Investment Obligations. See Appendix C – "DEFINITIONS – Investment Obligations" and Appendix B – "THE PROGRAM – Existing Portfolio and Available Funds Under the Bond Resolution". As of June 30, 2006, the proceeds of Prior Bonds held in the Program Fund, the Revenue Fund, the Reserve Fund and the Collateral Reserve Fund were invested in the Investment Obligations set forth in Appendix J – "INVESTMENTS HELD IN THE RESIDENTIAL REVENUE BOND FUNDS".

In general, it is the Administration's policy to invest funds held in the Revenue Fund, the Reserve Fund, the Program Fund and the Collateral Reserve Fund in U.S. Treasury securities, collateralized investment contracts, accounts with financial institutions, and securities of other institutions created by the U.S. Government. In addition, the Administration expects to use all funds currently held in the Program Fund and the Collateral Reserve Fund to finance Mortgage Loans.

The Trustee may purchase Investment Obligations that do not meet the ratings requirements described in the definition of Investment Obligations, so long as the purchase of such Investment Obligations does not, as of the date of such purchase, in and of itself, result in a reduction or withdrawal of the then existing rating assigned to the Bonds (other than Subordinate Bonds) by any Rating Agency then rating the Bonds. If the rating of any Investment Obligation purchased by the Trustee changes adversely subsequent to the date of purchase, the Trustee is not required to sell such Investment Obligations. If a Rating Agency were to downgrade or withdraw the rating on any Investment Obligations previously purchased by the Trustee, the rating on the Bonds could be negatively affected. See "RATINGS" herein.

Credit Facilities

Under the Bond Resolution, payment of the principal or redemption or purchase price of and interest on each Series of Bonds issued thereunder may be, but is not required to be, secured by a Credit Facility. In connection with obtaining any such credit or liquidity facility, the Administration may under the Bond Resolution pledge to the provider thereof its interests in the Loans and the accounts created under the Bond Resolution and applicable Series Resolution relating to such Loans. To date, Bonds issued under the Bond Resolution have not been secured by a Credit Facility.

A Credit Facility may be: (i) an unconditional and irrevocable letter of credit in a form and drawn on a bank or banks acceptable to the Administration, so long as the providing of such letter of credit does not, as of the date it is provided, in and of itself, result in a reduction or withdrawal of the then existing rating assigned to the Bonds (other than Subordinate Bonds) by any of the Rating Agencies, (ii) cash, (iii) a certified or bank check, (iv) Investment Obligations, or (v) any other credit facility similar to the above in purpose and effect, including, but not limited to, a guaranty, standby loan or purchase commitment, insurance policy, surety bond or financial security bond or any combination thereof, which, in any case secures all or a portion of one or more Series of Bonds.

Credit Enhancement

Forms of credit enhancement may include mortgage insurance provided through the FHA mortgage insurance programs, private mortgage insurance, the VA and the USDA/RD guarantee programs, private mortgage insurance policies and the Maryland Housing Fund (“MHF”) mortgage insurance program. Other forms of credit enhancement also may include letters of credit, insurance policies, sureties, guarantees or any other security arrangement upon which the Administration or the Trustee may draw to provide credit support for Program Assets under the Bond Resolutions. All Loans with a loan-to-value ratio exceeding 80% and expected to be financed with the proceeds of the 2006 Series Bonds will be secured by Credit Enhancement in the form of FHA mortgage insurance, private mortgage insurance, a VA or USDA/RD guarantee, or MHF insurance. Any secondary financing in connection with a Loan not covered by Credit Enhancement described in the preceding sentence must be acceptable to the Administration. The secondary financing may include, for example, certain grants or loans from governmental or non-profit entities; any loans must be non-amortizing or amortize at an interest rate below the market rate. In the future, Loans may be, but are not required to be, secured by Credit Enhancement. See “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS”.

General Bond Reserve Fund

As an additional source of funds for the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds and notes issued or to be issued by the Administration, including the 2006 Series Bonds, the Administration has established the General Bond Reserve Fund (the “General Bond Reserve Fund”) pursuant to an Indenture of Trust by and between the Administration and Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, Baltimore, Maryland, as successor trustee, originally adopted as of June 29, 1984, and amended and restated as of November 18, 2003 between the Administration and Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company as trustee. Amounts on deposit in the General Bond Reserve Fund, to the extent available, may be used to pay the principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the Administration in the event that revenues and assets specifically pledged to such bonds and notes are not sufficient for the payment of principal of and interest on such notes or bonds. In addition, the Administration uses moneys in the General Bond Reserve Fund to cover costs of operation of the Administration. The Administration may withdraw funds within the General Bond Reserve Fund, or may pledge such funds to specific obligations, at any time for any purposes under the Act.

Balances. During fiscal year 1997, the Administration adopted the provisions of GASB 31, an accounting standard adopted by the Government Accounting Standards Board. GASB 31 requires the financial statements of the Administration to reflect investments at fair value. Accordingly, the balance of the General Bond Reserve Fund as reported at June 30, 2006, includes investments at fair market value. As of June 30, 2006, the available balance in the General Bond Reserve Fund was $36,083,422, of which $7,629,387 was cash equivalents. The fair value of investments was $28,454,035, of which $29,127,337 was the book value of investments and ($673,302) was the decrease in fair value of the investments.

On May 19, 1997, the Director of the Administration adopted a determination, approved by the Secretary, stating the Administration’s intent to use funds from the General Bond Reserve Fund to compensate for any deficiency in funds available to meet the Administration’s obligations to the holders of its Multi-Family Housing Revenue Bonds (Insured Mortgage Loans) if MHF becomes unable to or otherwise fails to pay a claim due to the Administration (the “Determination”). The Determination states that it is the policy of the Administration to maintain a total amount of cash, Investment Obligations and loans under the Administration's special housing opportunities program for financing Group Homes (the "Available Balance") in the General Bond Reserve Fund, as of July 1 of each year, of not less than $20,000,000.

The Determination also provides that the Administration shall provide Moody's with written notice: (i) if, as of July 1 of any year, the Available Balance in the General Bond Reserve Fund falls below $20,000,000, such notice to be given no later than July 30 for unaudited amounts, and no later than September 30, for audited amounts; and (ii) of any event pursuant to which the Administration places or causes to be placed any lien or restriction upon all of any part of the funds held in the General Bond Reserve Fund (other than liens established in connection with the payment of principal of or interest on any of the Administration's bonds from the General Bond Reserve Fund).

Special Restrictions. As of June 30, 2006, the Administration has restricted the following amounts in the General Bond Reserve Fund for the following purposes:

- (1) approximately $626,000 in order to provide a reserve fund for mortgage insurance for single family program mortgage loans,
- (2) $658,548 as required for participation in the HUD Risk-Sharing Program, and
- (3) $2,500,000 as additional security for the Administration's Multi-Family Housing Revenue Bonds (Insured Mortgage Loans).

The amount restricted pursuant to clause (3) is required to be transferred to, and subjected to the lien of, the bond resolution for the Administration's Multi-Family Housing Revenue Bonds (Insured Mortgage Loans) upon the occurrence of either of the following events: (i) the amount of loans insured by the MHF payable from its Multi-Family Reserve exceeds ten times an amount equal to the Multi-Family Reserve minus $1,000,000; or (ii) the ratio of assets to liabilities fall below 101% under the bond resolution for the Administration's Housing Revenue Bonds, the bond resolution for the Administration's Multi-Family Housing Revenue Bonds (Insured Mortgage Loans), or the general bond certificate for the Administration's Single Family Program Bonds. The requirement of clause (3) may be reduced or deleted if such reduction or deletion will not adversely affect the ratings then in effect on the bonds or Bonds, as applicable.

Unless a default has occurred with respect to payment of any principal (or, if applicable, any redemption premium) of the Bonds or other bonds issued by the Administration, the Administration may, subject to any limitations set forth in the preceding paragraph, withdraw amounts in the General Bond Reserve Fund or may pledge amounts in the General Bond Reserve Fund to specific obligations at any time for any purposes under the Act. Upon the occurrence of an event of default with respect to any bonds secured by the General Bond Reserve Fund, the trustee for the defaulted bonds may file a claim against the General Bond Reserve Fund in an amount equal to the amount in default, and upon filing such a claim will have a lien on the General Bond Reserve Fund in the amount of such claim. In the event of multiple defaults, claims against the General Bond Reserve Fund are given priority based upon time of receipt by the General Bond Reserve Fund trustee. There can be no assurance that moneys will be available in the General Bond Reserve Fund for the payment of principal of or interest on the Bonds. The Trustee is also the trustee for the General Bond Reserve Fund.

The Administration reserves the right to exclude the General Bond Reserve Fund as a potential source of security for Additional Bonds issued under the Bond Resolution.

Additional Bonds

General. The Administration, from time to time, may issue Additional Bonds that are on a parity with and shall be entitled to the same benefits and security under the Bond Resolution as all other Bonds previously issued under the Bond Resolution, including the 2006 Series Bonds and except Subordinate Bonds (described below). A series of Additional Bonds shall be authorized and issued under and secured by the Bond Resolution pursuant to the authorization contained in a resolution of the Administration relating to such series of Additional Bonds (a “Series Resolution”). A series of Additional Bonds may be issued to finance or refinance Program Assets, including, but not limited to, Mortgage Loans, to refund Bonds or other obligations (including bonds issued by the Administration under resolutions other than the Bond Resolution), to fund reserves, to pay Costs of Issuance or to achieve any other of the Administration’s purposes. Each Series Resolution authorizing the issuance of such series of Additional Bonds shall set forth the details of such Additional Bonds as well as any determinations by the Administration relating to Program Assets to be financed with the proceeds of such Additional Bonds. See Appendix D – “SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION – Issuance of the Bonds” herein.

Before a series of Additional Bonds shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee, the Administration shall cause to be on file with the Trustee, among certain items specified in the Bond Resolution, (i) an opinion of Bond Counsel concerning the security for such Bonds and the due adoption and valid and binding nature of the Bond Resolution and the Series Resolution, and (ii) a Cash Flow Statement, accompanied by a Certificate of the Administration to the effect that the Administration has been advised by each rating agency then maintaining a rating on the Bonds that the existing rating of Bonds then outstanding (other than Subordinate Bonds and any Series of Bonds which has a rating based on a credit facility) will not be reduced as a result of the issuance of the series of Additional Bonds (published rating criteria by such rating agency constituting evidence of such advice). See “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS – Cash Flow Statements and Certificates” herein.

Subordinated Bonds. The Administration, from time to time, may issue Additional Bonds to be secured by the Bond Resolution and a Series Resolution relating to such series of Additional Bonds, on a subordinated basis (“Subordinated Bonds”), subject to the conditions provided in the Bond Resolution and the related Series Resolution. A series of Subordinated Bonds may be payable from Revenues derived from the Bond Resolution, but only after payment of all other amounts payable from Revenues with respect to Bonds which are not Subordinated Bonds having a higher priority to payment from such Revenues. See Appendix D – “SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION – Authorization of Subordinate Bonds; Conditions Precedent to Delivery” herein.

Taxable Bonds. Prior to the issuance of the 2006 Series S Bonds, which are contemplated to be issued at the same time as the 2006 Series Bonds, the Administration has issued only tax-exempt bonds under the Bond Resolution. Taxable bonds issued under the Resolution are equally and ratably secured on a parity basis with the Bonds. Taxable bond proceeds may be used to: (a) make or purchase Mortgage Loans, (b) purchase certain Loans meeting the eligibility requirements for the Administration’s tax-exempt loans but for the first-time homebuyer requirement in a non-targeted area, (c) purchase refinancing Loans where the first mortgage is an adjustable rate loan or other loans with potential for an increased interest rate, where the borrower meets income limit requirements for the tax-exempt program and where the appraised value of the property does not exceed the purchase limits for the tax-exempt program, and (d) purchase certain other Loans that the Administration wishes to finance.

Interest Rate Swaps

The Administration previously entered into two master swap agreements, one with Bear Stearns Financial Products, Inc. (“BSFP”) (the “BSFP Master Swap Agreement”) and one with UBS AG (“UBS AG”) (the “UBS AG Master Swap Agreement”, together with the BSFP Master Swap Agreement, the “Master Swap Agreements”). Under the Master Swap Agreements the Administration has entered into the interest rate swaps described below in order to attain a synthetic fixed rate with respect to the variable rate Bonds associated with such interest rate swaps. The summary below sets forth the major terms of these interest rate swap transactions.

Interest Rate Swaps (In Thousands)
Swap Provider	Series of Bonds	Initial Notional Amount	Aggregate Outstanding Notional Amount	Effective Date	Fixed Rate Paid by Administration	Variable Rate Received by Administration⁽¹⁾	Termination Date
BSFP	2004 Series I	$20,000	$20,000	09/01/05	3.8525%	64% of LIBOR plus .29%	09/01/35 ⁽²⁾
UBS AG	2006 Series G	$40,000	$40,000	05/24/06	4.403 %	64% of LIBOR plus .29%	09/01/40 ⁽³⁾
BSFP	2006 Series J	$40,000	$40,000	07/13/06	4.403%	64% of LIBOR plus .29%	09/01/40 ⁽³⁾
BSFP	2006 Series J	$20,000	$20,000	07/13/06	4.455%	64% of LIBOR plus .29%	09/01/40 ⁽³⁾

(1) “LIBOR” means the monthly London Inter Bank Offered Rate.

(2) The Administration has the option to terminate this interest rate swap transaction in whole or in part without any Termination Payment on September 1, 2014 and on each March 1 and September 1 thereafter. If the option is exercised in part, the applicable Notional Amounts shall be reduced pro rata.

(3) The Administration has the option to terminate this interest rate swap transaction in whole or in part without any Termination Payment on March 1, 2016 and on each September 1 and March 1 thereafter. If the option is exercised in part, the applicable Notional Amounts shall be reduced pro rata.

In furtherance of the Administration’s general objectives for overall debt management as set forth in the Administration’s Interest Rate Exchange Agreement Policy, the Administration may enter into additional interest rate swaps with the Swap Providers under the Master Swap Agreements or with other swap providers pursuant to master swap agreements.

Scheduled payments made to the Administration by the Swap Providers under the Master Swap Agreements shall constitute Hedge Receipts under the Resolution and are pledged as security for the Bonds. The requirement to make scheduled payments to the Swap Providers by the Administration under the Master Swap Agreements is entitled to the lien created by the pledge under the Resolution and is therefore on a parity with the Bonds. The Administration’s rights and obligations under the Master Swap Agreements do not alter the Administration’s obligation to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds.

Under certain circumstances (including certain events of default with respect to the Administration or a Swap Provider), an interest rate swap pursuant to the Master Swap Agreements may be terminated in whole or in part prior to the maturity of the Bonds in connection with which the interest rate swap was entered into. Following any termination of an interest rate swap, either the Administration or a Swap Provider may owe a Termination Payment to the other party, depending upon market conditions. Under certain conditions, the Administration could owe a Termination Payment to a Swap Provider, which could be substantial. Such Termination Payment would be payable on a basis subordinate to the payment of principal of and interest on the Bonds, other than any Subordinate Bonds (the Administration, to date, has not issued Subordinate Bonds). The Administration has agreed with each Swap Provider that, for so long as the Administration owes a Termination Payment to such Swap Provider, it will not direct the Trustee to deposit “Excess Revenues” into the Redemption Account of the Redemption Fund for the purpose of redeeming Bonds. “Excess Revenues” for this purpose means Revenues in excess of amounts needed, or reasonably anticipated to be needed as shown in the Administration’s most recent Cash Flow Statement, (1) to make payments of interest and principal, at maturity or mandatory redemption due on the Bonds, to pay expenses in connection with any Credit Facility relating to the Bonds or as specified by the Administration and to fund the Reserve Fund in an amount sufficient to cause the amount on deposit in the Reserve Fund to equal the Reserve Requirement; (2) to be applied to the redemption of Bonds or to make or finance mortgage loans or participations in mortgage loans that do not bear interest in order to maintain the tax-exempt status of the Bonds; and (3) to be applied to the redemption of Bonds pursuant to specific undertakings to Owners of Bonds of a Series in a Series Resolution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Administration is not required to apply Revenues to such a Termination Payment if such payment would prevent the Administration from filing an acceptable Cash Flow Statement with the Trustee pursuant to the Resolution.

The swaps under the BSFP Master Swap Agreement and the swap under the UBS AG Master Swap Agreement contain specific collateral requirements that are in effect with respect to the Administration and the respective Swap Provider. The swaps each require a specific collateral level based on the respective credit rating of each Swap Provider and the Administration, and the value of such swap. Generally, the value threshold levels decline as the credit ratings of each party decline.

TAX EXEMPTION AND RELATED CONSIDERATIONS

Federal Law

The proceeds from the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series P Bonds will be used to finance Loans on Single Family Residences. The proceeds of the 2006 Series Q Bonds and the 2006 Series R Bonds will be used to finance Loans on Single Family Residences on or after the payment at maturity of the 2006 Series Q Bonds and the 2006 Series R Bonds. The federal tax laws provide that interest on bonds issued for this purpose will be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes provided the bonds meet requirements set forth in various sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “1986 Code”), principally Section 143 concerning qualified mortgage bonds. References herein to Section 143 and other provisions of the 1986 Code incorporate counterpart provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (the “1954 Code”), principally Section 103A of the 1954 Code, to the extent applicable to the 2006 Series Bonds. Under Section 143, a qualified mortgage bond is a bond which is issued as part of an issue the proceeds of which are used to finance owner-occupied residences meeting certain requirements relating to loan eligibility, Targeted Areas, arbitrage and other matters.

The loan eligibility requirements of Section 143 applicable to the 2006 Series Bonds are that (1) the residence on which the Mortgage Loan is made is a single family residence which is located in the State and can reasonably be expected to become the principal residence of the Borrower within a reasonable time after the Mortgage Loan is made; (2) except in certain limited circumstances, no part of the proceeds is to be used to acquire or replace any existing mortgage; (3) the acquisition cost (excluding usual and reasonable settlement or financing costs) of a property may not exceed a set percentage of the average area purchase price for residences in the area where the residence is located, which percentage depends on certain factors enumerated in Section 143; (4) with certain exceptions, the Borrower shall not have had a present ownership interest in his principal residence during the preceding three years; (5) with certain exceptions, the family income of the Borrower shall not exceed 115%, for families of three or more individuals, or 100%, for families of less than three individuals, of median gross income for the area in which the residence is located or the State, whichever is greater; and (6) the loan shall not be assumable unless the requirements of (1), (3), (4) and (5) above are met at the time of the assumption. An issue is treated as meeting the loan eligibility requirements of Section 143 if (1) the issuer in good faith attempted to meet all of the requirements before the loans were executed; (2) 95% or more of the proceeds of the issue used to finance loans was devoted to residences which met all such requirements at the time the loans were executed; and (3) any failure to comply with the loan eligibility requirements is corrected within a reasonable period after such failure is first discovered.

The 1986 Code imposes additional requirements to maintain the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes of interest on the 2006 Series Bonds. These requirements impose limits on the yield that the Administration may realize from Mortgage Loans, require arbitrage from investment income to be rebated to the Internal Revenue Service, limit the period during which Mortgage Loans may be originated, limit the size of reserve funds and the amount of proceeds that may be spent on costs of issuance, and require prepayments of the Mortgage Loans to be used for bond redemptions in certain circumstances. The Administration intends to make or purchase the Mortgage Loans financed with the proceeds of the 2006 Series Bonds and any other Series of Bonds which may be designated by the Administration at interest rates that comply with such requirements. Pursuant to the Series Resolutions, the Administration will covenant, in substance, to take, or refrain from taking, action, as necessary to comply with such requirements, unless in the opinion of Bond Counsel, it is not necessary to comply with such requirements in order to assure the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes of interest on the 2006 Series Bonds.

The terms and conditions of the Program documents have been designed to meet the requirements of the 1986 Code. The Administration will covenant in the Series Resolutions to meet these requirements and to take all steps necessary to comply with these requirements, including, but not limited to, initiating and pursuing foreclosure proceedings with respect to ineligible Mortgage Loans if repurchase obligations are either unavailable or prove to be unenforceable for any reason, so long as any 2006 Series Bonds issued to finance such Mortgage Loans are outstanding. See Appendix B – “THE PROGRAM – Eligible Mortgage Loans”. Noncompliance with the requirements in the Program documents and the Series Resolutions would cause interest on the 2006 Series Bonds to become includable in the gross income of the holders thereof retroactively to the date of issue and adversely affect the price of the 2006 Series Bonds in the secondary market.

Assuming continuous compliance with certain covenants in the Bond Resolutions intended to assure compliance with the applicable provisions of the 1986 Code and with the procedures established by the Administration, in the opinion of Ballard Spahr Andrews & Ingersoll, LLP, Washington, D.C., Bond Counsel, under existing laws, regulations, rulings and judicial decisions, interest on the 2006 Series Bonds is excludable from gross income of the holders thereof for federal income tax purposes. Bond Counsel is further of the opinion that interest on the 2006 Series O Bonds and the 2006 Series Q Bonds is not, and interest on the 2006 Series P Bonds and the 2006 Series R Bonds is, a tax preference item for purposes of the alternative minimum tax imposed on individuals and corporations under the 1986 Code. However, interest on the 2006 Series O Bonds or the 2006 Series Q Bonds held by a corporation (other than an S corporation, regulated investment company, real estate investment trust or real estate mortgage investment conduit) may be indirectly subject to federal alternative minimum tax because of its inclusion in the adjusted current earnings of a corporate holder. Interest on the 2006 Series Bonds held by foreign corporations may be subject to the branch profits tax imposed by the 1986 Code.

Ownership of the 2006 Series Bonds may result in other federal income tax consequences to certain taxpayers, including, without limitation, financial institutions, property and casualty insurance companies, individual recipients of social security or railroad retirement benefits, certain S corporations and taxpayers who may be deemed to have incurred or continued debt to purchase or carry the 2006 Series Bonds. Bond Counsel expresses no opinion as to these matters.

The PAC Bonds are being sold at a premium. An amount equal to the excess of the issue price of a PAC Bond over its stated redemption price at maturity will constitute original issue premium on such PAC Bond. An initial purchaser of a PAC Bond must generally amortize any premium periodically over the term of a PAC Bond in accordance with Section 171 of the Code. Purchasers of the PAC Bonds should consult with their tax advisors with respect to the determination and treatment of amortizable premium for federal income tax purposes and with respect to the state and local tax consequences of owning a PAC Bond.

The above summary of possible indirect tax consequences may not be exhaustive. All purchasers of the 2006 Series Bonds should consult their tax advisors regarding the possible federal income tax consequences of ownership of the 2006 Series Bonds.

The opinions referred to herein as to the treatment of interest on the 2006 Series Bonds for federal income tax purposes are based upon laws, regulations, rulings and decisions in effect as of the date hereof. There can be no assurance that legislation will not be introduced or enacted after the issuance and delivery of the 2006 Series Bonds so as to affect adversely the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes applicable to the 2006 Series Bonds. Under such circumstances, the Administration has no obligation to redeem or to increase the rate of interest paid on the 2006 Series Bonds. Each purchaser of the 2006 Series Bonds should consult his or her own tax advisor regarding any pending or proposed federal tax legislation.

State and Local Tax Exemption

In the opinion of Bond Counsel, the 2006 Series Bonds, their transfer, the interest payable thereon and any income derived therefrom, including any profit realized from their sale or exchange, are exempt from taxation of every kind and nature whatsoever by the State, or by its political subdivisions, municipal corporations or public units of any kind under existing law, except that no opinion is expressed as to such exemption from Maryland franchise taxes or estate or inheritance taxes. Interest on the 2006 Series Bonds may be subject to state or local income taxes in jurisdictions other than the State under applicable state or local tax laws. All purchasers of the 2006 Series Bonds should consult their tax advisors regarding the tax status of the 2006 Series Bonds in a particular state or local jurisdiction other than the State.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE PROGRAM

The financial statements for the years ended June 30, 2006 and June 30, 2005 of the Community Development Administration Residential Revenue Bonds (the "Fund") have been audited by Reznick Group, P.C. as described in the Independent Auditor's Report of Reznick Group, P.C. accompanying the financial statements in Appendix H to this Official Statement. There is no assurance that such ratings will be maintained for any given period of time or that they will not be lowered or withdrawn entirely by the issuing rating agency, if, in its judgment, circumstances so warrant. A downward change in or withdrawal of a rating may have an adverse effect on the market price of the 2006 Series Bonds. COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION
MARYLAND DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

By: /s/ Stephen D. Silver
Stephen D. Silver, Acting Director

November 15, 2006

APPENDIX A

THE DEPARTMENT AND ADMINISTRATION

General Information

The Administration was created in 1970 as a division of the Department of Economic and Community Development to meet the shortage of adequate, safe and sanitary housing in the State, particularly for persons or families of limited incomes. Chapter 311 of the Acts of Maryland 1987, effective July 1, 1987, abolished the Department of Economic and Community Development, created the Department and assigned the Administration as an agency in the Division of Development Finance of the Department.

The Secretary of Housing and Community Development (the “Secretary”) is the head of the Department and is appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. As of July 1, 2006, the Department consists of five divisions: the Division of Development Finance, the Division of Credit Assurance, the Division of Finance and Administration, the Division of Neighborhood Revitalization and the Division of Information Technology. A chart showing the organization of the Department, its divisions, and the Administration and the Maryland Housing Fund appears on page A-6 hereof.

The Division of Development Finance is the lending and bond issuing division of the Department, originating loans under the Department’s various lending programs and providing underwriting services for loans to the Department and its other divisions and agencies. In addition, the Administration, which is an agency within the Division, performs initial compliance review and approval of Mortgage Loans submitted by Mortgage Lenders.

The Secretary, with the approval of the Governor, appoints the Director of the Administration. The Director of the Administration, with the approval of the Secretary, appoints the Deputy Directors of the Administration and the other senior staff members of the Administration. The Act established a Housing Finance Review Committee (the “Review Committee”) which has the responsibility to review and to give recommendations to the Secretary regarding loans or categories of loans and the investment and project financing policies of the Administration. The Review Committee consists of seven members appointed by the Governor, including three members of the public, three members of the Department and one member of the Executive Branch not employed by the Department. When urgent action is required, the Secretary may approve a specific loan request without receiving the recommendation of the Review Committee.

The Division of Credit Assurance, the insuring division of the Department, provides certain asset management, monitoring and workout related services to the Department and its divisions and agencies, including the Administration. The Maryland Housing Fund (“MHF”) is an agency of the Department assigned to the Division of Credit Assurance.

The Division of Finance and Administration under the direction of the Chief Financial Officer of the Department provides budget, accounting, auditing and administrative services to the Department. In addition, the Administration has a finance office which handles finance and accounting for lending and bond activities and insurance activities. The Administration’s finance office reports directly to the Director of the Administration, and receives oversight, advice, and guidance from the Chief Financial Officer of the Department as it relates to financial matters. MHF’s finance function is a part of the Division of Finance and Administration under the direction of the Chief Financial Officer. The Department's Chief Financial Officer provides advice and guidance to the Director of MHF with respect to its financial functions.

The Division of Information Technology develops and maintains information systems and trains Departmental staff in the use of computer resources.

The Department has a Revenue Bond Advisory Board (the "Board") that provides independent advice and expertise to the Department with respect to issuance of revenue bonds, including the Bonds. The Board consists of seven members appointed by the Secretary, including the Deputy Secretary (who chairs the Board), one other representative of the Department, two representatives of other agencies of State government (one from an agency which issues revenue bonds), one representative of the State Treasurer's Office, and two members of the public. The Board reviews and makes recommendations to the Secretary with respect to each issuance of bonds. The Secretary has the final authority to approve each issuance after receipt of the Board's recommendation. When urgent action is required, the Secretary may approve an issuance of bonds without action by the Board or may vary the terms of the Board's recommendation. In addition, the Board advises the Department on procedures for issuing bonds and on selection and performance of financial advisors and underwriters.

The Administration pays all costs and expenses of operating its programs from earnings received from its programs financed by bond indentures of the Administration in excess of the amounts required to pay principal of and interest on its bonds and notes.

The office of the Administration is located at 100 Community Place, Crownsville, Maryland 21032. Inquiries for documents or concerning this Official Statement should be directed to CDA Bonds - Investor Relations at (410) 514-7326 or by e-mail at cda_bonds@mdhousing.org.

Ms. Sylvester holds a J.D. from the University of Maryland Law School and a B.A. from Johns Hopkins University.

Other Housing Programs of the Department

In addition to the Residential Revenue Program which is financed with the proceeds of Bonds (see Appendix B – “THE PROGRAM”), and the single family program financed with proceeds of bonds issued under the 1980 General Certificate, the staff of the Administration also is responsible for a broad range of other housing programs operated by the Department. Proceeds of Bonds and other funds held under the Bond Resolution are not used to support the Department’s other programs. Revenues generated by such other programs are not subject to the lien of the Bond Resolution or available to secure the payment of principal or interest on the Bonds. However, the executive officers of the Department and the Administration and certain senior staff members who are responsible for the Program also are responsible for the Department’s other programs; therefore, under certain circumstances these other programs may compete with the Program for administrative and policy priority.

Single Family Housing. Single Family Housing includes the Department’s Homeownership Programs and Special Loan Programs. The Administration’s Single Family Housing staff operates the Department’s Homeownership Programs that are funded with State appropriations. These state-funded programs, which may or may not be funded at varying levels from year to year, currently provide low-interest mortgages to low- to moderate-income home buyers. In addition, the Department may have funding available from time to time for a Downpayment and Settlement Expense Loan Program for loans to eligible borrowers who are also receiving loans under the Program. Finally, Single Family Housing also administers a federally-funded weatherization assistance program and the federally-funded HOME Program, as well as providing administrative management for the Maryland Affordable Housing Trust.

The Special Loan Programs, which are funded with State appropriations, provide rehabilitation loans for general rehabilitation, installation of indoor plumbing, abatement of asbestos and radon gas, reduction of lead paint, and creation of accessory shared and sheltered housing for low and moderate income households. Federal HOME funds may also be used to finance rehabilitation loans for low income homeowners. These programs also provide loans to nonprofit organizations and individuals to purchase or construct group homes for low-income persons with special needs; group homes are funded with state appropriations, and are also expected to be funded from bonds issued under the Administration’s Housing Revenue Bonds resolution.

Multi-Family Housing. Multi-Family Housing includes the Department’s Housing Production Programs and Rental Service Programs. The Department’s Housing Production Programs encompass a number of finance programs which support the production, rehabilitation and preservation of affordable rental housing, including the following:

The Administration’s multi-family housing revenue bond program provides financing for development of rental developments whose owners are required to set aside certain percentages of available units for families of low or moderate income.

The Rental Housing Fund consists of rental housing finance programs funded with State appropriations and federal HOME funds which provide low-interest mortgages with flexible repayment terms, interest rate write-downs and operating subsidies to increase the supply of new rental housing and to maintain and rehabilitate existing rental housing for low income elderly and family tenants.

The Partnership Rental Housing Program provides funding from general obligation bonds and potentially other state appropriations to local governments, housing authorities, and partnerships in which these entities are involved, to assist in financing the construction or rehabilitation of low income housing. The public entities provide the land and participate in the ownership and management of the properties. The properties are intended to remain low income housing in perpetuity, and the State moneys are required to be repaid only if the low income requirements are not enforced.

The Department's Rental Service Programs include the Rental Assistance Programs and the Project-Based Section 8 Contract Administration. Under the Rental Assistance Programs, the Administration administers the rental subsidies provided under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, in 29 subdivisions of the State. The housing subsidy staff also administers a Rental Allowance Program, which is funded with State appropriations. This program is administered through local governments and provides fixed monthly rental assistance payments for up to twelve months, subject to extension by the Secretary, to lower-income households that cannot be served by federal or other state programs and are either homeless or have critical and emergency housing needs.

In addition, the Department was selected by HUD as the Contract Administrator for Project-Based Section 8 Housing Assistance Payment ("HAP") Contracts for the State of Maryland. As Contract Administrator, the Department makes payments to each property owner with the terms of the HAP Contracts and HUD regulations and requirements.

Infrastructure Financing Programs

The Infrastructure Financing Program was created to provide an additional, accessible and uncomplicated mechanism to finance the essential physical elements that constitute the basis of the public service system operated and maintained by local governments. More information on the Administration's outstanding infrastructure bonds can be found in Appendix E. These infrastructure loans and the assets and revenues held under these bond and series resolutions are not subject to the lien of the Bond Resolution and are not available to pay principal of or interest on the Bonds.

APPENDIX B

THE PROGRAM

The Administration adopted the Bond Resolution in 1997 pursuant to the Act primarily to finance single family housing loans under the Residential Revenue Bond Program, but reserved the right to finance and also may issue Bonds to finance other kinds of housing and other types of loans permitted to be financed under the Bond Resolution. Prior to the adoption of the Bond Resolution, the Administration funded its single family program primarily through the issuance of bonds under the 1980 General Certificate. The Administration expects, but is not required, to issue bonds for its single family program in the foreseeable future primarily under the Bond Resolution instead of the 1980 General Certificate. The Administration also expects, however, to finance loans under the 1980 General Certificate from time to time in connection with refunding or economic measures. The description of the Residential Revenue Bond Program contained in this Appendix B does not describe the mortgage portfolio financed under the 1980 General Certificate, except for a description of the “Status of Funds under the 1980 General Certificate” below.

Information provided in this Appendix B is derived from the Administration’s most recently available statistics which are compiled from different sources on a weekly, monthly, and quarterly basis and later revised as necessary.

Existing Portfolio and Available Funds Under the Bond Resolution

Existing Portfolio. As of June 30, 2006, the Mortgage Loan portfolio of the Administration under the Bond Resolution consisted of 6,967 Mortgage Loans with an aggregate principal amount outstanding of $713,986,574.

Participations in Mortgage Loans. The Administration may finance Mortgage Loans by purchasing participation interests in such Mortgage Loans, which may include Mortgage Loans financed with different Series of Bonds issued under the Bond Resolution, or Mortgage Loans financed with proceeds of bonds issued under the 1980 General Certificate and bonds issued under the Bond Resolution. Where participation interests involve the 1980 General Certificate, payments of principal on all such Mortgage Loans, including Prepayments or recoveries from foreclosure of defaulted Mortgage Loans, will be allocated on a pro rata basis in conformance with the contributions of proceeds from bonds issued under the 1980 General Certificate and bonds issued under the Bond Resolution. Each such Mortgage Loan shall bear interest at a rate determined from time to time by the Administration, with as little as 0% of such interest allocable to participation interests purchased with proceeds of bonds issued under the 1980 General Certificate and up to 100% of such interest allocable to participation interests purchased with proceeds of bonds issued under the Bond Resolution. As described below in “Certain Information Relating to Mortgage Loans”, portions of several series of bonds under the Bond Resolution each have been blended with 0% funds from one or more series of bonds which were issued under the 1980 General Certificate.

In addition, the following table sets forth, as of June 30, 2006, information on the number of whole loans and participation loans in the Mortgage Loan portfolio under the Bond Resolution:

Whole Loans and Participation Loans
as of June 30, 2006⁽¹⁾

	Current Number of Mortgage Loans	Original Principal Amount	Outstanding Principal Balance 06/30/06
Loans financed entirely under the Bond Resolution	6,264	$695,749,263	$664,285,998
Participation loans financed under both the Bond Resolution and the 1980 General Certificate (2)	703	55,869,732	49,700,576
TOTAL	6,967	$751,618,995	$713,986,574

(1) Individual amounts may not add up to the total amount because of rounding.

(2) A participation loan is financed in part by the Bond Resolution and in part by the 1980 General Certificate. The principal amounts reported here are the sum of the principal portion of all participation loans financed by the Bond Resolution. In reporting the number of loans, each participation loan counts as a loan under the Bond Resolution and also under the 1980 General Certificate.

The Administration may also finance Mortgage Loans with the proceeds of two series of bonds under the Bond Resolution, where the funds from one of the series of bonds earns interest at the rate of 0%. See "Certain Information Relating to Mortgage Loans" below.

Status of Available Funds. The chart below sets forth the status of available funds under the Bond Resolution as of October 2, 2006.

(1) Individual amounts may not add up to the total amount because of rounding.

(2) In the context of this chart Amount of Loans Purchased includes loan origination fees paid to the Originating Lenders and de minimus amounts of remaining proceeds transferred or to be transferred to corresponding revenue accounts.

(3) The Administration expects that a certain percentage of applicants receiving reservations will not proceed to funding. Therefore, the Administration accepts reservations in an amount exceeding the funds available. To the extent necessary because of over-reservations or for other reasons, loans may be purchased into other series in a manner consistent with federal law.

(4) The Warehouse Loan Fund is funded from excess revenues and is intended to provide an interim funding source for loans purchased in between the bond issuance dates.

The chart above sets forth the Status of Funds as of October 2, 2006. Funds have been reserved as of that date for loans at interest rates ranging from 4.875% to 6.75%. For information on interest rates for purchased loans, see Appendix K. As a result of economic refundings and management of bond proceeds, the Administration has been able to generate funds for the purchase of Mortgage Loans, or portions thereof, which bear an interest rate of 0%. In addition, the Administration has issued several series of variable rate bonds. Through the issuance of variable rate Bonds and the availability of 0% funds, the Administration has increased flexibility in setting lending rates for the general program. On October 2, 2006, the interest rates for general program loans were as follows:

Program	3 Point	2 Point	1 Point	0 Point	0 Point with 2% Grant	0 Point with 3% Grant
40 Year Amortization	5.375%	5.625%	5.875%	6.125%	6.500%	6.625%
30 Year Amortization
30 Year Amortization with First 7 Years Interest Only.	5.250%	5.500%	5.750%	6.000%	6.375%	6.500%
35 Year Amortization with First 5 Years Interest Only.
40 Year Amortization with First 7 Years Interest Only.

Additional updates on interest rates may be found at www.dhcd.state.md.us. Interest rates for new loans are subject to change, depending upon available funds and market conditions.

Use of Funds from the Sale of 2006 Series Bonds. The Administration expects to apply a portion of funds made available from the issuance of the 2006 Series Bonds to finance Mortgage Loans. Origination fees (including discount points) for the Mortgage Loans range from zero points to three points; in addition, a grant of 2% or 3% may be available. A Mortgage Loan may have an original term of 30, 35 or 40 years with even monthly payments of principal and interest, or the loan may have interest-only payments for the first several years, followed by even monthly amortizing payments of principal and interest. The Administration currently offers a five-year interest-only payment period followed by a 30-year period of principal and interest payments; and a seven-year period of interest-only payments followed by a 23- or 33-year period of principal and interest payments. Pending application to the purposes of each fund or account, moneys held in various funds and accounts under the Bond Resolution will be invested in Investment Obligations.

All Mortgage Loans allocable to the 2006 Series Bonds have been, or are expected to be purchased primarily from Mortgage Lenders to finance the acquisition of existing, newly constructed or substantially rehabilitated Single Family Residences located throughout the State, including Targeted Areas. For reasons discussed in “‘Smart Growth’ Requirements” below, all newly constructed homes financed by Mortgage Loans will be located in priority funding areas.

The Administration may use all or a portion of proceeds available for Mortgage Loan to finance Mortgage Loans on behalf of the Participating Counties (described below) for Single Family Residences located in those countries, where the Participating Counties have requested the Administration to issue their allocable portion of qualified mortgage bonds. The participating counties are the Counties of Allegany, Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Calvert, Caroline, Carroll, Cecil, Charles, Dorchester, Frederick, Garrett, Harford, Howard, Kent, Queen Anne’s, St. Mary’s, Somerset, Talbot, Washington, Wicomico, Worcester and the City of Baltimore (the “Participating Counties”). If the Participating County does not use some or all of its allocation within any required period, the Administration may reallocate the funds to another Participating County or use the funds to purchase Mortgage Loans that finance the acquisition of Single Family Residences located in other jurisdictions of the State.

A portion of the funds relating to the Bonds may be made available (1) for Mortgage Loans pursuant to special initiatives or to commitments for eligible community development projects of Single Family Residences or (2) for Mortgage Loans made by the Administration. See “Homeownership Initiatives and Developer Reservations” and “Mortgage Loans Made by the Administration” below.

Eligible Mortgage Loans

General Provisions. Each Mortgage Loan must comply with the Act and with the following conditions: (1) a deed of trust must be executed and recorded in accordance with the requirements of existing laws; (2) the deed of trust must be the subject of a title insurance policy in an amount at least equal to the outstanding principal amount of the Mortgage Loan, insuring that the deed of trust constitutes a first lien, subject only to permitted liens and encumbrances; (3) unless the Mortgage Loan has a loan-to-value ratio of 80% or less and meets other requirements of the Administration, the Mortgage Loan must be subject to FHA mortgage insurance, a VA or USDA/RD guarantee, private mortgage insurance acceptable to the Administration, or insurance through the Maryland Housing Fund; (4) the Mortgage Loan must require either (a) escrow payments on the part of the Borrower with respect to all taxes, assessments, water rates, ground rents, sewer rates, common area expense, insurance premiums (including mortgage insurance premiums) and other charges and prior items or (b) reasonable alternative arrangements for the payment of such amounts which are satisfactory to the Administration and acceptable to the Trustee; (5) the monthly payments of principal and interest on the Mortgage Loan must be established at the time the Mortgage Loan is made; and (6) the property securing the Mortgage Loan must be insured, with a uniform standard extended coverage endorsement, as and to the extent required by the Administration to protect its interest against loss or damage by fire, and other hazards, and by flooding if the Single Family Residence is located in an area designated as having specific flood hazards. See Appendix G – “MORTGAGE INSURANCE AND GUARANTEE PROGRAMS” herein.

Purchase Price Limitations. The federal tax law and the Act place limits on the maximum purchase price of a residence financed with a Mortgage Loan. The maximum purchase price permitted under the federal tax law may vary from county to county, and currently ranges from $266,625 in non-Targeted Areas in Wicomico County, to $525,091 for homes in Targeted Areas of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan statistical area. In addition, FHA maximum mortgage amounts vary from county to county and currently range from $200,160 for Allegany, Caroline and Dorchester Counties, to $362,790 for the Washington, D.C. primary metropolitan statistical area, which includes Calvert, Charles, Frederick, Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties. In certain counties, the insurer’s or guarantor’s maximum mortgage amounts may be less or more than the maximum purchase prices permitted under federal tax law. The maximum purchase price of a residence financed by the Administration may not exceed the lesser of either the insurer’s or guarantor’s mortgage limit or the maximum purchase price established by federal tax law. Lower purchase price limits may apply to certain Mortgage Loans made available at interest rates that are lower than those generally available or for other programmatic reasons. In addition, maximum purchase price limits may be set lower for Mortgage Loans to be financed in particular community development projects of Single Family Residences or through Homeownership Initiatives.

Mortgage Loan Amounts. The maximum amount of a Mortgage Loan may not exceed the FHA maximum insured mortgage loan amount, the maximum loan amount guaranteed by VA or USDA/RD or insured under private mortgage insurance, as applicable. Under certain circumstances, the mortgage insurer or guarantor may allow financing above the amount of the purchase price of the mortgaged property in order to permit the financing of an up-front mortgage insurance premium, funding fee, guarantee fee, permitted closing costs, and other permitted costs such as rehabilitation and related costs permitted by FHA under the FHA Section 203(k) Rehabilitation Insured Mortgage Program, or by a lender that has an acquisition-rehabilitation program. The Administration may finance such costs as part of the Mortgage Loan. Therefore, a substantial proportion of the Mortgage Loans are expected to have loan-to-value ratios which equal or exceed 100%. The USDA/RD guarantee permits financing of closing costs and guarantee fee above the purchase price, as long as the total loan amount does not exceed the appraised value.

Borrower Income Limitations. The federal tax law and the Act place limits on maximum annual income of Borrowers eligible to receive Mortgage Loans. From time to time the Secretary may determine income limits other than those that are generally applicable (subject to the limits imposed by Section 143). In addition, the insurer or guarantor may have maximum income limits that may differ from the limits imposed by federal law or the Act. The maximum income limit permitted under the federal tax law, which is adjusted for household size, may vary from county to county, and currently ranges from $75,900 for a one- or two-person household in certain non-Targeted Areas of the State to $126,420 for a three-person or larger household in certain Targeted Areas of the Washington, D.C. metropolitan statistical area. The maximum annual household income of Borrowers eligible to receive Mortgage Loans may not exceed the lesser of the maximum income limits permitted under federal tax law or by the mortgage insurer or guarantor. Lower income limits may apply to certain Mortgage Loans made available at interest rates that are lower than those generally available or for other programmatic reasons. In addition, maximum income limits may be set lower for Mortgage Loans to be financed in particular community development projects of Single Family Residences or through Homeownership Initiatives.

“Smart Growth” Requirements. Title 5, Subtitle 7B (Priority Funding Areas) of the State Finance and Procurement Article of the Maryland Annotated Code (the “Smart Growth Act”), enacted in 1997, in general requires the Administration to ensure that newly constructed homes financed by Program loans are located in certain “priority funding areas.” The Smart Growth Act requirement does not apply if the loan is financed through bonds issued under a county’s transfer of its allocation to the Administration under Title 13, Subtitle 8 of the Financial Institutions Article. See “Existing Portfolio and Available Funds Under the Bond Resolution – Application of Proceeds of 2006 Series Bonds”.

Compliance with Federal Tax Law and Program Requirements. Under the 1986 Code, the failure by a Borrower to occupy a Single Family Residence financed by a Mortgage Loan for a period of 12 consecutive months may result in the inability of such Borrower to deduct interest payments for income tax purposes with respect to such Mortgage Loan during such period. In addition, under the 1986 Code, Borrowers may be required to pay a recapture tax as a result of the sale or other disposition of the Single Family Residence.

In order to comply with Section 103A and Section 143 and to meet other Program requirements, the Administration will require that each Mortgage Loan meet certain additional requirements, including the following:

(1) each Borrower must certify that the proceeds of the Mortgage Loan will be used only to acquire a Single Family Residence located in the State to be owned and occupied by the Borrower, and, except in certain limited circumstances, will not be used to acquire or replace an existing mortgage or other financing of a residence or any improvements thereto;

(2) each Borrower must certify with respect to the residence to be acquired that the Borrower (a) is presently occupying such residence as the Borrower’s principal residence, or shall occupy such residence as his principal residence in most cases within no more than 60 days after the closing of the Mortgage Loan, (b) intends thereafter to maintain the residence as the Borrower’s sole residence, and (c) will not use all or any portion of the residence in any trade or business activity, except with the prior written permission of the Administration;

(3) subject to certain exceptions, each Borrower must (a) provide to the Mortgage Lender or the Administration such Borrower’s income tax information filed with the Internal Revenue Service during the preceding three years and (b) certify, and the Administration also examines the income tax information as evidence, that the Borrower had no present ownership interest in a principal residence of the Borrower at any time during the three-year period ending on the date the Mortgage Loan is originated, unless the home to be financed is located in a Targeted Area, as defined below, where such prohibition on prior homeownership is not dictated; and

(4) each Borrower and seller must certify the amount of the acquisition cost of the mortgaged property, and such acquisition cost may not exceed maximum acquisition costs established by the Administration in conformity with Section 143, FHA or other applicable maximum loan amounts, and Administration policy.

Targeted Area Set-Aside. As required by the 1986 Code, certain percentages of proceeds of Bonds may be required to be reserved to finance residences located in Targeted Areas throughout the State for a period of at least one year following the date of delivery of the related series of Bonds. A “Targeted Area,” as defined in Section 143(j) of the 1986 Code, is an area which is either (1) a census tract in which 70% or more of the families have income which is 80% or less of the statewide median family income, or (2) an area of chronic economic distress designated by the State as meeting State standards for such designation and the designation of which has been approved by the United States Secretary of the Treasury and the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

Soldiers’ and Sailors’ Civil Relief Act. It is possible that one or more of the Mortgage Loans could be affected by the Soldiers’ and Sailors’ Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, which applies to persons called to active duty in the armed forces. The act creates a rebuttable presumption that any persons called to active duty will experience a “material impairment of their ability to pay their debts”. As a result, the outstanding debts of a person called to active duty will be reduced to bear interest at an annual rate of 6% for the period of military service. The act also provides that foreclosure on such debt will not be permitted. A mortgagee, such as the Administration, may apply to any federal or State court to override the presumption and preclude its effects on a debt, such as a Mortgage Loan.

Remedies for Noncompliance. Mortgage Loans will provide that if the Administration discovers that any of the Borrower’s covenants in the deed of trust, including the Borrower’s and the seller’s certifications concerning eligibility for the loan, is untrue or incomplete, the Administration may require that the Mortgage Loan become immediately due and payable.

Mortgage Loans purchased from Mortgage Lenders are subject to repurchase by such Mortgage Lenders in the event of certain types of noncompliance. See “Mortgage Loans Purchased from Mortgage Lenders – Provisions for Repurchase of Mortgage Loans” below.

In an effort to assure continued compliance with Sections 103A and 143, the Administration includes due on sale clauses in the Deeds of Trust for Mortgage Loans, except to the extent FHA, VA, or USDA/RD do not permit such provisions. The Administration will require borrowers to seek the permission of the Administration and the mortgage insurer for any assumption of Mortgage Loans by Borrowers. Under the federal Depository Institutions Act of 1982, due-on-sale clauses, such as those to be contained in the Deeds of Trust with respect to the Mortgage Loans, are generally enforceable, with certain exceptions which may affect the ability of the Administration to enforce such clauses. Although there has been no reported Maryland court decision on the enforceability by the Program of due-on-sale clauses, an Assistant Attorney General of the State, in his capacity as counsel to the Department, rendered an opinion in 1981 that due-on-sale clauses in the context of the Program would be enforceable under Maryland law. However, any such enforcement by equitable remedies, such as foreclosure, would be subject to the exercise of discretion by the courts.

Mortgage Loans Purchased from Mortgage Lenders

The Administration purchases Mortgage Loans from qualified Mortgage Lenders. The Mortgage Lenders accept applications from potential Borrowers, screen them for eligibility, reserve funds with the Administration, obtain the required mortgage insurance commitment, obtain pre-closing compliance approval from the Administration, settle the Mortgage Loans with the Borrowers, and submit the Mortgage Loans to the Administration for purchase.

The Division of Development Finance (the “Division”) performs the initial screening of Mortgage Loans for eligibility under the criteria set forth above, unless a Mortgage Lender meets certain requirements to exempt the Mortgage Lender’s loans from an initial screening. See “Eligible Mortgage Loans” herein. After a Mortgage Lender obtains a reservation for a potential Borrower, the Mortgage Lender submits the potential Mortgage Loan to the Division. The Division reviews the potential Mortgage Loan for eligibility under the criteria set forth above.

After reservation and the initial eligibility screening of the Mortgage Loan, the Mortgage Lender has 90 days from reservation for an existing residence, or 150 days for new construction, to submit the Mortgage Loan to the Administration. Upon receipt of a post-closing compliance submission for a Mortgage Loan, the Administration conducts a review of the Mortgage Loan for eligibility under the criteria summarized above. If a Mortgage Loan is not eligible for reasons which, in the Administration’s judgment, can be corrected, it is the practice of the Administration to afford the Mortgage Lender with an opportunity to cure the deficiency. The Administration may not purchase the Mortgage Loan, however, if the deficiency is not cured and the purchase file approved within 150 days of the reservation date for an existing home or 210 days if new construction.

The Administration purchases Mortgage Loans at a price equal to the outstanding principal balance thereof. Except as permitted otherwise by the Administration, the Mortgage Lender may collect origination fees (“points”) which include any fee paid to the Administration. Under the three-point program, the Mortgage Lenders pay the Administration a fee ranging from one percent and two percent, depending on when the purchase file is approved. Under the two-point program, the Mortgage Lenders pay the Administration a fee ranging between zero percent and one percent, depending on when the purchase file is approved. The Mortgage Lender thus receives a one percent origination fee and may receive a service release fee ranging between one percent of the original loan balance and 0 percent, depending on when the purchase file is approved. Such fees paid to the Administration are not revenues under the Bond Resolution. Under the one-point program, the Mortgage Lender receives a one-point origination fee and the Administration pays the Mortgage Lender a fee of up to one percent, depending on when the purchase file is approved. Under the zero-point program, the Administration pays the Mortgage Lender a fee ranging between one percent and two percent, depending on when the purchase file is approved. Under the zero-point 2% grant program, the Administration pays the Mortgage Lender a fee ranging between one percent and two percent, depending on when the purchase file is approved plus an additional 2% to reimburse the Mortgage Lender for funding the 2% grant at the closing. Under the zero-point 3% grant program, the Administration pays the Mortgage Lender a fee ranging between one percent and two percent, depending on when the purchase file is approved plus an additional 3% to reimburse the Mortgage Lender for funding the 3% grant at the closing.

Eligibility of Mortgage Lenders. Each Mortgage Lender must be (1) a “mortgage lender” within the meaning of the Act, (2) an approved seller of mortgage loans to Freddie Mac or Fannie Mae or who otherwise meets origination requirements of the Administration, and (3) in compliance with all other applicable State and federal laws, rules and regulations governing the business of the Mortgage Lender and the making of loans for residential housing. Each Mortgage Lender must enter into a Purchase Agreement with the Administration. The Administration may permit, upon its written approval, assignment of a Purchase Agreement to another Mortgage Lender that meets the preceding criteria.

Representations of Mortgage Lenders. Each Purchase Agreement sets forth or will set forth certain representations and warranties by the Mortgage Lender to the Administration concerning the Mortgage Loans sold to the Administration, including, among others, that at the time of delivery of such Mortgage Loan to the Administration (1) there is no default or delinquency under the terms of the Mortgage Loan, and no payments are more than 20 days past due under the Mortgage Loan; (2) the Mortgage Loan has never been more than 45 days in arrears; (3) all documents required to be filed to perfect the lien on the mortgaged property against third parties have been filed; (4) the deed of trust for such mortgaged property is the subject of a title insurance policy by an insurer acceptable to the Administration in an amount at least equal to the original principal amount of the Mortgage Loan, insuring that the deed of trust constitutes a first lien (except as otherwise permitted by the Administration for Mortgage Loans which may be financed under future bond series), subject only to permitted liens and encumbrances; (5) the term of the Mortgage Loan does not exceed any limits set forth in the Purchase Agreement; (6) the Mortgage Loan meets all applicable State and federal laws, codes and regulations; (7) if the Mortgage Loan was made to finance the purchase of a newly constructed residence, the builder has warranted all materials, workmanship and mechanicals under a homeowners warranty acceptable to the mortgage insurer or credit enhancer; (8) the improvements constituting part of the property are covered by hazard insurance as required by the Administration; and (9) each Mortgage Loan with a loan-to-value ratio greater than eighty percent is subject to mortgage insurance from FHA, a mortgage guarantee from VA or USDA/RD, the Maryland Housing Fund or private mortgage insurance acceptable to the Administration. In addition, under the Act, each Mortgage Lender must certify with respect to each Mortgage Loan that, in its opinion, the Borrower could not obtain a mortgage loan to purchase the property in the unassisted private lending market.

Special Mortgage Purchase Agreements. The Administration may enter into alternate mortgage purchase agreements with certain Mortgage Lenders that are not Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac approved sellers of mortgage loans, provided that the Mortgage Lenders meet origination and other requirements of the Administration, which include experience in residential mortgage lending and in working with governmental or private mortgage insurance programs approved for Mortgage Loans.

Provisions for Repurchase of Mortgage Loans. Each Purchase Agreement further provides or will provide that the Mortgage Lender will repurchase any Mortgage Loan sold to the Administration, upon written notice by the Administration, if at any time (1) the Administration determines that any representation was untrue or incomplete when made or a misstatement of a material fact exists in any of the documents delivered in connection with such Mortgage Loan; (2) there is a failure to deliver required Mortgage Loan documents; (3) any mortgage insurance with respect to such Mortgage Loan lapses because of the negligence of the Mortgage Lender with respect to the servicing of such Mortgage Loan; (4) the Administration suffers or is threatened with a material loss by reason of the misfeasance, nonfeasance or malfeasance of the Mortgage Lender or its agent acting as servicer of such Mortgage Loan; (5) any payment of principal and interest is not made on the Mortgage Loan or the initial premium for any mortgage insurance is not paid and, on the basis of such non-payment, the issuer of mortgage insurance refuses to pay a claim on such Mortgage Loan; and (6) the Mortgage Lender, without prior written consent of the Administration, waives the enforcement of (or consents on behalf of the Administration to waive) the particular provisions of the Mortgage Loan requiring that (a) the Mortgage Loan is due on sale and may not be assumed except to the extent that the Mortgage Loan so provides; (b) at the time the Mortgage Loan is made, the Borrower shall not borrow additional amounts secured by the lien of the deed of trust without the consent of the Administration; and (c) an event of default permitting acceleration of the indebtedness shall occur if the Administration determines that any representation or statement of a material fact in any document executed in connection with the Borrower's application or the origination of such Mortgage Loan was or is untrue or incomplete.

If a Mortgage Lender refuses to repurchase a Mortgage Loan, then the Administration may seek enforcement through legal proceedings which are subject to bankruptcy, insolvency and other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and to the exercise of judicial discretion in accordance with general principles of equity. Such legal proceedings may result in a delay of the repurchase. The ability of a Mortgage Lender to repurchase a Mortgage Loan will depend upon the financial condition of the Mortgage Lender at the time of the required repurchase.

Homeownership Initiatives and Developer Reservations

Homeownership Initiatives. From time to time, the Administration may set aside a portion of proceeds of the Bonds for special initiatives that promote targeted homeownership objectives. For these special initiatives, the Administration may adjust interest rates, income limits and other eligibility criteria, within the requirements of the 1986 Code or the 1954 Code, as applicable, and the requirements of the credit enhancer.

Developer Reservations. The Administration may agree to provide financing for Mortgage Loans to eligible purchasers of Single Family Residences in certain "community development projects" (the "Single Family Projects") pursuant to commitments to developers. The Administration requires the developer to submit an application acceptable to the Administration. Upon a determination by the Secretary of project eligibility under the Act, the Administration issues a commitment to a developer for a specified time period to finance Mortgage Loans to eligible purchasers with respect to the Single Family Project. A commitment reserves financing for prospective purchasers who qualify and are eligible under the Program and also sets forth maximum sales prices on units to be financed by the Administration and covenants and warranties to be made by the developer. The Administration may allow developers of Single Family Projects to make a deposit in an escrow account which will be applied to reduce the monthly payments due on Mortgage Loans made on residences in the Single Family Projects for up to four years after closing.

After a developer has sold a Single Family Residence and entered into a sales contract, the developer or a representative of the developer forwards the completed loan application to the Administration, if the Administration is expected to make the Mortgage Loan, or to a Mortgage Lender, if the Administration is expected to purchase the Mortgage Loan.

For developers who arrange for Mortgage Loan financing of individual Mortgage Loans through approved Mortgage Lenders, the Administration will purchase Mortgage Loans for Single Family Residences either in accordance with a Purchase Commitment or pursuant to a reservation initiated by the Mortgage Lender on behalf of the borrower.

Status of Funds Under the 1980 General Certificate

As of June 30, 2006, no original issuance funds were available for purchasing loans.

Loans under the 1980 General Certificate are pledged to the repayment of bonds issued under the 1980 General Certificate and do not secure payment of the Bonds.

Mortgage Loans Made by the Administration

The Administration is authorized to originate Mortgage Loans, but will not originate FHA, VA, USDA/RD or privately insured loans unless it becomes an FHA, VA or USDA/RD lender or a lender authorized by a private mortgage issuer. The Administration may originate loans eligible for insurance through the Maryland Housing Fund, with Maryland Housing Fund approval. The Administration also may originate uninsured loans that have acceptable secondary financing from the Department, a governmental agency or a non-profit. If the Administration becomes such a lender, the process would be as follows: The Administration would receive a completed application for a Mortgage Loan financing the acquisition of a Single Family Residence in certain Single Family Projects, and the staff of the Administration would review the information in the application, make a determination of creditworthiness of the prospective Borrower. Among other things, the staff would determine that the Borrower complied with the Program eligibility requirements. The Administration would issue a commitment to make a Mortgage Loan to such Borrower and a settlement date would be scheduled. The Administration may but generally has not charged loan origination fees in the past in connection with Mortgage Loans made directly by the Administration.

Mortgage Loans originated by the Administration that are found to be ineligible under Section 103A or Section 143 are not subject to repurchase by any Mortgage Lender. In order to preserve the exclusion from gross income for federal income tax purposes of the interest payable on the 2006 Series Bonds, the loans may be sold out of the Bond Resolution portfolio or the Administration may declare such Mortgage Loans in default and commence foreclosure proceedings or take other appropriate measures. Foreclosure is an equitable remedy subject to various defenses and judicial discretion.

Servicing of Mortgage Loans

Master Servicer Agreement. All Mortgage Loans are serviced by Bogman, Inc., the master servicer (the “Master Servicer”).

The agreement with the Master Servicer (the “Master Servicer Agreement”) requires the Master Servicer to perform all duties and acts incident to the servicing of Mortgage Loans covered thereby that a reasonable, prudent mortgagee would perform with respect to mortgage loans owned by it. The Master Servicer is responsible for the collection of all payments from Borrowers and must render an accounting monthly to the Administration of all sums collected and disbursed under the Master Servicer Agreement. The Master Servicer is required to remit to the Trustee all Mortgage Repayments, Prepayments and curtailments it receives with respect to Mortgage Loans serviced under the Master Servicer Agreement. In addition, the Master Servicer Agreement requires the Master Servicer to have in effect (and maintain during the term of the related Master Servicer Agreement), at no cost to the Administration, a fidelity bond and policies of insurance providing fire and extended coverage and errors and omissions coverage, all in amounts and with coverage satisfactory to the Administration, for mortgagee errors and omissions and insuring against loss arising from dishonest, criminal or fraudulent acts, and errors and omissions of the officers and employees of the Master Servicer.

If any default occurs on a Mortgage Loan covered by the Master Servicer Agreement, the Master Servicer must take all actions necessary and proper to enforce all applicable contractual provisions of the defaulted Mortgage Loan, including, at the direction of the Administration, the institution of foreclosure proceedings. The Administration will bear all foreclosure and related expenses, to the extent not reimbursable by the applicable mortgage insurance or collected from the Borrower. The failure of the Master Servicer to send notice properly and report to the Administration or the insurer of a Mortgage Loan as to the status of a delinquent Mortgage Loan may result in the Master Servicer being required to compensate the Administration.

The Master Servicer is required to comply with detailed requirements set forth in the Department's servicing manual.

Asset Management. Asset management for Mortgage Loans is provided to the Administration by the Single Family Operations section of the Division of Credit Assurance ("Asset Management").

With respect to the Mortgage Loans, Asset Management:

(1) monitors the servicing performance of the Master Servicer for compliance with the requirements of the Master Servicer Agreement and the Department's servicing manual by requiring from each Mortgage Agent:

- (a) monthly Mortgage Loan delinquency reports;
- (b) annual audited financial statements; and
- (c) an annual certification that the Master Servicer is complying with the Master Servicer Agreement and the Department's servicing manual;

(2) directs and reviews Master Servicer's handling of Mortgage Loan delinquencies;

(3) directs and evaluates Master Servicer's actions in connection with foreclosure proceedings; and

(4) analyzes delinquencies and foreclosures and creates and implements corrective action plans.

The Division of Credit Assurance has contracted with a private sector realty company which provides REO management and disposition services for properties in the REO portfolio. Asset Management staff monitors these services.

Estimated Revenues of Program

Under Section 143 of the Code, the yield of the Mortgage Loans or participations therein allocable to each Series of federally tax-exempt Bonds issued under the Bond Resolution (other than with any contributions by the Administration) may not exceed the yield of such Series of Bonds by more than 1-1/8 percentage points. All Revenues derived from such Mortgage Loans are available for payment of the Bonds. However, except as otherwise permitted under the 1986 Code, an amount equal to the portion of Revenues derived from investments in Investment Obligations made in connection with such Series of Bonds (other than with contributions by the Administration) that exceeds a yield equal to the yield of such Series of Bonds (calculated in accordance with Section 143 of the Code, whichever is applicable) or represents gains made on such investments must be paid to the United States. Such restrictions limit the amounts available to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds. The Administration estimates that, in each year in which the 2006 Series Bonds are scheduled to be outstanding, there will be sufficient moneys available under the Bond Resolution to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds, after payment of (1) fees and expenses of the fiduciaries and (2) the estimated costs of servicing the Mortgage Loans and other Program expenses.

Repurchase of Mortgage Loans

From January, 1998 through June 30, 2006, thirty-one Mortgage Loans had been repurchased by the Mortgage Lender or servicer as required by the Administration. Seven repurchase demands remain outstanding as of June 30, 2006.

APPENDIX D

SUMMARY OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE BOND RESOLUTION

The following is a brief summary of certain provisions of the Bond Resolution and such summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Bond Resolution.

Purposes for Which Bonds May be Issued

The Bond Resolution provides that Bonds may be issued to provide funds for one or more of the following purposes:

- (a) for the making, purchasing or otherwise financing Program Assets;
- (b) for the refinancing of Program Assets (including, without limitation, Program Assets in default);
- (c) for the refunding of any or all Outstanding Bonds or any other bonds, notes or other obligations, whether or not the Administration is the issuer thereof, including any or all interest and redemption premiums thereon;
- (d) for the funding of reserves;
- (e) for the funding of costs of issuance, redemption premiums relating to Bonds and Administration expenses; or
- (f) achieving any other of the Administration's purposes, as described in the Act, as now or hereafter in effect. [§101]

Contract with Trustee and Bondholders

As provided in the Act and as covenanted in the Bond Resolution, in consideration of (i) the acceptance by the Trustee of the trusts created, (ii) the purchase and acceptance of Bonds of any Series issued thereunder by any who shall from time to time be holders thereof and (iii) the entering into of other Parity Obligations or Subordinate Contract Obligations:

- (a) The provisions of the Bond Resolution and applicable Series Resolutions are contracts of the Administration with the Trustee, the Parties and the holders of the Bonds.
- (b) The Administration covenants that it will cause to be paid to and deposited with the Trustee all proceeds of Bonds, all payments of Loans, and all income and receipts therefrom. [§103]

Issuance of the Bonds

Each Series of Bonds shall be authorized and issued under and secured by the Bond Resolution pursuant to the authorization contained in a Series Resolution. The Bonds of each Series shall be designated as provided by the Series Resolution. The Bonds shall be in such subseries (if any), shall be in such denominations, shall be dated, shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding the maximum rate then permitted by law payable beginning on such date, shall be stated to mature on such dates, shall be made redeemable at such times and prices (subject to the provisions of the Bond Resolution), shall have such interest payment dates, shall be numbered and the Term Bonds of such Series shall have such Sinking Fund Requirements, all as may be provided by the Series Resolution for such Bonds. Except as may otherwise be provided in the Series Resolution for Subordinate Bonds, and except as to any differences in the maturities or the interest payment dates or the rate or rates of interest or the provisions for redemption, such Bonds shall be on a parity with and shall be entitled to the same benefits and security under the Bond Resolution as all other Parity Obligations under the Bond Resolution.

Each Series Resolution authorizing the issuance of a Series of Bonds shall include a determination by the Director of the Administration that the issuance of such Series of Bonds is necessary to achieve one or more purposes of the Administration, and may specify and determine such other details as may be required.

Before the Bonds of the Series shall be authenticated and delivered by the Trustee, there shall be on file with the Trustee the following: (i) a copy of the Bond Resolution and the Series Resolution duly certified by an Authorized Officer; (ii) a Bond Counsel's Opinion stating in the Opinion of such counsel that (A) the Bond Resolution and the applicable Series Resolution have been duly adopted and are valid and binding upon the Administration (subject to reasonable exceptions with respect to enforceability under bankruptcy laws, the police power of the State or other similar laws, and the availability of specific performance and other equitable remedies under State law) and (B) the Bonds being issued are valid and legally binding special limited obligations of the Administration secured in the manner and to the extent set forth in the Bond Resolution and the applicable Series Resolution and are entitled to the benefit, protection and security of the provisions, covenants and agreements contained in the Bond Resolution and the applicable Series Resolution; (iii) a Cash Flow Statement conforming to the requirements of the Bond Resolution, accompanied by a Rating Certificate with respect to Bonds other than Subordinate Bonds; and (iv) a request and authorization to the Trustee on behalf of the Administration, signed by an Authorized Officer, to authenticate and deliver the Bonds to the purchaser or purchasers identified in such request upon payment (or provision therefor) to the Trustee for the account of the Administration of the purchase price of the Bonds or, in the instance of Bonds purchased for delivery at a later date or dates, upon such later date(s) as specified in a Series Resolution. [§209]

Authorization of Subordinate Contract Obligations; Conditions Precedent to Delivery

The Administration may from time to time enter into Subordinate Contract Obligations to be secured by the Bond Resolution on a subordinated basis, subject to the conditions hereinafter provided.

Payment of Subordinate Contract Obligations, including the principal or redemption price of and interest on, and the purchase price of each Series of Subordinate Bonds, may be secured by the pledge of funds and accounts under certain provisions of the Bond Resolution, including Subordinate Contract Obligation Accounts, to the extent specified in the Series Resolution, subordinate, however, to the pledge securing Parity Obligations, and upon such terms and conditions set forth in the Series Resolution authorizing such Subordinate Contract Obligations. Subordinate Contract Obligations may be payable from Revenues derived under the Bond Resolution, but only after payment of all other amounts payable from Revenues with respect to Parity Obligations and with respect to any Subordinate Contract Obligations having a higher priority to payment from such Revenues.

The Series Resolution authorizing a Subordinate Contract Obligation may provide that such Subordinate Contract Obligation shall be secured solely by such proceeds or Revenues and not by any other moneys, funds or accounts held under the Bond Resolution, and that such proceeds or Revenues shall not constitute security for or a source of payment of any other Bonds or other Subordinate Contract Obligations outstanding or thereafter issued or entered into in accordance with the Bond Resolution. The Series Resolution authorizing a Subordinate Contract Obligation may establish different priorities of payment and security among different Subordinate Contract Obligations. [§210]

Qualified Hedges

The Administration may, to the extent from time to time permitted pursuant to law, enter into Qualified Hedges. The Administration's obligation to pay any amount under any Qualified Hedge may be secured by a pledge of, and a lien on, Revenues on a parity with the lien securing the Parity Obligations (a "Parity Hedge Obligation"), or may constitute a Subordinate Contract Obligation, as determined by the Administration in the Series Resolution authorizing the related issue of Bonds or in a Supplemental Resolution. Parity Hedge Obligations shall not include any payments of any termination (including Termination Payments) or other fees, expenses, indemnification or other similar obligations to a Party to a Qualified Hedge, which payments shall be Subordinate Contract Obligations payable from Revenues deposited into a Subordinate Contract Obligation Account in the order of priority set forth in the Bond Resolution.

Purchase of Bonds

Amounts on deposit in the Revenue Fund may be applied as applicable to the purchase of Bonds of each Series then Outstanding, whether or not such Bonds or portions thereof shall then be subject to redemption. The Trustee, upon Administration Request accompanied by a Cash Flow Certificate if required by the Bond Resolution, is required to purchase from such amounts such Bonds, whether they be Serial Bonds or Term Bonds, as specified in such Administration Request. The Trustee is required to pay the interest accrued on such Bonds or portions of Bonds to the date of settlement for the Bonds from the Revenue Fund. The Bond Resolution provides that no purchase of a Bond is to be made by the Trustee after the giving of notice of redemption as to that Bond by the Trustee. Purchased Bonds are required to be delivered to the Trustee for cancellation. [§405]

Funds and Accounts Established by the Bond Resolution

The Bond Resolution establishes the following funds and accounts to be held by the Trustee in trust for application in accordance with the Bond Resolution;

- (i) Program Fund, which, for each Series of Bonds, will contain a Series Program Account;
- (ii) Revenue Fund, which will consist of:
 - (a) Debt Service Account,
 - (b) Recovery Payment Account,
 - (c) Redemption Account, and
 - (d) Subordinate Contract Obligation Accounts;
- (iii) Reserve Fund;
- (iv) Collateral Reserve Fund;
- (v) Acquired Development Fund; and
- (vi) Rebate Fund. [§401]

Additional Funds and Accounts (including for the purpose of depositing amounts required to be related to mortgagors or the United States) may be created and designated in Series Resolutions.

Program Fund

Except as may be provided by a Series Resolution for Subordinate Bonds, amounts received upon the sale of a Series of Bonds are to be deposited in the Program Fund and credited to the related Series Program Account in the amount, if any, provided in the applicable Series Resolution. In addition, amounts are to be deposited in the Program Fund from the Revenue Fund as provided in the Bond Resolution and from any other source and are to be credited to the Series Program Account as specified in the Administration Request directing the transfer.

Amounts in a Series Program Account may be used to pay Costs of Issuance of the related Series of Bonds, or to reimburse the Administration for Costs of Issuance, in either case in the amount specified in or pursuant to the Series Resolution, upon a requisition stating generally the nature and amount of those Costs of Issuance signed by an Authorized Officer. Amounts in Series Program Accounts other than amounts used or to be used to pay Costs of Issuance are to be applied by the Trustee upon Administrative Request: (i) to finance the making or acquisition of Program Assets, (ii) to pay costs of Credit Enhancement with regard to Program Assets or any Credit Facility with regard to Bonds, (iii) to pay costs of completing an Acquired Development as set forth in the Bond Resolution, and (iv) as otherwise provided in the Series Resolution. [§402]

Revenue Fund

The Trustee is required to transfer to and deposit in the Revenue Fund all amounts transferred to it from the Program Fund as provided in the Bond Resolution or from the Reserve Fund as provided in the Bond Resolution and credit those amounts to the Accounts as specified in the Bond Resolution. Amounts received upon the sale of a Series of Bonds are to be deposited in the Revenue Fund in the amount, if any, provided in the applicable Series Resolution, for credit to the Debt Service Account to pay debt service as specified in the Series Resolution.

Recovery Payments are to be credited to the Recovery Payment Account. Except as may be limited by a Series Resolution, amounts in the Recovery Payment Account may be transferred at any time upon an Administration Request to the Redemption Account, the Debt Service Account or any Series Program Account.

At any time, upon Administration Request, the Trustee is required to apply amounts in the Revenue Fund not credited to any Account in the Fund to pay the accrued interest portion of the cost of acquiring any Loan consistent with the related Series Resolution.

Upon their receipt, the Administration is required to notify the Trustee as to any amounts which have been received for accrued interest with respect to Loans made or acquired from amounts which were expended from the Series Program Account (to the extent not so funded from a transfer from the Revenue Fund). The Trustee is required to transfer those amounts to the credit of the applicable Series Program Account.

On or prior to each payment date for the following obligations the Trustee is required to transfer all amounts in the Revenue Fund not in any Account in the Revenue Fund to the credit of Funds and Accounts in the following priority:

- (1) to the Debt Service Account, an amount sufficient, together with amounts on deposit in that Account, timely to pay interest and principal, at maturity or mandatory redemption, due on such debt service payment date Parity Bonds, and any other payments due on such payment date on other Parity

Obligations, and to pay any Expenses in connection with any Credit Facility related to such Parity Obligations, as set forth in the Series Resolution or a Supplemental Resolution;

(2) to the payment of Expenses specified in a Series Resolution, or such other Expenses provided in an Administration Request;

(3) to the Reserve Fund, an amount sufficient to cause the amount on deposit in that Fund, including Cash Equivalents permitted by a Series Resolution, to equal the Reserve Requirement;

(4) to the Redemption Account, an amount as specified in an Administration Request;

(5) to any Series Program Account in the Program Fund, an amount as specified in an Administration Request; or

(6) to any Subordinate Contract Obligation Accounts, an amount sufficient together with amounts on deposit in that Account, established by a Series Resolution for Subordinate Contract Obligations, timely to pay when due, any Subordinate Contract Obligation and to pay any Expenses in connection with any Credit Facility related to such Subordinate Contract Obligations, as set forth in the Series Resolution or a Supplemental Resolution or to provide any reserve with respect to Subordinate Contract Obligations.

At any time the Trustee is required to, upon Administration Request, accompanied by a Cash Flow Certificate, release amounts on deposit in the Revenue Fund to the Administration for any lawful purpose free and clear of the pledge and lien of the Bond Resolution.

At any time the Trustee is required to, upon Administration Request, apply amounts in the Revenue Fund not credited to any Account in it or the Rebate Fund to make required rebates pursuant to the Code.

At any time the Trustee is required to apply, upon an Administration Request, amounts in the Revenue Fund and not credited to any Account in it to the purchase of Bonds at the times, in the manner and for the purposes set forth in the Bond Resolution.

At any time, upon Administration Request, amounts on deposit in the Revenue Fund may be applied to pay Expenses as specified in an Administration Request. [§403]

Reserve Fund

The Administration is required to deposit amounts in the Reserve Fund as provided in the Series Resolutions and as provided in the Bond Resolution. The Trustee is required to transfer money held in the Reserve Fund to the Debt Service Account, pursuant to the Bond Resolution. Amounts held in the Reserve Fund as of any date in excess of the Reserve Requirement, taking into account any Cash Equivalents in the Reserve Fund, are required to, upon an Administration Request, be transferred to the Revenue Fund. A Series Resolution may provide that the Reserve Requirement or any excess balances in the Reserve Fund with respect to the applicable Series of Bonds may be funded in whole or in part through Cash Equivalents or other Program Assets. [§408]

Collateral Reserve Fund

Moneys, Cash Equivalents, Program Assets, Non-Conforming Loans and other assets may be deposited into the Collateral Reserve Fund in accordance with the requirements of a Series Resolution or a Supplemental Resolution, which may establish terms, conditions and provisions relating to the funding of the Collateral Reserve Fund, the making or purchase of loans or other Assets approved by the Administration, disbursement of moneys or Cash Equivalents and the sale, disposition or release of Program Assets, Non-Conforming Loans from such fund, and maintenance of moneys, Cash Equivalents, Program Assets or Non-Conforming Loans, or assets required to be held in such fund with respect to either a Series of Bonds or generally. Any moneys, Cash Equivalents, Program Assets, Non-Conforming Loans or other assets on deposit in the Collateral Reserve Fund may be transferred to any other Fund or Account or withdrawn by the Administration upon receipt by the Trustee of an Administrative Request.

The Trustee is required to transfer amounts from the Collateral Reserve Fund to the credit of the Debt Service Account as provided in the Bond Resolution. [§409]

Acquired Development Fund

Acquired Development Receipts are required to be held by the Trustee in the Acquired Development Fund and are required to be used solely for the payment of Acquired Development Expenses; provided that any amount specified by an Authorized Officer as not being needed to maintain the Acquired Development Expense Requirement is required to be transferred to the Revenue Fund.

Payments from the Acquired Development Fund are required to be made upon the direction of an Authorized Officer. Upon receipt of each such direction of an Authorized Officer, the Trustee is required to pay the amount stated therein to the Administration by check or draft or is required to arrange for the transfer, deposit or payment of such amounts as directed by the Authorized Officer.

The Administration is required to maintain on its books of account a separate account within the Acquired Development Fund for each Acquired Development, showing all disbursements of money withdrawn for it from the Acquired Development Fund, and is required to provide to the Trustee, at least quarterly, a report showing in reasonable detail the expenditures for each Acquired Development.

The Trustee is required to transfer amounts from the Acquired Development Fund to the credit of the Debt Service Account as provided in the Bond Resolution. [§410]

Sale of Program Assets; Release of Lien of Resolution

The Administration is authorized to sell, assign or otherwise dispose of a Program Asset (and to release the same from the lien of the Bond Resolution), in addition to a sale, assignment or disposition pursuant to the Bond Resolution or any applicable Supplemental Resolution, provided that, with respect to any Program Asset not in default, the Administration files with the Trustee a Cash Flow Certificate taking into account such sale, assignment or disposition pursuant to the Bond Resolution.

The Administration is authorized to release a Program Asset secured by a Credit Facility or Credit Enhancement, reserves created or held with respect to such Program Asset or the Series of Bonds (or portion of such Series) issued to make, purchase or finance such Program Asset and any other moneys to be received with respect to such Program Asset from the lien of the Bond Resolution at the direction of the Credit Facility Provider or Credit Enhancer which issued or provided any Credit Facility securing the Series of Bonds which financed the Program Asset or the Credit Enhancement securing the Program Asset, provided such Credit Facility or Credit Enhancement continues in effect. Such release may occur only after payment is made under the terms of the Credit Facility or Credit Enhancement. [§617]

Cash Flow Statements and Certificates

See the discussion of Cash Flow Statements and Certificates under the heading “SECURITY FOR THE BONDS – Cash Flow Statements and Certificates”.

The Cash Flow Statement shall be based upon the Administration’s reasonable expectations, and shall be based upon assumptions consistent with those used in the most recent Cash Flow Statement or such other assumptions as shall not adversely affect any of the Rating Agency’s ratings on the Bonds. In calculating the amount of interest due on Bonds in the current and each succeeding Bond Year in which Bonds are scheduled to be Outstanding on Bonds bearing interest at a variable rate as defined in a Supplemental Resolution, the initial interest rate shall be used so long as doing so does not adversely affect any of the Rating Agency’s ratings on the Bonds. [§608]

Redemption of Bonds

The Bonds issued under the provisions of the Bond Resolution are subject to redemption, both in whole and in part and at such times and redemption prices, as may be provided in the applicable Series Resolution. Term Bonds may be made subject to sinking fund redemption pursuant to their Sinking Fund Requirements on the dates and during the period during which such Sinking Fund Requirements are in effect, as established in the applicable Series Resolution.

The Trustee, at the direction of the Administration, is required to select the Bonds or portions of Bonds to be redeemed or purchased in accordance with the Bond Resolution and the applicable Series Resolution. Except as otherwise stated in the related Series Resolution, money is required to, upon an Administration Request to the Trustee accompanied by a Cash Flow Certificate, as may be required by the Bond Resolution, be applied by the Trustee to the purchase or the redemption of Bonds selected from among the Series (and subseries, if applicable), maturities and interest rates on the basis specified by the Administration in that Administration Request. Except as otherwise provided in a Series Resolution, the Administration Request relating to each redemption of Bonds is required to be filed with the Trustee at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date upon which notice of redemption is caused to be delivered by the Trustee to all registered owners of Bonds to be redeemed, or such lesser number of days as are acceptable to the Trustee.

Except as otherwise provided in a Series Resolution, if less than all of the Bonds of one Series (and subseries, if applicable) and one maturity bearing the same interest rate (and otherwise of like tenor) are called for redemption, the particular Bonds of such Series (and subseries if applicable) and maturity bearing the same rate of interest (and otherwise of like tenor) to be redeemed are to be selected not later than fifteen (15) days prior to the date upon which notice of redemption is caused to be delivered by the Trustee to all registered owners of Bonds to be redeemed, or such lesser number of days as are acceptable to the Trustee in such manner as directed by the Administration. If no such direction is received by the Trustee, the Trustee is required to select the Bonds to be redeemed by lot or in such other manner as it in its discretion may determine. The portion of Bonds of any Series (and subseries, if applicable) to be redeemed is required to be in the minimum principal amount or some integral multiple of such minimum principal amount established for such Bonds in the applicable Series Resolution, and in selecting Bonds for redemption, the Trustee is required to treat each Bond as representing that number of Bonds which is obtained by dividing the principal amount of such Bond by such minimum principal amount.

If less than all of the Term Bonds Outstanding of any one maturity of a Series (or subseries, if applicable) are purchased for cancellation or called for redemption (other than in satisfaction of Sinking Fund Requirements), the principal amount of such Term Bonds that are so purchased or redeemed is to be credited, to the extent practicable, except as otherwise provided in an Administration Request, against all remaining Sinking Fund Requirements for the Term Bonds of such Series (and subseries, if applicable) and maturity in the proportion which the then remaining balance of each such Sinking Fund Requirement bears to the total of all Bonds of such Series (and subseries, if applicable) and maturity then Outstanding. [§301]

Investment of Moneys Held by the Trustee

Any and all money held by the Trustee under the Bond Resolution, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Bond Resolution, is to be held in trust, is to be applied only in accordance with provisions of the Bond Resolution and are not to be subject to any lien, charge or attachment by any creditor of the Administration.

Money deposited under the Bond Resolution is to, as nearly as is practicable, be fully and continuously invested or reinvested by the Trustee upon the direction of an Authorized Officer (promptly confirmed by delivery of an Administration Request) in Investment Obligations which are to be in such amounts and bear interest at such rates that sufficient money will be available to pay the principal and interest when due on the Bonds and the other obligations permitted under the Bond Resolution and which mature, or which are subject to redemption by the holder at the option of the holder, such that sufficient money will be available for the purposes intended.

Any Investment Obligations so purchased in any Account or Fund are to be deemed at all times to be part of such Account or Fund. Unless the Administration otherwise directs, any interest paid on the investment in any Account or Fund (except the Rebate Fund) is to be credited to the Revenue Fund and is to be treated as Revenues. Any interest paid on the investment of the Rebate Fund is required to be credited to the Rebate Fund. Any profit or loss resulting from an investment is to be credited to or charged against the applicable Account or Fund of which it is an investment. The Trustee is required to sell or present for redemption any obligations so purchased whenever it is necessary to do so in order to provide money to meet any payment or transfer from any such Account or Fund. The Trustee, when authorized by an Authorized Officer, may trade with itself in the purchase and sale of securities for such investment. Neither the Trustee nor the Administration is liable or responsible for any loss resulting from any such investment. [§§501 and 502]

Program Covenants; Enforcement of Mortgage Loans

The Administration covenants in the Bond Resolution that:

- (i) the Administration will use and apply the proceeds of the Bonds, to the extent not required by the Bond Resolution for other Program purposes, to make or purchase or otherwise finance Qualified Program Assets or otherwise apply such proceeds in accordance with the provisions and requirements of each applicable Series Resolution;
- (ii) the Administration will do all such acts and things as are necessary to receive and collect Revenues and such payments for taxes, insurance and similar items as are normally escrowed by prudent mortgage servicing institutions in the State, consistent with sound practices and principles;
- (iii) the Administration will diligently enforce and take all steps, actions and proceedings reasonably necessary, in the judgment of the Administration, for the enforcement of all terms, covenants and conditions of Mortgages and Loans;

(iv) the Administration will establish income and occupancy requirements to assure compliance with the Act for the Borrower for each Single Family Residence or Development financed with the proceeds of a Loan; and

(v) the Administration will take all reasonable steps, actions and proceedings it deems appropriate or necessary for the enforcement of all terms, covenants and conditions of Loans made, purchased or financed by the Administration, including the prompt collection of Loan repayments and fees and charges and other Revenues. [§615]

Tax Covenants

The Administration covenants in the Bond Resolution that it will comply with the applicable tax covenants contained in any applicable Series Resolution. [§609]

Events of Default

Each of the following constitutes an Event of Default under the Bond Resolution:

(1) payment of interest on or the principal or redemption price of any of the Bonds is not made when due and payable; or

(2) default in the due and punctual performance of any other covenants or agreements contained in the Bonds or in the Bond Resolution or any Series Resolution and such default continues for ninety (90) days after written notice requiring the default to be remedied, has been given to the Administration by the Trustee. The Trustee may give such notice in its discretion and shall give such notice at the written request of the owners of not less than twenty-five percent (25%) in aggregate principal amount of Bonds then Outstanding. However, if such default can be remedied, so long as following such notice the Administration is diligently taking actions to remedy such default, such default is not an Event of Default under the Bond Resolution.

An Event of Default with respect to Subordinate Bonds is not an Event of Default on Bonds which are not Subordinate Bonds. For purposes of determining the percentages of Owners of Bonds as provided in the Bond Resolution, only Bonds other than Subordinate Bonds are to be taken into account unless the Event of Default relates only to Subordinate Bonds in which case the percentage relates only to Subordinate Bonds. In the case of an Event of Default relating only to Subordinate Bonds any acceleration or other remedy will relate only to Subordinate Bonds.

Except as expressly provided above, under no circumstances shall the Administration's failure to pay (i) Parity Hedge Obligations, (ii) Termination Payments or (iii) Subordinate Contract Obligations constitute an Event of Default under the Bond Resolution. [§701]

Remedies; Rights of Bondholders

Upon the happening and continuance of any Event of Default, then and in every such case the Trustee may, and upon the written direction of the Owners of not less than twenty-five percent (25%) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds is required to proceed, subject to the provisions of the Bond Resolution, to protect and enforce its rights and the rights of the Bondowners under applicable laws or under the Bond Resolution by such suits, actions or special proceedings in equity or at law, or by proceedings in the office of any board or officer having jurisdiction, either for the specific performance of any covenant or agreement contained in the Bond Resolution or in aid or execution of any power granted in the Bond Resolution or for the enforcement of any proper legal or equitable remedy, as the Trustee, being advised by counsel, deems most effectual to protect and enforce such rights.

In the enforcement of any remedy under the Bond Resolution the Trustee is entitled (1) to sue for, enforce payment of and recover judgment for, in its own name as Trustee of an express trust, any and all amounts then or after any default becoming, and at any time remaining, due from the Administration for unpaid principal, premium, if any, interest or otherwise under any of the provisions of the Bond Resolution or the Bonds, with, to the extent permitted by the applicable law, interest on overdue payments of principal of and interest at the rate or rates of interest specified in the Bonds, together with any and all costs and expenses of collection and of all proceedings under the Bond Resolution and under the Bonds, without prejudice to any other right or remedy of the Trustee or of the Bondowners, and (2) to recover and enforce any judgment or decree against the Administration, but solely as provided in the Bond Resolution, the Series Resolution, and in the Bonds, for any portion of such amounts remaining unpaid and interest, costs and expenses as above provided and to collect, in any manner provided by law, the money adjudged or decreed to be payable.

Regardless of the happening of an Event of Default, the Trustee may, and, subject to the Bond Resolution, if requested in writing by the Owners of not less than twenty-five percent (25%) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Parity Bonds, is required to institute and maintain such suits and proceedings as it may be advised are necessary or expedient (i) to prevent any impairment of the Pledged Property by any acts which may be unlawful or in violation of the Bond Resolution or of any Series Resolution or (ii) to preserve or protect the interest of the Bondowners, provided that such request is in accordance with law and the provisions of the Bond Resolution and, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, is not unduly prejudicial to the interests of the Owners of Bonds not making such request.

If a covenant is set forth in a Series Resolution, limitations on the remedies available upon an Event of Default related to such covenant may be set forth in such Series Resolution. [§703]

Rights of Bondholders to Direct Proceedings

Notwithstanding anything in the Bond Resolution to the contrary, the Owners of a majority in principal amount of the Parity Bonds then Outstanding shall have the right, subject to the provisions of the Bond Resolution, by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing executed and delivered to the Trustee, to direct the method and place of conducting all remedial proceedings to be taken by the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Trustee, provided that such direction shall not be otherwise than in accordance with law, the provisions of the Bond Resolution and the Act and, in the sole judgment of the Trustee, is not unduly prejudicial to the interests of Bondowners not joining in such direction. [§707]

Waiver of Events of Default

The Trustee, upon written direction of the Owners of not less than a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds, is required to waive any Event of Default, which in the opinion of those Owners has been remedied before the entry of final judgment or decree in any suit, action or proceeding instituted by them under the provisions of the Bond Resolution or before the completion of the enforcement of any other remedy under the Bond Resolution, but no such waiver may extend to or affect any other existing or any subsequent Event or Events of Default or impair any rights or remedies consequent to it. [§713]

Modification of Resolutions and Outstanding Bonds

The Bond Resolution provides procedures whereby the Administration may amend the Bond Resolution or a Series Resolution by adoption of a Supplemental Resolution. Amendments that may be made without the consent of Bondholders may be only for certain purposes and include curing any ambiguity, defect or omission in the Bond Resolution or conferring upon the Trustee additional rights, remedies, powers, authority or security that may be lawfully granted. [§1001]

Amendments of certain of the respective rights and obligations of the Administration and the Bondholders may be made with the written consent of the holders of greater than fifty percent (50%) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds; however, without the consent of all adversely affected Bondowners, no Supplemental Resolution may (a) change the terms of redemption or of the maturity of the principal of or the interest on any Bond, or (b) reduce the principal amount of any Bond or the redemption premium or the rate of interest on it, or (c) create or grant a pledge, assignment, lien or security interest of the Pledged Property, or any part of it, other than as created or permitted by the Bond Resolution without the Supplemental Resolution, or (d) create a preference or priority of any Bond or Bonds over any other Bond or Bonds, except as may be permitted by the Bond Resolution or (e) reduce the aggregate principal amount or classes of the Bonds required for consent to such Supplemental Resolution. If any such modification, supplement or amendment will by its terms, not take effect so long as any Bonds of any specified Series and maturity remain Outstanding, the consent of the Owners of those Bonds are not required and such Bonds will not be deemed to be Outstanding for the purpose of any calculation of Outstanding Bonds under the Bond Resolution. [§1002]

Defeasance

If the Administration shall pay or cause to be paid, or there shall otherwise be paid, to the Registered Owners of the Bonds then Outstanding, the principal, redemption premium, if any, and interest to become due thereon, at the times and in the manner stipulated in the Bond Resolution and in the Series Resolutions, then the covenants, agreements and other obligations of the Administration to the Registered Owners of the Bonds shall be discharged and satisfied. If the Administration pays or cause to be paid, or there is otherwise paid, to a Party to a Parity Obligation, other than Parity Bonds, or to a Subordinated Contract Obligation, other than Subordinate Bonds, at the times and in the manner stipulated in the Bond Resolution and in the Series Resolution, then the obligations of the Administration to such Parties shall be discharged and satisfied. In such event, the Trustee shall pay over or deliver to the Administration all money or securities held by it pursuant to the Bond Resolution which are no longer required for the payment or redemption of Bonds not already then surrendered for such payment or redemption or for the payment of Parity Obligations, other than Parity Bonds, and Subordinate Contract Obligations, other than Subordinate Bonds, which are no longer required for such payments. [§1101(a)]

Pursuant to the Bond Resolution, all Bonds will, prior to their maturity or redemption date, be deemed to have been paid pursuant to the Bond Resolution if, among other things, there is deposited with the Trustee either money in an amount which is sufficient, or Government Obligations the principal of and interest on which when due will provide money which, without reinvestment, when added to the money, if any, deposited with such Trustee at the same time, is sufficient to pay the principal of those Bonds at maturity, or on sinking fund installment dates for Term Bonds, or the principal, redemption premium, if any, and interest due and to become due on those Bonds on and prior to the redemption date or maturity date (or sinking fund installment dates for Term Bonds) of the Bonds, as the case may be. [§1101(b)]

Trustee

The Trustee is required to undertake the duties and obligations imposed upon it under the Bond Resolution and each of the Series Resolutions. If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee is required to exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by the Bond Resolution, and is required to use the same degree of care that a prudent person would exercise in the circumstances in the conduct of such person's own affairs. However, the Trustee is under no obligation or duty to perform any act which would involve it in expense or liability, to institute or defend any action or suit in respect of the Bond Resolution or Bonds, or to advance any of its own moneys, unless properly indemnified in accordance with the Bond Resolution. The Bond Resolution provides that the Trustee will not be liable in connection with the performance of its duties under the Bond Resolution, except for its own negligence or default. [§§801-803]

The Trustee may resign and thereby become discharged from the trusts, by notice in writing to be given to the Administration and mailed, first class, postage prepaid, to all Registered Owners of Bonds at their addresses as they appear on the registration books kept by the Trustee, not less than sixty (60) days before such resignation is to take effect, but such resignation will take effect immediately upon the appointment of a new Trustee, if such new Trustee is appointed before the time limited by such notice and then accepts the trusts. The Bond Resolution provides that no resignation of the Trustee is effective if an Event of Default, or any event which upon the passage of time would be an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing except upon the consent of Owners of a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds. [§812]

Subject to the Bond Resolution, the Trustee may be removed at any time by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing executed by the Owners of not less than a majority in principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds and filed with the Administration. A facsimile copy of each such instrument is required to be delivered promptly by the Administration to the Trustee. The Trustee may also be removed at any time for reasonable cause by any court of competent jurisdiction upon the application of Owners of not less than ten percent (10%) in aggregate principal amount of the Outstanding Bonds. The Trustee may be removed at any time by the Administration (provided that the Administration is not in default under the Bond Resolution) in its sole discretion by written notice to the Trustee. [§813]

MORTGAGE INSURANCE AND GUARANTEE PROGRAMS

FHA MORTGAGE INSURANCE PROGRAM, VA HOME LOAN GUARANTY PROGRAM, USDA/RD MORTGAGE GUARANTEE PROGRAM AND PRIVATE MORTGAGE INSURANCE PROGRAM

Introduction

The Administration has prepared the following description of the FHA mortgage insurance program, the VA Home Loan Guaranty Program, the USDA/RD Mortgage Guaranty Program, and private mortgage insurance. This description is only a brief outline and does not purport to summarize or describe all of the provisions of these programs, and the Administration does not warrant or represent the accuracy or completeness of such description. For a more complete description of the terms of this program, reference is made to the provisions of the insurance and guaranty contracts embodied in the regulations of FHA, VA and USDA/RD, respectively, and of the regulations, master insurance contracts and other such applicable information for those programs and for applicable private mortgage insurance. Credit Enhancement for Mortgage Loans made or purchased by the Administration with the proceeds of the 2006 Series Bonds is limited by the Bond Resolutions to insurance under the FHA insurance program, the VA Home Loan Guaranty Program, the USDA/RD Guarantee Program, and private mortgage insurance (described below). In addition, Mortgage Loans may be insured by the Maryland Housing Fund. See THE MHF INSURANCE PROGRAM below. Moreover, Mortgage Loans with a loan-to-value ratio of 80% or less are not required to have a credit enhancement as described above. If a Loan without credit enhancement is supported by secondary financing, then such financing must be acceptable to the Administration. The secondary financing may include, for example, certain grants or loans from governmental or non-profit entities; any loans must be non-amortizing or amortize at an interest rate below the market rate. However, the Bond Resolution does not require that a Loan financed in the future be secured by Credit Enhancement. Credit Enhancement of all or a portion of a Loan, if any, will be provided in accordance with the provisions therefor set forth in the Series Resolution authorizing a particular Series of Bonds. Credit Enhancement of Loans includes (but is not limited to) any credit enhancement, insurance, guaranty, risk-sharing arrangement or any other form of credit support for a Loan (or any portion thereof) as provided in any Series Resolution or Supplemental Resolution and it is possible that insurance benefits under other federal, State or private programs in which the Administration may participate could have different terms.

FHA Mortgage Insurance Program

Section 221 and Section 203 of the National Housing Act, as amended (the "Housing Act"), authorize the FHA to insure mortgage loans of up to 40 years for the purchase of one to four family dwelling units, or 30 years if the mortgage is not approved for insurance prior to construction. Section 234 of the Housing Act authorizes the FHA to insure mortgage loans of up to 35 years for the purchase of one-family dwelling units in multi-family condominium projects. The regulations promulgated to implement the Housing Act provide for insurance of mortgage loans for up to 30 years.

Mortgage Loans shall bear interest at a rate agreed upon by the mortgagee and Borrower. Mortgage Loans under any of the foregoing programs must be in conformity with the maximum mortgage loan amount limitations and minimum downpayment requirements specified in the Housing Act and the regulations promulgated thereunder. In addition, the Borrower must establish to the satisfaction of FHA that his or her income is adequate to meet the periodic payments required on the mortgage loan.

FHA permits the fully insured Mortgage Loan amount to include not only the up-front mortgage insurance premium, but, under certain circumstances, certain closing costs and other costs as well. Furthermore, through the FHA Section 203(k) Program, FHA will insure certain loans for up to 110 percent of the expected after-rehabilitation value of the property, plus permitted closing costs.

On October 27, 2000, HUD announced that mortgages insured under Section 203(b), will be eligible for a reduction in up-front mortgage insurance premiums to 1.50% of the insured mortgage amount, effective for all loans closed on or after January 1, 2001. HUD also announced that annual mortgage insurance premiums for all loans closed on or after such date will be automatically canceled when the loan-to-value ratio reaches 78%, provided that the mortgagor has paid the annual mortgage insurance premiums for at least five years. (Different rules apply for loans with terms of 15 years or less.) Although the annual mortgage insurance premiums will be canceled as described, the contract of insurance will remain in force for the loan's full term. On January 6, 2005, HUD announced the elimination of refunds of upfront mortgage insurance premiums (except for a mortgage refinanced with another FHA mortgage) for mortgages endorsed for insurance on or after December 8, 2004.

Under the terms of the foregoing program, the mortgagee, upon a default by the Borrower, is required to take certain actions, and is subject to certain limitations, before the mortgagee is entitled to initiate foreclosure proceedings or to claim insurance benefits. The mortgagee is subject to certain requirements and limitations, including the following: (1) the mortgagee must give notice of default to the Borrower and make reasonable efforts to conduct a face-to-face interview with the Borrower; (2) the mortgagee is required to undertake a pre-foreclosure review to ensure compliance with applicable requirements; and (3) the mortgagee may not commence foreclosure until at least three full monthly installments are in default. In addition, various types of forbearance may be required, including a reduction in mortgage payments, recasting the mortgage to reduce payments, temporary mortgage assistance payments, or pre-foreclosure sale. The mortgage also is subject to reinstatement until completion of foreclosure proceedings. The Housing Act gives discretionary authority to the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") to settle claims for insurance benefits for insured mortgages either in cash or debentures; claim payments currently are being made in cash. HUD debentures bear interest at the rate in effect as of the time of origination of the mortgage loan or when the mortgage loan is endorsed, whichever rate is higher.

Insurance benefits are paid on foreclosure and conveyance of title. The amount of benefits paid by FHA on conveyed properties, except in certain circumstances as described below, is equal to the unpaid principal amount of the mortgage loan plus certain tax, insurance and other payments made by the mortgagee, a percentage of any foreclosure expenses incurred by the mortgagee, which percentage shall be determined in accordance with such terms as HUD shall prescribe, and reasonable expenses incurred by the mortgagee for the preservation, protection and operation of the properties prior to conveyance, as well as interest from date of default at a rate equivalent to the debenture interest rate (which may be less than the interest rate of the insured mortgage loan), less certain amounts received or retained by the mortgagee in respect of the mortgaged property.

When any property to be conveyed to the FHA has been damaged by fire, earthquake, flood or tornado, it is generally required, as a condition to payment of an insurance claim, that such property be repaired by the mortgagee prior to such conveyance.

VA Home Loan Guaranty Program

The Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended, permits a veteran (or in certain instances, the veteran's spouse) to obtain a loan guarantee by the VA covering mortgage financing of the purchase of a one-to-four family dwelling unit at interest rates permitted by the VA. The program has no mortgage loan limits, requires no down payment from the purchaser and permits the guarantee of mortgage loans with terms of up to 30 years and 32 days. VA will guarantee up to 50 percent of a home loan up to $45,000. For loans between $45,000 and $144,000, the minimum guaranty amount is $22,500; and the maximum guaranty is up to 40 percent of the loan, up to $36,000, subject to the amount of entitlement a veteran has available. For loans of more than $144,000 the maximum guaranty is 25 percent of the loan, up to $60,000. The liability on the guarantee is reduced or increased pro rata with any reduction or increase in the amount of the indebtedness, but in no event will the amount payable on the guarantee exceed the amount of the original guarantee. Notwithstanding the dollar and percentage limitations of the guarantee, a mortgage lender will ordinarily suffer a monetary loss only where the difference between the unsatisfied indebtedness and the proceeds of a foreclosure sale of a mortgaged premises is greater than the original guarantee, as adjusted. The VA may, at its option and without regard to the guarantee, make full payment to a mortgage lender of unsatisfied indebtedness on a mortgage upon its assignment to the VA.

USDA/RD Mortgage Guarantee Program

The Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act of 1990 authorized the establishment of the USDA/RD Guaranteed Rural Housing Loan Program. Households with annual incomes at or below one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of median area income are eligible for these loans, subject to the geographic restrictions described below. Households with annual incomes at or below eighty percent (80%) of the area median income may be eligible for interest assistance, in addition to the loan guarantee. The interest assistance paid monthly by USDA/RD to the loan servicer reduces the borrower's effective interest rate. The amount of interest rate reduction is dependant upon the households' annual income, which is re-certified by the loan servicer annually. No funds currently are available for interest assistance.

The USDA/RD Guaranteed Rural Housing Loan Program is limited to only certain rural areas of the State. Any city, place, town or village classified as rural prior to October 1, 1990 with a population exceeding 10,000 but not in excess of 25,000, which is rural in character, will be considered rural until the receipt of data from the year 2010 census. Any city, place, town or village with a population in excess of 10,000 and determined to be urban prior to August 2, 1991 will not be considered an eligible rural area.

The USDA/RD guarantee covers the lesser of (a) any loss equal to ninety percent (90%) of the original principal amount of the loan or (b) any loss in full up to thirty-five percent (35%) of the original principal amount of the loan plus any additional loss on the remaining sixty-five (65%) to be shared approximately eighty-five percent (85%) by USDA/RD and approximately fifteen percent (15%) by the mortgagee.

USDA/RD does not accept conveyance of the property, but rather pays the lender's claim upon foreclosure. The claim payment includes certain actual costs incurred by the lender prior to foreclosure, including interest expense, and an allowance for the costs associated with liquidating the property. The claim payment amount is based on the net sales proceeds if the property is sold within six (6) months, or if no sale occurs within six (6) months, the claim payment amount is determined according to a formula based upon an appraisal of the property performed by USDA/RD. The lender's actual disposition costs may be higher than the USDA/RD claim payment.

Private Mortgage Insurance

Each private mortgage insurance policy with respect to a Mortgage Loan must contain provisions substantially as follows: (a) the mortgage insurer must pay a claim, including unpaid principal, accrued interest, the amounts equal to deferred interest in connection with Mortgage Loans with graduated payments schedules, if any, and expenses, within sixty days of presentation of the claim by the Administration; (b) when a claim for the outstanding principal amount, accrued interest and expenses is presented, the mortgage insurer must either (i) pay such claim in full and take title to the mortgaged property and arrange for its sale or (ii) pay the insured percentage of such claim and allow the Administration to retain title to the mortgaged property or (iii) settle a claim for actual losses where such losses are less than the insured percentage of the claim. (See the “Homeowners Protection Act” below for a discussion of federal legislation that affects private mortgage insurance.)

Homeowners Protection Act

The Homeowners Protection Act of 1998 (the “Homeowners Protection Act”) permits a borrower to cancel private mortgage insurance (for which the borrower pays the premium) on the date on which the principal balance of the mortgage loan is scheduled to reach 80% of the original value of the residence or on the date on which the principal balance actually reaches 80% of the original value of the residence. The original value is the lesser of the sales price or the appraised value at the time the mortgage loan transaction was consummated. In order to effect such cancellation, the borrower must request in writing that the cancellation be initiated, must have a good payment history with respect to the mortgage loan (i.e., no mortgage payment was, during the year beginning two years prior to cancellation, 60 or more days delinquent, and no mortgage payment was, during the year beginning one year prior to cancellation, 30 or more days delinquent), and must satisfy any requirements of the lender for evidence that the value of the residence has not declined below its original value and for certification that the borrower’s equity in the residence is not encumbered by a subordinate loan. This Homeowners Protection Act further provides for automatic termination of mortgage insurance on the date on which the principal balance of the mortgage loan is schedule to reach 78% of the original value of the residence, or if the borrower is not then current on his mortgage loan payments, on the date on which the borrower subsequently becomes current on such payments. These termination and cancellation provisions do not apply to mortgage loans characterized as high risk loans. Even if the private mortgage insurance is not canceled or terminated as described above, private mortgage insurance must be terminated on the first day of the month immediately following the date that is the midpoint of the amortization period of the mortgage loan if the mortgagor is then current on his mortgage loan payments. This Homeowners Protection Act also requires that borrowers be provided with certain disclosures and notices regarding termination and cancellation of private mortgage insurance. This Homeowners Protection Act applies to mortgage loans closed on or after July 29, 1999.

This Homeowners Protection Act applies to insurance provided by the Maryland Housing Fund as well as private mortgage insurance described above.

In addition to termination and cancellation rights available to the borrower under the Homeowners Protection Act, the Administration also permits a borrower to request cancellation of private mortgage insurance or insurance through the Maryland Housing Fund for loans made after January 1, 2005, provided that: (1) the loan balance is 75% or less of the current value of the home as established by a new appraisal acceptable to the Administration; (2) none of the borrower’s payments were 30 days or more past due within the 12-month period before the mortgage insurance will be cancelled; (3) none of the borrower’s payments were 60 days or more past due during the 24-month period before the mortgage insurance will be cancelled; and (4) the loan is between two and five years old. If the loan is more than five years old, the loan balance may be 80% (instead of 75%) or less of the current value of the home as established by a new appraisal acceptable to the Administration; conditions (2) and (3) also apply.

THE MHF INSURANCE PROGRAM

The following describes the mortgage insurance programs administered by the MHF pursuant to Section 3-201 through 3-208 of the Housing and Community Development Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended (the “MHF Statute”), and is qualified in its entirety by reference to such statute and the regulations thereunder (the “MHF Regulations”).

MHF was created in 1971 as a special insurance fund of the State of Maryland and is an agency in the Division of Credit Assurance of the Department (the “Division”). MHF is authorized to insure mortgage loans, including mortgage loans for multi-family developments financed by public agencies such as the Administration and to provide primary and pool insurance for single family mortgage loans. MHF insures against certain monetary losses incurred as a result of nonpayment of principal, interest or other sums agreed to be paid and certain other events of default under the terms of any insured mortgage loan but does not insure against property losses, including without limitation, title risk, risks of defective construction or casualty, or any other reduction in project value due to insurable risk or force majeure, casualty or title loss.

In early 1997, the Department suspended all new insurance activity of MHF (except for pool insurance for certain single family loans), partly as a result of concerns expressed by Moody’s during 1996 and 1997. The Department responded to the concerns and took appropriate steps. Since that time, MHF has opened new programs.

In 2002, the Department re-opened a limited program of MHF insuring mortgage loans known as “SHOP” (Special Housing Opportunity Program) that finance or refinance the acquisition, construction or rehabilitation of shared living and related facilities for the special needs population which are owned by and sponsored by nonprofit organizations. Moody’s advised the Administration that such a re-opened program, implemented in the limited manner proposed by the Administration, would not affect the Moody’s rating on the Administration’s Bonds.

The Administration has been designated as a participant in HUD’s Risk-Sharing Program (the “Risk-Sharing Program”) for multi-family loans. Under the Risk-Sharing Program, upon payment of a claim by FHA, the Administration would be responsible for reimbursement to FHA of up to 50% of such claim. The Administration expects that MHF would reimburse the Administration for its share of such losses. Subsequent to 1997, the Administration participated in the Risk-Sharing Program only in connection with the refinancing of loans currently insured by MHF where the Administration expected that risk-sharing will decrease the dollar amount of MHF’s insurance exposure with respect to such loans. In 2004, the Department expanded its MHF insurance program to authorize MHF insurance on a case-by-case basis for new loans financed by Bonds, including loans with Credit Enhancement under the Risk-Sharing Program. Moody’s advised the Administration that such a re-opened program, implemented in the limited manner proposed by the Administration, would not affect Moody’s rating on the Administration’s Bonds.

In June, 2005, the Department opened a program of MHF to insure 40-year single family mortgage loans being purchased by the Administration.

In June, 2006 the Department authorized the expenditure of up to $1 million of the Revitalization Reserves to provide credit enhancement to a loan program that is sponsored by a nonprofit corporation, which is intended to stabilize and strengthen property values in targeted areas of the City of Baltimore.

Management's Presentation of the MHF Program

The following information is management's presentation of the MHF Program.

Financial Statements and Information

Audited financial statements of MHF for the years ended June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2006 are included in the Appendix I – "FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF THE MARYLAND HOUSING FUND." The financial statements for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2005 and June 30, 2006 have been audited by Reznick Group, P.C. As indicated in the report of the auditors, such financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles and the audits conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. The financial statements of MHF are reported on a consolidated basis combining results of operations for MHF's Multi Family, Single Family, Revitalization, and Home and Energy Mortgage Insurance Programs.

Operating Income and Reserves

MHF's operating income from insurance premiums is used to pay operating expenses and also may be used to pay insurance claims.

MHF maintains five insurance reserves, which are separate from MHF's operating funds. Four of the reserves cover specific categories of insurance: the Multi-Family Reserve, the Single Family Regular Program Reserve, the Revitalization Reserve, and the Home and Energy Loan Reserve. The investment earnings on each of the four specific reserves are credited to a fifth reserve, the Unallocated Reserve, which may be used to pay claims on all categories of insurance, may be transferred into any other reserve, or may be restricted for claims under a particular category. The Unallocated Reserve is available for any category of claims or for any other purpose consistent with contractual obligations with the Administration's bondholders.

The MHF Statute provides that any moneys of MHF that the Department creates as an identifiable insurance reserve may be used only in conformance with the terms and conditions creating that reserve. MHF Regulations provide that each reserve is maintained to pay claims arising from its respective category of insurance and may not be subject to claims arising from other categories of insurance (except for the Unallocated Reserve, and except for claims arising from single family regular and revitalization insurance issued before August 20, 1975, which claims are payable from all MHF insurance reserves). The reserves are held by the Office of the Treasurer of the State, which credits MHF with income on investment of reserves for the benefit of MHF.

MHF does not insure the Bonds, and the assets of MHF are not available to the Administration or the Trustee to satisfy obligations to holders of the Bonds. The obligation of MHF is limited to the payment of mortgage insurance claims as described herein. An insurance claim against MHF is payable from and limited to the applicable MHF reserve and does not constitute a general obligation of MHF, the Department, or the State.

Balance Sheet Discussion

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005, the overall equity increased from $86,361,339 at the close of June 30, 2004 to $91,884,940 at June 30, 2005. The increase of $5,523,601 is primarily due to allowance reductions in both the single family and multi-family portfolios. During fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the overall equity increased from $91,884,940 at June 30, 2005 to $98,559,409 at June 30, 2006. The increase of $6,674,469 is primarily due to an increase in the interest income on investments.

The Unrestricted Accumulated Deficit is a part of the overall equity. The Unrestricted Accumulated Deficit - which decreases when claims are paid from the insurance reserves - represents the cumulative net income (loss) of MHF since its inception less any investment income earned on the insurance reserves. When MHF's insurance reserves are greater than its net assets, there will be an accumulated deficit in the equity section of the MHF Statement of Net Assets.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005, the Unrestricted Accumulated Deficit decreased by an additional $3,323,723 to a deficit of $6,403,765 at the close of June 30, 2005. The $3,323,723 is a net gain of income from operating activities (income net of interest earned on investments held by the State Treasurer). During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the Unrestricted Accumulated Deficit decreased from a deficit of $6,403,765 to a deficit of $3,829,079. This was due to a $2,574,686 net gain of income from operating activities (income net of interest earned on investments held by the State Treasurer).

Discussion of Changes in Net Assets

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005, MHF reported a Change in Net Assets of $5,523,601. The improved performance for the period was primarily due to reductions in both the single and multi-family allowances. Investment earnings for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005, in the amount of $2,199,878 flowed directly to the Unallocated Reserves.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, MHF reported a Change in Net Assets of $6,674,469. The improved performance for the period was primarily due to an increase in the interest income on investments. Investment earnings for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006 in the amount of $4,099,783 flowed directly to the Unallocated Reserves.

As described below in "Single Family Information – Certain Additional Expected Single Family Claims" and "Multi-Family Information – Certain Additional Expected Multi-Family Claims," the Administration has notified MHF of defaults under insured mortgages that were expected to result in additional claims to MHF. Payment of these claims is not reflected in MHF's Statement of Net Assets; however, MHF included provisions for these claims in its allowance for unpaid insurance losses.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005, MHF's net operating cash activity was $1,088,662 for Single Family and ($88,949) for Multi-Family. The change in Single Family and Multi Family was primarily due to a decrease in claims paid and decrease in recoveries received, respectively. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the net cash activity in MHF's operating cash was ($301,740) for Single Family and ($432,160) for Multi-Family. The change in Single Family and Multi-Family was primarily due to a decrease in recoveries, respectively.

Liquidity

MHF's primary uses of funds are to pay its operating expenses (direct and indirect) and to satisfy multi-family and single family claims under its insurance policies resulting from a loan default (payment or physical) by an insured borrower. In general, MHF's insurance policies require MHF to pay claims to the lender, which includes the total principal outstanding, interest in arrears (through foreclosure), and other expenses associated with a failed real estate loan (e.g., foreclosure costs, negative escrows, etc.). MHF generally acquires a loan or property with the payment of the claim. The proceeds of the sale of this asset are deducted from the original claim to derive the net loss (or net gain) associated with the defaulted loan claim.

Besides these proceeds from the sale of assets acquired through the payment of claims, MHF's primary sources of funds result from mortgage insurance premiums paid by the borrowers and investment earnings on funds in insurance reserves. These assets, together with the corpus of the reserves held by MHF, are available to pay insurance claims and related expenses. The available reserves are leveraged against insurance commitments outstanding. Calculations for the leverage ratios are shown in "Discussion of Leverage Ratios" below.

To manage MHF's resources effectively from both a business and liquidity sense, the management of MHF has developed several claims paying strategies. For multi-family defaulted loans, MHF pays debt service claims after a loan has missed a total of six monthly payments. These claim payments represent any unpaid principal and interest due from the regular scheduled payment. While making these monthly payments, MHF, working with the Administration, attempts to workout the loan in order to minimize its loss. When the final workout of the loan is completed, MHF either pays a partial claim or pays the full claim. A workout may be accomplished through (a) refinancing of the loan after re-underwriting the debt to enable the project to meet debt service from net operating income or (b) payment of claims and resale of the asset to minimize the total size of the claim.

For single family defaulted loans, MHF generally requires the lender to foreclose on the loan and secure the property before it pays the claim. This affords MHF the ability to begin marketing the property for re-sale at the same time it has paid out the cash. MHF attempts to resell single family properties in a manner that provides for recoveries as soon as possible while minimizing holding costs. While MHF strives to sell its REO to homebuyers, its desire to conduct quick turn around sales does necessitate the selling of a significant portion of the REO to investors and non-profit organizations. Selling to investors generally increases the overall net loss on the claim to MHF.

Discussion of Leverage Ratios

For loans made before 2005, MHF operates its single family insurance in accordance with, inter alia, an insurance agreement dated as of May 14, 1980, with the Administration (the "Single Family Insurance Agreement"). For loans financed after June 20, 2005 under the Administration's Residential Revenue Bond Resolution (the "Resolution"), MHF operates its single family insurance in accordance with, inter alia, an insurance agreement dated as of June 20, 2005 with the Administration (the "2005 Single Family Insurance Agreement"). Claims under the Single Family Insurance Agreement and the 2005 Single Family Insurance Agreement may be paid from the Single Family Program Reserve.

MHF operates its multi-family insurance in accordance with, inter alia, an amended and restated insurance agreement dated February 12, 2006, with the Administration (the "Insurance Agreement").

Under the Insurance Agreement, MHF has contracted with the Administration that, except as necessary to pay claims or advances on claims, MHF will not permit the ratio of multi-family insurance to assets in the Multi-Family Reserve (as may be reduced as described below) to exceed 10 to 1, and that no new insurance payable from the Multi-Family Reserve shall be issued or committed to if upon such issuance or commitment and subsequent issuance the ratio would exceed 10 to 1. (Under the terms of the Insurance Agreement, loans insured by MHF that are reinsured without contingent liability on the part of MHF are not taken into account in determining MHF's compliance with the maximum 10 to 1 ratio of amounts insured to assets in the Multi-Family Reserve.)

Under the Single Family Insurance Agreement, MHF has contracted with the Administration that, except as necessary to pay claims or advances on claims, MHF will not permit the ratio of the aggregate dollar amount of the single family insurance to assets in the Single Family Reserve (as may be reduced as described below) to exceed 25 to 1 and the ratio of the aggregate dollar amount of the single family pool insurance to assets in the Single Family Reserve (as may be reduced as described above) to exceed 7 to 1, and that no new insurance payable from the Single Family Reserve shall be issued or committed to if, upon such issuance or commitment and subsequent issuance, either ratio would be exceeded.

Under the 2005 Single Family Insurance Agreement, MHF will not permit the ratio of the aggregate dollar amount of the single family insurance to assets in the Single Family Reserve (as may be reduced as described below) to exceed 25 to 1 as specified in the Single Family Insurance Agreement, and no new insurance payable from the Single Family Reserve shall be issued or committed to if upon such issuance or commitment and subsequent issuance either ratio would be exceeded. There is no pool insurance coverage for loans insured under the 2005 Single Family Insurance Agreement.

The primary insurance coverage is 35% of the allowable claim for loans insured under the 2005 Single Family Insurance Agreement ($1,613,182 at 06/30/2006).
- (5) This coverage represents the 10% stop-loss on pool insurance for loans financed under the Single Family Program Bond General Certificate (prior to 1997). Wisconsin Mortgage Assurance Corporation, formerly Mortgage Guaranty Insurance Corporation ("MGIC"), has provided reinsurance for $43,025,000 of the mortgage loans financed by one series of the Administration's Bonds. Notwithstanding the reinsurance provided by MGIC, the MHF pool insurance coverage in force also includes coverage for mortgage loans financed by the series.
- (6) The ratio in the table is computed based on the maximum amount of risk rather than the aggregate amount of mortgage loans insured, where the maximum amount of risk is calculated by taking (i) the aggregate amount of pool insurance issued for the Administration; and then adding to that product (ii) the maximum amount of risk on loans insured under the Single Family Regular Program (see 4 above), and then dividing the sum of those two amounts by (iii) the amount of the Single Family Regular Program Reserve.

The total amount of the Multi-Family Reserve is available to pay multi-family insurance claims. In addition, to the extent available, MHF could elect to pay all or part of any multi-family claim from the Unallocated Reserve or from operating funds. MHF maintains other reserves that are not available to pay such claims (e.g., the Single Family, Revitalization, and Home and Energy Loan Reserves).

Single Family Information

Certain Additional Expected Single Family Claims

Under its single family insurance program, MHF is not obligated to pay claims on single family insurance until after the insured lender has completed foreclosure, evicted the occupants of the properties (if necessary) and restored the property to a condition satisfactory to MHF. As a result, at any time there are a number of mortgages that have been foreclosed and which are likely to result in payment of claims but which have not yet reached the point where MHF recognizes them as liabilities in its financial statements. The total principal amount of such potential claims was $9,601 as of June 30, 2006. On a quarterly basis, MHF includes its projection of net losses with respect to these potential claims in its financial statements as part of the allowance for single family insurance losses. Although these amounts are not payable from the Multi-Family Reserve, they are potentially payable from other resources of MHF, including operating cash, the Unallocated Reserve and the Single Family Reserve.

Discussion of Single Family Operations

MHF has taken steps to address the potential single family claims. A part of this focus is applying more active loss mitigation strategies to single family loans to prevent them from going to foreclosure, including forbearance and extended repayment plans. In addition, operational reviews of the loan servicer are ongoing. The reviews are intended to insure that loss mitigation strategies are being pursued in applicable cases.

MHF is also managing its sales of units acquired through foreclosure or similar action to improve overall returns by employing a private sector real estate broker to perform repairs, listings and sales of all REO units.

Single Family Claims Experience

The following chart sets forth information about claims on mortgage loans insured under the Single Family Regular Program Reserve, the Revitalization Reserve, and the Home and Energy Loan Reserve. This data includes net claim activity for properties sold during fiscal years ended June 30, 2004, June 30, 2005, and the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006. The data for all of these reporting periods are subject to adjustment due to additional expenses paid and proceeds received after June 30, 2006.

Single Family Insurance Agreement and the 2005 Single Family Insurance Agreement

The Single Family Insurance Agreement and the 2005 Single Family Insurance Agreement provide as follows:

(1) MHF will not decrease the amount of funds in the Single Family Regular Program Reserve as increased from time to time for any reason except to pay claims and advances against claims arising under the Program and for expenditures with respect to properties acquired by MHF as a result of payment of such claims.

(2) Except as necessary to pay claims and advances on claims and except for expenditures with respect to properties acquired by MHF as a result of payment of such claims, MHF will not exceed certain leverage ratios. See “MANAGEMENT’S PRESENTATION OF THE MHF PROGRAM –Discussion of Leverage Ratios.”

(3) MHF will take all actions necessary for the qualification of Single Family Program insurance as mortgage insurance from a qualified insurer within the meaning of Section 3.02(6)(2) of the Fannie Mae Charter Act.

Terms of Single Family Insurance Coverage

MHF insures mortgage loans on one-to-four family structures under its Single Family Regular Program, which includes the Primary Insurance Program and the Pool Insurance Program.

Primary Insurance. Historically, under the Single Family Insurance Agreement, MHF issued Primary Insurance that covered up to 25% of the total claims depending upon initial loan-to-value ratio. Under the 2005 Single Family Insurance Agreement, MHF issues Primary Insurance that covers the top 35% of the total claim. MHF Regulations provide that mortgage insurance may be terminated if: (1) the lender requests cancellation; (2) a claim is satisfied; (3) the mortgage is paid off; (4) a renewal premium is not paid by the mortgagee after its receipt of final notice from the MHF; or (5) the mortgage terms are modified without MHF approval.

Pool Insurance. MHF issued a pool insurance policy endorsement to the Administration at the time of delivery of each series of Single Family Program Bonds issued under the Administration’s Single Family Program Bond General Certificate (prior to 1997). The endorsement covered the total amount of lendable proceeds generated with respect to the series. MHF reserved funds in its Single Family Regular Reserve (in accordance with the applicable leverage ratio) and does not reduce the amount reserved as mortgages amortize. Coverage continues so long as any bonds of the series, or bonds issued to refund such bonds, remain outstanding. For each applicable series of bonds, MHF computed a stop loss equal to 10% of the amount of proceeds of the series of bonds. The obligation of MHF to pay losses is subject to a loss limit aggregating the total stop loss amounts for the policy.

No pool insurance is required for loans financed under the Residential Revenue Bond Resolution.

Payment of Claims. MHF pays all claims under the Primary Insurance Program in cash. MHF may select one of four options in settling Primary Insurance claims:

(1) Loan Assignment - MHF takes an assignment of the mortgage and pays the claim (but not including expenses of foreclosure and acquisition of title);

(2) Fixed Percentage Settlement - claim settlement under this option is applicable when MHF provides only primary mortgage insurance for the loan and provides for payment based on a declared percentage of the outstanding loan amount before foreclosure sale, and MHF, under this method, also waives any interest in the subject property;

(3) Lender Acquisition Settlement - the lender acquires title at foreclosure (or by deed in lieu of foreclosure) and transfers title to MHF, and (a) if MHF is both the primary and the pool insurer, MHF pays the full amount of the claim, or (b) if MHF is the primary insurer only, MHF pays the amount of the claim up to the percentage specified in the primary policy; and

(4) Third Party Acquisition - when the property is sold to a third party (at foreclosure, by the lender after taking a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or by the borrower after the commencement of foreclosure proceedings, with the approval of MHF), MHF pays as follows: (a) if MHF is both the primary and the pool insurer, the full amount of the claim less net proceeds of sale, or (b) if MHF is the primary insurer only, the lesser of the percentage specified in the primary policy before crediting net sales proceeds or the full claim after crediting net proceeds of sale.

For claims paid under the Lender Acquisition Settlement method, MHF requires the Administration to take all steps required after default in order to deliver the property to MHF in a condition satisfactory to MHF. These steps may include foreclosure, eviction of the occupants if necessary, and cleaning of the property. As a result, a substantial period of time may elapse between the time an insured loan goes into default and payment of a claim. MHF Regulations regarding single family mortgage insurance presently do not require MHF to pay interest on a claim from the time an insured lender acquires title to the property, or from the date MHF agrees to take a Loan Assignment or make a Fixed Percentage Settlement, to the time the claim is paid. Claims are not paid until after the title to the property has been conveyed, which is at least 60 days after foreclosure and could be longer. MHF will review cases that involve claims of more than nine months of delinquent interest on a case by case basis to ascertain the cause for the delayed claim and determine the amount of interest, if any, in excess of nine months to be paid. Interest will be paid in excess of nine months where circumstances beyond the control of the insured lender caused the delay in making the claim, such as the filing of bankruptcy by the mortgagor.

MHF pays all claims under the Pool Insurance Program in cash. MHF determines the loss payable on a claim as described above, and may specify alternate methods of settlement which are consistent with full recovery under the primary mortgage insurance, if any, with respect to a mortgage loan. Under any method, the coverage results in payment of the full loss as computed above, subject, however, to the aggregate loss limits specified in the Pool Insurance Policy.

Multi-Family Information

Multi-Family Insurance in Force and Available Reserves

The following table sets forth information about outstanding insurance on mortgage loans under MHF's multi-family program as of June 30, 2006. The amounts shown are net of debt service claim payments. The amounts shown do not include insurance on mortgage loans insured by MHF and reinsured by FHLMC. See "The FHLMC Reinsurance Agreement" below. The reinsured mortgage loans had an aggregate principal balance at June 30, 2006, of $30,166,068.

In addition to the loans listed below, as of June 30, 2006, 21 single family loans financed with the proceeds of Housing Revenue Bonds of the Administration, with outstanding principal balances in the aggregate amount of $460,274, are insured under the multi-family reserves.

These Developments (not including Group Homes) contain 2,350 units of which 919 units in 10 Developments are assisted under the Section 8 Program. The 32 projects in the "Other" category represent 101 units for Group Home Loans under $262,500.
- (2) Loans financed with proceeds of the Administration's Multi-Family Housing Revenue Bonds (Insured Mortgage Loans). The Loans provided permanent financing or construction and permanent financing for developments located in 12 counties and the City of Baltimore. The mortgage loans were initially endorsed for insurance between 1982 and December 31, 1997. The mortgage loan was initially endorsed for insurance in 1987.
- (4) Insurance issued to the Housing Opportunities Commission of Montgomery County ("HOC") to insure loans financed with proceeds of bonds issued by HOC. - (5) Insurance issued to a private financial institution to insure 2 mortgage loans providing financing for two developments containing 501 units. One mortgage loan was initially endorsed for insurance in 1994 in the amount of $4,000,000, and one mortgage loan was initially endorsed for insurance in 1993 in the amount of $4,599,079.

Charts detailing the multi-family loans insured by MHF and financed by the Administration may be found in the Administration's filings in accordance with Rule 15c2-12 of the Securities and Exchange Commission with the nationally recognized municipal securities information repositories ("NRMSIRs") for Housing Revenue Bonds and for Multi-Family Housing Revenue Bonds (Insured Mortgage Loans).

Certain Additional Expected Multi-Family Claims

MHF Regulations provide that after a mortgage loan insured by MHF has been in default for six months, the Administration or any other public agency that is an insured lender may require that the mortgage loan be assigned to MHF and an insurance claim paid by MHF to the Administration or such public agency. MHF currently has no loans in financial default.

Woodbourne Center Project which has an outstanding balance of $673,391 as of June 30, 2006, is not in financial default. However, the borrower, Woodbourne Centers, Inc., filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy on June 23, 2000. The bankruptcy court has confirmed the bankruptcy plan.

Discussion of Multi-Family Operations

Portfolio Risk Rating. Since June 1997, the Department has developed and implemented a rating system for the MHF-insured multi-family portfolio. The Division evaluates each insured project each quarter and assigns the loan a rating of “A,” “B,” or “C.” Factors considered in evaluating projects include the project type, the vacancy level, net operating income and debt service coverage ratio, whether the mortgage is delinquent, the age of the loan and the age of the project, whether there is significant deferred maintenance, adequacy of funds held in reserve for replacements in relation to age and condition of project, rating by the Division in its annual management review, and stability of the market surrounding the property.

“A” Projects are those projects that require no more than standard attention because no factors indicate the prospect of default.

“B” Projects are those projects which are not in default but require more oversight and monitoring and present the possibility for default if existing conditions deteriorate further.

“C” Projects are those projects that are in financial or physical default.

MHF’s Risk Rating of the Multi-Family Projects as of June 30, 2006

	Current Principal Balances	Percentage of Total Principal	Number of Loans	Number of Projects
“A” Loans:	$86,483,995	68.83%	31	27
“B” Loans:	39,157,669	31.17%	25	23
Portfolio Totals:	$125,641,664	100.00%	56	50

(1) Included in the ‘A’ Loans, in the ‘Current Principal Balance’ column, is $10,760,060 for 118 group home (SHOP) loans which are not reflected in the ‘Number of Loans’ or ‘Number of Projects’ columns.

Portfolio Management. The Division is evaluating each of the Loans in the “B” category to develop a plan for stabilizing the loans and reducing its potential for default. Strategies may include loan modification, use of additional resources, adjustments to funding of reserves for replacement going forward, and replacement of management agents.

Actuarial Study

The Insurance Agreement requires MHF to undertake periodic actuarial studies. The most recent study (the “2005 Study”), which was prepared by KPMG LLP (“KPMG”), dated June 27, 2005, and was performed using information as of June 30, 2004. The main purpose of the 2005 Study was to estimate the capital position of the multi-family portfolio and its future compliance with the capitalization requirements set forth in the Insurance Agreement.

The 2005 Study concluded that the MHF multi-family insurance program contained sufficient assets to meet its future obligations and maintain levels of capital to meet its insurance requirements under the Insurance Agreement. The 2005 Study further found that the insurance premiums generated from the multi-family bond program alone may not be adequate to cover the cost of future loan defaults and expenses associated with administering the multi-family bond program, but that investment income generated from current fund assets would be sufficient to cover the shortfall. In so doing, the 2005 Study assumed that investment income generated by assets within the Multi-Family Reserve would be available to pay claims on multi-family insured loans, although investment income generated by assets within the Multi-Family Reserve is credited to the Unallocated Reserve and is not specifically assigned to the multi-family portfolio. Thus, losses in other categories of insurance could be paid from this investment income, reducing or eliminating the amount available to pay claims on multi-family reserves.

KPMG advised that the 2005 Study must be read in its entirety to fully understand the conclusions and must be read in the context of a number of limitations. The 2005 Study used claim and prepayment patterns based on the FHA 221(d)(4) (OMI) program, because, in KPMG’s view, statistically credible default and prepayment patterns were not readily available from MHF experience and the number of multi-family loans insured by MHF was statistically insufficient to produce credible claim and prepayment patterns. The 2005 Study cautioned that, while the risk profiles of the MHF and FHA portfolios are similar, the possibility exists that actual MHF claim and prepayment experience may differ, perhaps significantly, from the historical FHA experience.

In preparing the 2005 Study, KPMG assumed the FHA claim and prepayment experience discussed above, an average loss rate on claims of 45%, a premium equal to 0.5% of the average annual outstanding loan balance, an annual expense ratio of 0.37% of the average outstanding loan balance, and an expected investment yield of 2.5%. Additional scenarios provided sensitivity analyses by modifying the baseline assumptions as follows:

- Rate of claims of 200% of FHA experience;
- A loss rate on claims of 65% instead of 45%;
- A rate of claims at 200% of FHA experience and a loss rate on claims of 65%;
- An investment yield of 1.5% instead of 2.5%; and
- A rate of claims at 200% of FHA experience, a loss rate on claims of 65%, and an investment yield of 1.5%.

In only the final scenario did the results of the simulation indicate a greater than 1% probability that total future cash flows would be insufficient to pay for losses and expenses.

A copy of the 2005 Study is available upon request. See “Additional Information” below.

FHLMC Reinsurance Agreement

On December 28, 1994, MHF, the Department, the Administration, and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (“FHLMC”) entered into a Reinsurance Agreement (the “Reinsurance Agreement”). The purpose of the Reinsurance Agreement was to cede to and fully reinsure with FHLMC, MHF’s mortgage insurance obligations with respect to certain loans insured by MHF. Under the Reinsurance Agreement, FHLMC has agreed to fully reinsure, without any contingent liability for MHF, 17 loans insured by MHF having an original unpaid principal balance of $70,346,036 and, as of June 30, 2006, an aggregate unpaid principal balance of $30,166,068. Nine of these loans were financed originally with the Administration’s Multi-Family Housing Revenue Bonds (Insured Mortgage Loans) and acquired with proceeds of the Administration’s Housing Revenue Bonds Series 1996 A Bonds, and are identified in APPENDIX D – “DESCRIPTION OF LOANS AND DEVELOPMENTS” in the Official Statement for the Administration’s Housing Revenue Bonds, Series 1999 D. The remainder of these loans was financed with the proceeds of the Administration’s Multi-Family Housing Revenue Bonds (Insured Mortgage Loans).

All of the units in each of the developments financed with loans reinsured by FHLMC are subject to Section 8 housing assistance payments. The contracts relating to these payments have been assigned to FHLMC as collateral security. However, FHLMC cannot exercise any remedies with respect to the housing assistance payment contracts unless and until it has paid any insurance claim with respect to a reinsured loan.

FHLMC may, under the terms of the Reinsurance Agreement, require that the Administration foreclose without assignment to FHLMC upon any reinsured loan in the event of a breach of certain warranties regarding the absence of environmental hazards.

FHLMC prepares an annual Information Statement that describes FHLMC, its business and operations and contains FHLMC audited financial statements. From time to time FHLMC prepares Information Statement Supplements that include unaudited financial data and other information concerning its business and operations. Investors can obtain any of these documents and any other documents prepared and made available by FHLMC by writing or calling the Investor Inquiry Department at FHLMC at 8200 Jones Branch Drive, McLean, Virginia 22102 (telephone 703-903-2000) or by using their website at www.freddiemac.com.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Office of the Secretary
Department of Housing and Community Development

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Community Development Administration Residential Revenue Bonds (the Fund) of the Department of Housing and Community Development of the State of Maryland as of and for the years ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, as listed in the table of contents. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As discussed in Note 1, the financial statements present only the Community Development Administration Residential Revenue Bonds and do not purport to, and do not, present fairly the financial position of the Department of Housing and Community Development of the State of Maryland as of June 30, 2006 and 2005, and the changes in its net assets and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Community Development Administration Residential Revenue Bonds of the Department of Housing and Community Development of the State of Maryland as of June 30, 2006 and 2005, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The Supplemental Disclosures of Change in Fair Value of Investments are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audits of the basic financial statements and, accordingly, we express no opinion on it.

(in thousands)

June 30, 2006 and 2005

NOTE 1 - AUTHORIZING LEGISLATION AND PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Community Development Administration (CDA) was created in 1970 by Sections 266 DD-1 to 266 DD-8 of Article 41 (now in Sections 4-101 through 4-255 of the Housing and Community Development Article) of the Annotated Code of Maryland to meet the shortage of adequate, safe and sanitary housing in the State of Maryland, particularly for persons or families of limited income. CDA is in the Division of Development Finance in the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) of the State of Maryland.

The accompanying financial statements only include CDA's Residential Revenue Bonds (the Fund). CDA's other Funds are not included. The Fund was established to issue bonds primarily to originate or purchase single family mortgage loans.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The Fund is accounted for as an enterprise fund. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the accrual method of accounting and on the basis of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

CDA reports its financial activities by applying Standards of Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting as promulgated by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB). CDA has adopted GASB Statement No. 20 Accounting and Financial Reporting for Proprietary Funds and Other Governmental Entities that Use Proprietary Fund Accounting. Consequently, CDA applies all applicable GASB pronouncements as well as Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statements and Interpretations, APB Opinions, and ARBS of the Committee on Accounting Procedure issued on or prior to November 30, 1989, unless those pronouncements conflict with or contradict GASB pronouncements.

Residential Revenue Bonds

CDA has adopted GASB Statement No. 34 Basic Financial Statements and Management's Discussion and Analysis. Under GASB Statement No. 34, net assets should be reported as restricted when constraints placed on net asset use are either: externally imposed by creditors (such as through debt covenants), grantors, contributors, or laws or regulations of other governments; or are imposed by law through constitutional provisions or enabling legislation. Accordingly, all net assets of the Fund are restricted as to their use as all net assets are pledged to bondholders.

The Annual Financial Report may include a Management's Discussion and Analysis. Since CDA is an enterprise fund included in the State of Maryland's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report, a separate Management's Discussion and Analysis is not required in these financial statements. CDA prepares a Management's Discussion and Analysis for the General Accounting Division of the State of Maryland that is not part of these financial statements.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Effective July 1, 2005, CDA adopted GASB Technical Bulletin No. 2003-1 Disclosure Requirements for Derivatives Not Reported at Fair Value on the Statement of Net Assets. GASB Technical Bulletin No. 2003-1 requires disclosure of information about derivatives: objective for the derivative, the derivative's terms, fair value, and risk exposure. This GASB bulletin does not have any impact on the Fund's financial position or results of operations. The disclosures are more fully described in Note 9.

Cash and Cash Equivalents on Deposit with Trustee

Cash equivalents may include money market funds, repurchase agreements, investment agreements and any other investments, primarily obligations of the U.S. Treasury and U.S. Government Agencies, which have maturities of 90 or less days at the time of purchase. As of June 30, 2006 and 2005, all cash equivalents are invested in a money market mutual fund which is more fully described in Note 3.

Investments

Investments are principally governmental debt securities or investment agreements collateralized by governmental debt securities. Debt securities are stated at fair value, based on quoted market prices. Investments are classified as current or long-term based on the maturity date or call date, if exercise of the call within the next fiscal year is probable. Investments are more fully described in Note 3.

Mortgage Loans

Mortgage loans are carried at their unpaid principal balances, net of unamortized loan fees and expenses. Loan fees and expenses are deferred over the life of the related loans and amortized using the effective interest method. Any mortgage loan in foreclosure with a pending insurance claim is recorded as other receivables. See Notes 4 and 14 for additional information on mortgage loans and mortgage insurance, respectively.

Allowance for Loan Losses

Substantially all of the mortgage loans of the Fund are insured or guaranteed by agencies of the U.S. Government, the Maryland Housing Fund (MHF), or private mortgage insurers. As of June 30, 2006, CDA has established an allowance for loan losses on the uninsured portions of mortgage loans with private mortgage insurance. No allowance for loan losses was necessary as of June 30, 2005. See Notes 4 and 14 for additional information.

Accrued Interest and Other Receivables

Accrued interest and other receivables include interest on loans and investments and outstanding claims on insured mortgage loans. On insured single family loans, interest ceases to accrue after foreclosure. See Note 5 for additional information.

Deferred Bond Issuance Costs

Costs incurred in issuing bonds are capitalized and amortized using the effective interest method for each respective bond issue. When bonds are redeemed early with mortgage prepayments, a proportionate share of the remaining unamortized costs is recognized as a loss on the Statements of Revenue, Expenses and Changes in Net Assets.

Due from (to) Other Funds

Due from (to) other Funds records the pending transfers of cash between Funds which is primarily a result of receipts due to one Fund, but received by another, as more fully described in Note 13.

Bonds Payable

Bonds payable are carried at their unpaid principal balances, net of original issue discounts or premiums. See Notes 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 for more information.

Rebate Liability on Investments

Regulations governing the issuance of tax-exempt debt place limitations on permitted investment yield on borrowed funds. Based on these regulations, CDA is required to periodically rebate excess earnings from investments to the United States Treasury. In addition, the liability also includes an estimate of the rebate obligation related to unrealized gains as a result of recording investments at fair value. Rebate liability is more fully described in Note 11.

Mortgage Yield Limitations

All mortgage loans are subject to yield limitations under the Internal Revenue Service Code (the Code) in order for the associated bonds to maintain their tax-exempt status. At the time of bond issuance and over the term of the bonds, CDA determines and maintains compliance with the permitted mortgage yield on the loans. In certain bond refunding transactions, CDA transfers loans from prior series of bonds to the refunding series. CDA monitors the yield on these transferred loans to ensure that the composite yield over the term of the bonds is within the yield limitations of the Code. If at any time the composite yields on the transferred loans are out of compliance with the Code, CDA has certain remedies available to bring the yield into compliance. As of June 30, 2006 and 2005, all mortgage loan yields are in compliance with the Code.

Interest on Mortgage Loans

Interest on mortgage loans is calculated using the effective interest method.

Fee Income

CDA receives single family commitment fees at loan origination. These fees are deferred and amortized over the life of the loan.

Origination Expenses

CDA pays originators of its single family loans an origination fee and a servicer release fee. On some single family loans CDA provides the borrowers with grants toward loan down payment and closing costs. These CDA expenses are deferred and amortized over the life of the loan.

Administrative Support

In addition to expenses incurred directly by the Fund, CDA receives certain support services from other divisions of DHCD. Support services and the operating expenses of CDA have been allocated to CDA's General Bond Reserve Fund and reported in the financial statements of CDA's Revenue Obligation Funds. The General Bond Reserve Fund records these expenses as invoiced by DHCD for the fiscal year.

The employees of CDA are covered by the Maryland State Retirement and Pension System (the System) and the costs of employees' retirement benefits are included in the salaries and related costs charged to CDA's General Bond Reserve Fund. See Note 15 for additional information.

Revenue and Expenses

CDA distinguishes operating revenue and expenses from nonoperating items in conformity with GASB Statement No. 34. Operating revenue and expenses are identified as those activities that are directly related to financing affordable housing in the State of Maryland. All of CDA's activities are considered to be operating.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue, expenses, gains and losses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

NOTE 3 - CASH, CASH EQUIVALENTS, AND INVESTMENTS

Bond proceeds and revenues from mortgages and investments are invested in authorized investments as defined in the Residential Revenue Bond Resolution (the Resolution) and in CDA's Investment Policy until required for purchasing or originating mortgage loans, funding reserves, paying bond debt service or redeeming outstanding bonds and notes, and funding program expenses. Authorized investments include obligations of the U.S. Treasury, U.S. Government Agencies, repurchase agreements, investment agreements, money market funds and certificates of deposit.

NOTE 3 - CASH, CASH EQUIVALENTS, AND INVESTMENTS (Continued)

The following assets, reported at fair value and held by the Fund as of June 30, 2006 and 2005, are evaluated in accordance with GASB 40 for interest rate risk, credit risk, concentration of credit risk and custodial credit risk.

Assets	2006	2005
Cash and Cash Equivalents:
Federated Treasury Obligations Fund	$ 95,268	$ 123,890
Investments:

Repurchase and Investment Agreements	19,007	22,879
Total	$ 520,064	$ 355,916

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that changes in interest rates will adversely affect the fair value of an investment. As a means of limiting its exposure to fair value losses from rising interest rates, CDA's Investment Policy requires that the maturities of the investment portfolio are scheduled to meet the cash requirements for bond debt service, projected loan originations and ongoing operations.

As of June 30, 2005, the amortized cost, fair value and maturities for these assets were as follows:

Asset	Amortized Cost	Fair Value	Maturities (in years)
			Less than 1	1 - 5	6 - 10	11 - 15	More than 15

The Federated Treasury Obligations Fund invests exclusively in U.S. Treasuries and in repurchase agreements collateralized by Treasury securities. It is operated in accordance with Rule 2a-7 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. It can reasonably be expected to have a fair value that will be unaffected by interest rate changes because the interest rates are variable and the principal can be recovered on demand. As noted above, as of June 30, 2006 and 2005, the cost of this money market mutual fund approximated fair value.

Credit Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that an issuer or other counterparty to an investment will not fulfill its obligations. Neither CDA's Investment Policy nor the Resolution require investment agreements or deposits to be collateralized. CDA's Investment Policy places no limit on the amount that CDA may invest in any one issuer or counterparty. According to the Resolution and CDA's Investment Policy, securities must be at a rating no lower than the rating on the bonds or, if an investment maintains only a short-term rating, a rating not less than F1/P-1; and financial institutions who are a counterparty to CDA in investment agreements must be rated at least comparable to the existing rating on CDA bonds unless counterparty ratings lower than the bond ratings are permitted and do not affect the ratings on the bonds. In addition, certain investment and repurchase agreements require counterparty ratings no less than the ratings on the bonds. As of June 30, 2006 and 2005, all counterparty ratings were at least equal to the ratings on the bonds. The ratings on Residential Revenue Bonds as of June 30, 2006 and 2005 were Aa2 by Moody's Investors Service and AA by Fitch Ratings.

As of June 30, 2006, credit ratings and allocation by type of investments for the following assets were:

Custodial Credit Risk

Custodial credit risk is the risk that in the event of a bank or counterparty failure, CDA will not be able to recover its deposits or the value of its collateral securities that are in the possession of an outside party. As of June 30, 2006, CDA's investments were not subject to custodial credit risk under GASB Statement No. 40. CDA's investments and collateralized securities are held in trust by the trustee or the trustee's agent, kept separate from the assets of the bank and from other trust accounts and are held in CDA's name.

NOTE 4 - MORTGAGE LOANS

Primarily all mortgage loans are secured by first liens on the related property and are credit enhanced through the FHA mortgage insurance programs, the Veterans Administration, USDA/RD guarantee programs, the Maryland Housing Fund (MHF) or by private mortgage insurers. Interest rates on such loans ranged from 4.0% to 7.5%. Remaining loan terms ranged from approximately 21 to 40 years, and 18 to 35 years, for the years ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively.

NOTE 5 - ACCRUED INTEREST AND OTHER RECEIVABLES

Accrued interest and other receivables as of June 30, 2006 and 2005 were as follows:

	2006	2005
Accrued mortgage loan interest	$ 3,762	$ 5,235
Accrued investment interest	8,628	1,195
Claims due from mortgage insurers	1,193	2,336
Miscellaneous loan billings	2	2
	$ 13,585	$ 8,768

NOTE 6 - SHORT-TERM DEBT

CDA issues short-term debt to preserve volume cap when prepayments and payments from mortgages exceed the demand for new mortgages. Proceeds of the short-term debt are used to refund and to pay at maturity prior series of bonds. At the time of the refunding, prepayments and repayments of mortgage loans financed by these prior bonds are transferred to accounts in the short-term series. CDA expects to make these funds available to purchase mortgage loans upon the maturity or earlier redemption of the short-term bonds with proceeds of additional long-term bonds. By issuing the short-term debt, CDA more closely matches the rates on the short-term debt with the rates on short-term investments. When there is sufficient mortgage demand, CDA issues long-term refunding bonds to redeem the short-term debt and the prepayments and repayments are used to fund new mortgages.

NOTE 7 - BONDS PAYABLE

The bonds and notes issued by CDA are special obligations of CDA and are payable from the revenue and special funds of the Resolution. These bonds and notes do not constitute debt of and are not guaranteed by the State of Maryland or any other program of the State of Maryland or any political subdivision.

The provisions of the Resolution require or allow for the special redemption of bonds at par through the use of unexpended bond proceeds and excess funds accumulated primarily through prepayment of mortgage loans. All outstanding bonds are subject to optional redemption, in whole or in part at any time, after certain dates, as specified in the respective series resolutions. The prescribed optional redemption premiums range from 0% to 1.5% of the principal amount.

The following lists those bonds which are at variable rates and the terms by which the variable rates change. All other bonds have fixed interest rates. All bonds are tax-exempt.

2003 Series C; 2004 Series C, F and I; 2005 Series C; and 2006 Series G

The rate is set weekly by the remarketing agent so that the market value of the bonds is as close as possible to 100% of the principal amount of the bonds. In no event will the bonds bear interest at a rate in excess of 12%.

NOTE 9 - INTEREST RATE EXCHANGE AGREEMENTS (SWAPS)

Objective of the Swaps

As a means to lower its borrowing costs, CDA issues variable rate bonds. In order to protect against the potential increases in interest rates, CDA has entered into pay-fixed, receive-variable interest rate swap agreements. CDA anticipates that the net swap payments and interest payments on underlying bonds will be lower than what CDA would have paid if it had issued fixed rate debt at the time of the underlying bond issuances. All of the Fund's swaps are cash flow hedges.

Terms and Fair Value

The terms, including the fair values of the outstanding swaps as of June 30, 2006, are provided below. The counterparty credit ratings for all outstanding swaps as of June 30, 2006 are listed under the Credit Risk section. For each of the outstanding swap agreements the variable rates are reset monthly, and the final maturity dates of the underlying bonds and the final termination dates of the corresponding swap agreements are the same. The fair values presented below are based on the market values and are affirmed by an independent advisor who used valuation methods and assumptions in accordance with the GASB Technical Bulletin No. 2003-1.

NOTE 9 - INTEREST RATE EXCHANGE AGREEMENTS (SWAPS) (Continued)

Notes:

- (1) CDA has the option to terminate this interest rate swap transaction in whole or in part without any termination payment on September 1, 2014 and on each March 1 and September 1 thereafter (Optional Termination Dates). If the option is exercised in part, the applicable notional amounts shall be reduced pro rata.
- (2) CDA has the option to terminate this interest rate swap transaction in whole or in part without any termination payment on March 1, 2016 and on each September 1 and March 1 thereafter (Optional Termination Dates). If the option is exercised in part, the applicable notional amounts shall be reduced pro rata.
- (3) CDA entered into this interest rate swap agreement on May 25, 2006 in connection with the 2006 Series J variable rate bonds issued on July 13, 2006.

Basis Risk

The swaps would expose CDA to basis risk should the relationship between the London Interbank Offered Rate and the Bond Market Association Rate converge. If a change occurs that results in the rates moving towards convergence, the expected cost savings may not be realized. In order to mitigate this risk, prior to the execution of the swap agreements, CDA and its independent financial advisor reviewed historical trading differentials between the Bond Market Association Rate and the London Interbank Offered Rate.

Credit Risk

Credit risk is the risk that a swap counterparty will not fulfill its obligations. The fair value of the swaps represented CDA's credit exposure to each counterparty as of June 30, 2006. Should BSFP fail to perform according to the terms of the swap contracts, CDA would face a maximum possible loss equivalent to the swaps' fair value of $859. CDA was not exposed to credit risk under the swap agreement with UBS AG since the swap had a negative fair value. However, should the valuation of the swap change, and the fair value turn positive, CDA would be exposed to credit risk in the amount of the swap's fair value. To mitigate the potential for credit risk, the fair value of the swaps will be fully collateralized by the counterparties if a counterparty's credit quality falls below the designated credit rating thresholds.

NOTE 9 - INTEREST RATE EXCHANGE AGREEMENTS (SWAPS) (Continued)

The credit rating details for each swap counterparty, including credit rating thresholds, and the total fair value amounts as of June 30, 2006 are summarized below:

Swap Counterparty	Outstanding Notional Amount	Current Credit Rating	Collateral Posting Credit Rating Threshold	Fair Value
Bear Stearns Financial Products (BSFP)	$60,000	Aaa from Moody's AAA from Standard and Poor's	A1 or below from Moody's or A+ or below from Standard and Poor's	$859
UBS AG	$40,000	Aa2 from Moody's AA+ from Fitch	A1 or below from Moody's or A+ or below from Fitch	($178)

Termination Risk

Termination risk is the risk that, due to some event or exercise of a right, the swaps may terminate prior to the scheduled expiration which could result in a payment due from CDA. Furthermore, if a swap is terminated, the underlying variable rate bonds may be exposed to the rising variable interest rates.

According to the termination provisions of the swap agreements, CDA or the counterparty may terminate the swap if the other party fails to perform under the terms of the contract. The counterparty can terminate the contract if the ratings on the related bonds fall below the credit rating thresholds. In addition, CDA has an option to terminate the swaps in part or in whole without any payment except for accrued interest on the respective Optional Termination Dates. Regardless of the above, CDA has a unilateral right to terminate swaps at any time upon adequate notification to the counterparty. If at the time of such termination a swap has a negative fair value, CDA would be liable to the counterparty for a payment equal to the swap's fair value along with any accrued interest.

Rollover Risk

CDA is exposed to rollover risk on the swap agreements if one terminates prior to the maturity of the associated debt. Each of the Fund's swap agreements has the same final termination date as the final maturity date of the underlying bonds.

Amortization Risk

Amortization risk is the risk that the actual redemption pattern of the bonds may differ from the swap schedule, producing a mismatch between the principal amount of the bonds outstanding and the outstanding notional amount of the swap. To address this risk, CDA has structured all swap transactions to provide for optional termination on the respective Optional Termination Dates and automatic incremental amortization of the swap notional amounts. Mortgage loan prepayments can also be directed to the variable rate series to match the outstanding notional swap amount to the outstanding amount of the underlying bonds.

Tax Risk

Tax risk is the risk that the value of tax exemption may decline through tax law changes and that variable interest rates would then rise toward taxable levels and the expected cost savings of the swaps may not be realized.

Counterparty Risk

Counterparty risk is the risk that a counterparty will fail to make required payments. In order to limit this type of risk, CDA diversifies its exposure across several counterparties.

The following table provides a summary of debt service requirements for hedged variable rate bonds and net swap payments for the next five years and in five-year increments thereafter. The interest calculations are based on the variable rates in effect on June 30, 2006, and may not be indicative of the actual interest expense that will be incurred. As rates vary, variable rate bond interest payments and net swap payments will vary.

NOTE 10 - BOND REFUNDINGS

Certain refundings of debt are due to the prepayments of single family mortgage loans. In these cases, CDA transfers the proceeds of the refunding bonds to a redemption account to redeem previously issued bonds and, simultaneously, transfers the prepayments of single family mortgage loans financed by these prior bonds to the refunding bonds' accounts for the purpose of originating new loans. This recycling of prepayments enables CDA to originate new loans that are not subject to the limitations of the IRS volume cap. CDA does not pay call premiums on these special redemptions, and the refundings are not undertaken to reduce interest rates, revise payment schedules or modify restrictions. CDA writes off any unamortized deferred issuance costs or original issue discounts, net of unamortized original issue premiums, as a loss in the accompanying Statements of Revenue, Expenses and Changes in Net Assets.

NOTE 11 - REBATE LIABILITY

In accordance with the Internal Revenue Service Code (the Code), the Fund has recorded a rebate liability for excess investment earnings in tax-exempt bond and note issues. The excess investment earnings arise due to actual investment yields earned by the Fund being greater than yields permitted to be retained by the Fund under the Code. The Code requires 90% of such excess investment earnings to be remitted to the United States Treasury every five years and in full at the final redemption of the bonds. Interest income on the Statements of Revenue, Expenses and Changes in Net Assets is reduced by the rebate liability due to excess investment earnings. The increase/decrease in fair value of investments on the Statements of Revenue, Expenses and Changes in Net Assets is adjusted by the change in the estimated rebate liability due to change in fair value of investments.

Rebate liability activity for the year ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 was as follows:

	2006	2005
Beginning rebate liability	$ 1,294	$ 1,934

NOTE 13 - INTERFUND ACTIVITY

In accordance with the Resolution, net assets in Residential Revenue Bonds are restricted and pledged to bondholders. However, restricted assets may be transferred to other Funds, subject to the provisions of the Resolution. Generally, an officer of CDA must authorize such withdrawals and a cash flow analysis must demonstrate that sufficient monies remain in the Resolution to meet the obligations of the Fund in current and future years.

During the years ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, the Fund transferred the following amounts, as permitted, among Funds:

	2006	2005
Single family commitment fees transferred to the General Bond Reserve Fund	$ (39)	$ (84)
Cost of issuance on bonds transferred from Single Family Program Bonds	2,415	1,939
	$ 2,376	$ 1,855

As of June 30, 2006 and 2005, due to other Funds consisted of the following:

	2006	2005
Servicer receipts for participation loans due to Single Family Program Bonds	$ 287	$ 312

NOTE 14 - MORTGAGE INSURANCE

All mortgage loans in the Fund have mortgage insurance as described in Note 4.

Loans insured by an agency of the U.S. Government are insured in an amount substantially equal to the unpaid principal amount of the loan. Approximately 17% of total loans are insured by private mortgage insurers or Maryland Housing Fund (MHF) at 35% of the loan amount. In the opinion of management, these coverage levels are sufficient so that no pool insurance or reserves are required. An allowance for loan losses has been established for loans insured by private mortgage insurers. Premiums are paid by single family mortgagors.

NOTE 15 - PENSION AND OTHER POST-RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Eligible employees of CDA and employees of the State of Maryland are covered under the retirement plans of the State Retirement and Pension System of Maryland (the System) and are also entitled to certain healthcare benefits upon retirement. CDA's only obligation for retirement and post-employment benefits is its required annual contribution, which was paid in full by CDA to the State of Maryland prior to year end. The System prepares a separate audited Comprehensive Annual Financial Report which can be obtained from the State Retirement and Pension System of Maryland, 120 East Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202 or by visiting the website at www.sra.state.md.us.

NOTE 16 - COMMITMENTS

As of June 30, 2006, CDA had approximately $257,033 in reservations for single family mortgages at interest rates ranging from 4.875% to 6.75%. CDA plans to purchase these loans with proceeds from the Fund.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Office of the Secretary
Department of Housing and Community Development

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Maryland Housing Fund (MHF) of the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) of the State of Maryland as of and for the years ended June 30, 2006 and 2005, as listed in the table of contents. These financial statements are the responsibility of MHF's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As discussed in Note 1, the financial statements present only the Maryland Housing Fund and do not purport to, and do not, present fairly the financial position of the Department of Housing and Community Development of the State of Maryland as of June 30, 2006 and 2005, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows, for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTE 1 - PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Maryland Housing Fund (MHF) was established in 1971 by Section 3-201 through 3-208 of the Housing and Community Development Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended, to encourage the flow of private investment capital into multiple-unit and single-family housing by insuring qualified lending institutions against losses on mortgage loans. MHF is authorized to insure mortgage loans, including mortgage loans for multi-family developments financed by public agencies such as the Community Development Administration (CDA), and to provide primary and pool insurance for single family mortgage loans. MHF insures against certain monetary losses incurred as a result of nonpayment of principal, interest or other sums agreed to be paid and certain other events of default under the terms of any insured mortgage loan, but does not insure against property losses, including without limitation, title risk, risks of defective construction or casualty, or any other reduction in project value due to insurable risk or force majeure, casualty or title loss. Legislation enacted in 1981 enables MHF to originate mortgage loans to assist in the disposal of property acquired through foreclosure or pursuant to any other payment in settlement of a claim or loss. MHF is a division of the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD).

MHF is an enterprise fund of the State of Maryland (the State) and follows the accrual basis of accounting.

MHF's Multi-Family Program provides several plans, but all existing multi-family insurance, other than the program for private lenders, is 100% insurance of projects financed by revenue bonds. Currently, MHF is insuring loans for CDA, the Housing Opportunities Commission of Montgomery County and SunTrust Mortgage, Inc.

MHF's single-family programs insure mortgages made by private Maryland lending institutions, Baltimore City and the Community Development Administration of the State of Maryland (CDA). These programs include:

- Regular Single-Family Program - MHF is liable for the first loss, up to 35% of the mortgage amount, depending on the loan-to-value ratio.
- Revitalization (Pilot) Program - MHF insures loans made for the purpose of stimulating the flow of private mortgage capital into areas which have suffered decreasing home ownership and associated economic and social instability. MHF insures 100% of the mortgage amounts.

- Pool Insurance - MHF insures mortgages predominately financed through proceeds of revenue bonds of CDA and is liable for the balance of the loan not covered under primary insurance. Coverage is limited to 10% of lendable proceeds for the aggregate of revenue bond issues (stop-loss). In addition, the Wisconsin Mortgage Assurance Corporation, formerly the Mortgage Guaranty Insurance Corporation, has provided reinsurance for a portion of mortgage loans financed by one series of CDA's bonds. Notwithstanding the reinsurance provided by the Wisconsin Mortgage Assurance Corporation, the pool insurance coverage in force also includes coverage for mortgage loans financed by this series.
- Home and Energy Loan Program (HELP) - MHF insures loans made for the purpose of rehabilitation and energy conservation in owner occupied or rental housing financed by CDA's Home and Energy Loan Program and is liable for up to 100% of the loan amounts.

In early 1997, MHF suspended all new insurance activity (except for pool insurance on certain single-family loans). Since that time, MHF has opened new programs.

In 2002, the Department re-opened a limited multi-family program of MHF insuring mortgage loans known as "SHOP" (Special Housing Opportunity Program) that finance or refinance the acquisition, construction or rehabilitation of shared living and related facilities for the special needs population which are owned by and sponsored by nonprofit organizations.

In January 2005, MHF insured a new risk shared bond financed multi-family loan. MHF will consider insuring future multi-family projects on a case by case basis for new bond financed loans, including loans with credit enhancement under the FHA Risk Sharing Program.

In June 2005, MHF opened a new 40 year single-family mortgage insurance product offered in conjunction with CDA's tax exempt bonds. This product helps address the escalating housing costs in Maryland. The 40 year mortgage maintains a fixed rate of interest for the full loan term and allows borrowers to finance a one-time mortgage insurance premium in the mortgage, which will require no additional outlay of cash for closing, while lowering the monthly mortgage payment.

In June 2006, the Department authorized the expenditure of up to $1 million of the Revitalization (Pilot) Reserves to provide credit enhancement to a loan program sponsored by a nonprofit corporation, which is intended to stabilize and strengthen property values in targeted areas in the City of Baltimore.

MHF has allocated separate reserve funds for the Multi-Family Program, Regular Single-Family Program, Revitalization (Pilot) Program and the Home and Energy Loan Program. Insurance of single-family mortgage loans funded by certain CDA housing mortgage revenue bonds provides 100% coverage and is backed by the Multi-Family Reserve Fund. Insurance offered to private lenders for permanent mortgages in publicly designated renewal or redevelopment areas provides 100% coverage and is also backed by the Multi-Family Reserve Fund.

MHF's restricted funds are derived from the net proceeds of five issues of State general obligation bonds aggregating $39,300,000 and $7,500,000 in proceeds derived from State appropriations. In addition, the funds have earned investment income and paid claims. The unrestricted accumulated deficit reflects MHF's operations since inception less interest income.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

MHF reports its financial activities by applying Standards of Governmental Accounting and Financial Reporting as promulgated by the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB). MHF adopted GASB Statement No. 20, "Accounting and Financial Reporting for Proprietary Funds and Other Governmental Entities that use Proprietary Fund Accounting." Consequently, MHF applies all applicable GASB pronouncements as well as Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statements and Interpretations, APB Opinions and Accounting Research Bulletins (ARBS) of the Committee on Accounting Procedure issued on or prior to November 30, 1989, unless those pronouncements conflict with or contradict GASB pronouncements.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Effective July 1, 2004, MHF adopted GASB Statement No. 40 "Deposit and Investment Risk Disclosures," an amendment of GASB Statement No. 3, "Deposits with Financial Institutions, Investments (including Repurchase Agreements), and Reverse Repurchase Agreements." GASB Statement No. 40 requires disclosure of information regarding investments: interest rate risk, credit risk, concentration of credit risk and custodial credit risk. This new statement has no impact on MHF's financial position or results of operations, see Note 4.

Cash on Deposit with State Treasurer

Principally, all cash is deposited with the State Treasurer. The cash is pooled with other State funds and invested under State guidelines.

Investment

The investment consists of a U.S. government treasury zero-coupon bond carried at fair value based on quoted market prices. The investment is classified as long-term based on the maturity date.

Acquired Property

Property acquired as a result of claims settled is carried at the principal claim cost, less management's estimate of expenses and losses related to the maintenance and sale of the property, which management believes approximates fair value less costs to sell. As of June 30, 2006, acquired property consists of $390,613 of single-family property and $341,102 of multi-family property. As of June 30, 2005, acquired property consists of $767,169 of single-family property and $606,720 of multi-family property.

Allowance for Unpaid Insurance Losses

MHF provides for estimated insurance losses under each insurance plan. The allowance for unpaid insurance losses is increased by provisions charged to current operating expenses and reduced by claim payments. The provision for possible insurance losses is based on management's review of insured properties, considering past loss experience and current economic conditions which may affect the frequency of claims and the recovery of claim costs. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Restricted Net Assets

Under GASB Statement No. 34, net assets should be reported as restricted when constraints placed on net asset use are either: externally imposed by creditors (such as through debt covenants), grantors, contributors, or laws or regulations of other governments; or are imposed by law through constitutional provisions or enabling legislation. Accordingly, all funds and accounts whose purpose is to pay possible future claims are restricted as to their use, as is interest earned on these restricted assets.

Premium Income Recognition

Premium income on multi-family and single-family loans is recognized on a straight-line basis over the benefit period covered by the premiums.

Salaries and Related Benefits

MHF is subject to an allocation of intradepartmental support costs of the DHCD, which are included in salaries and related benefits in the Statements of Revenues and Expenses. Such costs could affect MHF's financial position or operating results in a manner that differs from those that might have been obtained if MHF was autonomous. MHF records these costs as invoiced by DHCD for the fiscal year. However, the allocation is subject to review and adjustment subsequent to year-end. Any adjustment is included on invoices and recorded in the period in which the adjustment is identified.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, gains and losses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenues and Expenses

MHF distinguishes operating revenues and expenses from nonoperating items. Operating revenues and expenses generally result from mortgage insurance activities in connection with MHF's ongoing operations. The principal operating revenue is mortgage insurance premiums. Operating expenses include expenses relating to claims from defaulted loans and salary, general and administrative expenses. All revenues and expenses not meeting this definition are reported as nonoperating revenues and expenses. The interest earned on restricted investments is restricted revenue.

Reclassifications

Certain items from the prior year financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

NOTE 3 - CASH ON DEPOSIT WITH STATE TREASURER

Principally, all cash is held on deposit with the State Treasurer and invested as a component of the State of Maryland investment portfolio. The cash is invested under the State's guidelines. Investment earnings on amounts credited to the operating account do not accrue to the benefit of the MHF. For additional information on the risk categories of cash, see the State of Maryland Comprehensive Annual Financial Report.

NOTE 4 - INVESTMENT

The following asset reported at fair market value and held by MHF at June 30, 2006 and 2005 is evaluated in accordance with GASB 40 for interest rate risk, credit risk, concentration of credit risk and custodial credit risk. This investment is held as collateral on a multi-family loan and matures on April 15, 2024.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that changes in interest rates will adversely affect the fair value of an investment. As a means of limiting its exposure to fair value losses arising from rising interest rates, MHF's Investment Policy requires that the investment portfolio is structured to meet the cash requirements of ongoing operations.

Credit Risk and Concentration of Credit Risk

Credit Risk is the risk that an issuer or other counterparty to an investment will not fulfill its obligations. MHF's Investment Policy requires investment agreements or deposits to be collateralized. MHF's Investment Policy places no limit on the amount that MHF may invest in any one issuer.

Custodial Credit Risk

Custodial credit risk is the risk that in the event of a bank or counterparty failure, MHF will not be able to recover its deposits or the value of its collateral securities that are in the possession of an outside party. Investments and collateralized securities are held in trust by the trustee or the trustee agent, kept separate from the assets of the bank and from other trust accounts and are held in MHF's name.

NOTE 8 - ALLOWANCE FOR UNPAID INSURANCE LOSSES

The allowance for unpaid insurance losses is the estimated claims settlement on notices of default that has been received by MHF, as well as loan defaults that have been incurred but have not been reported by the lenders. Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 60 specifically excludes mortgage guaranty insurance from its guidance relating to the reserves for losses.

For insured multi-family program properties, MHF establishes loss reserves on a case-by-case basis when insured loans are identified as currently in default based on MHF's expected claim payment, net of estimated recovery. At June 30, 2006, MHF has no multi-family loans in default. As a result, MHF provides only limited loss reserves on the multi-family portfolio.

For insured single-family loans, MHF establishes its loss reserves based on past loss experiences and the current real estate market. MHF also reserves for defaults that have been incurred but have not been reported prior to the close of an accounting period, using estimated claim rates and claim sizes for the estimated number of defaults not reported. For single-family program properties, insured loans which have gone through foreclosure and MHF has paid a claim, MHF also reserves for losses based on past loss experiences and the current real estate market.

MHF's reserving process is based upon the assumptions of past experience, including the current real estate market and housing values in the locations where MHF has experienced high claim rates. Therefore, the reserves are necessarily based on estimates and the ultimate liability may vary from such estimates. Management regularly reviews the evaluation of the loss reserves utilizing current information and updates the assumptions in the estimation process accordingly. Any resulting adjustments are reflected in the current period's earnings as either a provision for losses or benefit from losses. Management believes that the allowance for unpaid insurance losses at June 30, 2006 was appropriately established on an aggregate basis and was adequate to cover the ultimate net cost of settling reported and unreported claims.

NOTE 10 - PENSION AND OTHER POST-RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Eligible employees of MHF and employees of the State are covered under the retirement plans of the State Retirement and Pension System of Maryland (System) and are also entitled to certain healthcare benefits upon retirement. MHF's only liability for retirement and post-employment benefits is its required annual contribution, which was paid in full by MHF to the State of Maryland prior to year-end. The System is considered part of the State's financial reporting entity, and is not considered a part of MHF's reporting entity. The System prepares a separate Comprehensive Annual Financial Report which can be obtained from the State Retirement and Pension System of Maryland at 120 East Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202.

Notes:

(1) For information on the status of remaining funds from prior Series of Bonds, see “Existing Portfolio and Available Funds Under the Bond Resolution - Status of Available Funds” above.

(2) Individual amounts may not add up to the total amount because of rounding. The total number of loans for all series is adjusted to prevent double counting of participation loans financed from multiple bond series under the Bond Resolution. (For detail on participation loans see Footnote (5)).

(3) The Collateral Reserve Fund is a fund established under the Bond Resolution at the time the 1997 Series A Bonds and the 1997 Series B Bonds were issued.

(4) The mortgage rate paid by the borrower is derived from a blend of proceeds from a series of Residential Revenue Bonds and proceeds from the 1999 First Series Bonds issued under the General Certificate and loaned at 0.00%.

APPENDIX L

RESIDENTIAL REVENUE BOND PROGRAM PREPAYMENT SPEED OF MORTGAGE LOAN PORTFOLIO BY BOND ISSUANCE

Prepayments on mortgage loans are commonly measured relative to a prepayment standard model. The Bond Market Association standard prepayment model (“BMA”, formerly known as “PSA”, the Public Securities Association) represents an assumed monthly rate of prepayment of the then outstanding principal balance of a pool of new mortgage loans. BMA does not purport to be either an historic description of the prepayment experience of any pool of mortgage loans or a prediction of the anticipated rate of prepayment of any pool of mortgage loans. One hundred percent (100%) BMA assumes prepayment rates of 0.2 percent per year of the then-unpaid principal balance of such mortgage loans in the first months of the life of the mortgage loans and an additional 0.2 percent per year in each month thereafter (for example, 0.4 percent per year in the second month) until the 30th month. Beginning in the 30th month and in each month thereafter during the life of the mortgage loans, 100% BMA assumes a constant prepayment rate of six percent per year. Multiples of BMA are calculated from this prepayment rate series. For example, 200% BMA assumes prepayment rates will be 0.4 percent per year in month one, 0.8 percent per year in month two, reaching 12% per year in month 30 and remaining constant at 12% per year thereafter. The following Average Prepayment Speed tables express the prepayment speed of mortgage loans of the Administration’s Residential Revenue Bonds as a percent of BMA based on actual prepayments and assuming all mortgage loans were originated in the month when the greatest number of mortgage loans was originated.

The Average Prepayment Speed tables provide periodic BMA prepayments speeds. The Administration makes no representation as to the percentage of the principal balance of the loans that will be prepaid as of any date or as to the overall rate of prepayment of such mortgage loans. The Administration makes no representation as to the speed with which any series of Bonds will be redeemed with prepayments.

$10,000,000
Community Development Administration
Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development
Residential Revenue Bonds
2006 Series O (Non-AMT)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as Bond Counsel to the Community Development Administration (the “Administration”), an agency in the Division of Development Finance of the Department of Housing and Community Development (the “Department”), a principal department of the government of the State of Maryland (the “State”), in connection with its issuance and sale of $10,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its Residential Revenue Bonds 2006 Series O (Non-AMT) (the “2006 Series O Bonds”). With the proceeds of the 2006 Series O Bonds, the Administration will make a deposit into the 2006 Series O Program Account of the Program Fund and into the Reserve Fund under the Bond Resolution (as defined herein) and will currently refund a portion of the Administration’s Draw Down Mortgage Revenue Bonds (the “Draw Down Bonds”) previously issued under an Indenture of Trust dated as of September 1, 2005, between the Administration and Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company (the “Draw Down Indenture”), as a result of which certain amounts on deposit in the escrow fund established under the Draw Down Indenture will be transferred to the 2006 Series O Program Account of the Program Fund under the Bond Resolution and certain amounts will be transferred to the Reserve Fund. Funds in the Program Fund will be made available to make or purchase mortgage loans (the “Mortgage Loans”) to finance the acquisition of single-family residences located in the State.

The 2006 Series O Bonds are being issued under and pursuant to (1) Sections 4-101 through 4-255 of the Housing and Community Development Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended (the “Act”), (2) the Residential Revenue Bond Resolution (the “Bond Resolution”), originally adopted by the Administration as of August 1, 1997 and amended and restated as of July 15, 2005, and accepted by Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, Baltimore, Maryland, as trustee (the “Trustee”), and (3) the Series Resolution Providing for the Issuance and Sale of $10,000,000 Principal Amount of Residential Revenue Bonds 2006 Series O (Non-AMT), adopted as of December 1, 2006 (the “Series Resolution”), pursuant to which the 2006 Series O Bonds are authorized to be issued. The Bond Resolution and the Series Resolution are referred to collectively as the Resolutions. Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein have the respective meaning given to such terms in the Resolutions.

The 2006 Series O Bonds mature, bear interest and are subject to redemption as provided therein and in the Resolutions. The 2006 Series O Bonds are issuable as fully registered bonds without coupons in the denominations of $5,000 each or any integral multiple thereof. Principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series O Bonds will be paid as provided in the Resolutions by the Trustee to the persons in whose names the 2006 Series O Bonds are registered on the registration books of the Administration maintained by the Trustee.

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), establishes certain requirements which must be met on a continuing basis subsequent to the delivery of the 2006 Series O Bonds for interest on the 2006 Series O Bonds to be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes. Failure to comply with certain of such requirements could cause the interest on the 2006 Series O Bonds to be subject to inclusion in gross income retroactively to the date of issuance of the 2006 Series O Bonds. We have examined the Resolutions and other relevant single-family housing program documents of the Administration which, in our opinion, establish procedures under which, if followed, such requirements would be met. The Administration has covenanted in the Resolutions to comply with all of the applicable requirements of the Code.

In connection with the issuance of the 2006 Series O Bonds, we have examined and considered the Act, the Resolutions, the Code, a specimen of the 2006 Series O Bonds and such other opinions, documents, certificates, letters and matters of law as we have deemed necessary to render the opinions set forth below.

Based upon the foregoing we are of the opinion that:

1. The Administration was duly created and validly exists under the provisions of the Act as an agency in the Division of Development Finance of the Department with full power to issue the 2006 Series O Bonds for the purposes of refunding the Draw Down Bonds and financing the Mortgage Loans.

2. The Resolutions have been duly adopted and executed by the Administration, are valid and binding upon the Administration, are in full force and effect and are enforceable in accordance with their terms. The 2006 Series O Bonds are entitled to the benefit and security of the Resolutions for the payment thereof in accordance with the terms of the Resolutions.

3. The 2006 Series O Bonds have been duly authorized, executed and issued in accordance with the Constitution and the laws of the State, including the Act, now in force and represent valid and binding special obligations of the Administration, enforceable in accordance with their terms and the terms of the Resolutions, subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights and the reasonable exercise in the future by the State and its governmental bodies of the police power inherent in the sovereignty of the State, the application of equitable principles where equitable remedies are sought and limitation on enforcement of judgments against public bodies. The 2006 Series O Bonds are payable from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged therefor pursuant to the Resolutions.

4. The form of the specimen 2006 Series O Bonds is consistent with the form of the 2006 Series O Bond provided in the authorizing Series Resolution.

5. The 2006 Series O Bonds, their transfer, the interest payable thereon and any income derived therefrom, including any profit realized in their sale or exchange, are exempt from taxation of every kind and nature whatsoever by the State or by its political subdivisions, municipal corporations or public units of any kind under existing law, except that no opinion is expressed as to such exemption from Maryland franchise taxes or estate or inheritance taxes.

6. Assuming continuing compliance by the Administration with its covenants in the Resolutions to comply with the Code, interest on the 2006 Series O Bonds is excludable from the gross income of the holders thereof for federal income tax purposes. We are further of the opinion that interest on the 2006 Series O Bonds is not an item of preference for purposes of calculating the federal individual or corporate alternative minimum taxes, but interest on 2006 Series O Bonds held by a corporation (other than an S corporation, regulated investment company, real estate investment trust or real estate mortgage investment conduit) may be indirectly subject to federal alternative minimum tax because of its inclusion in the adjusted current earnings of a corporate holder. Under certain circumstances interest on a 2006 Series O Bond held by a foreign corporation may be subject to the branch profits tax.

Ownership of tax-exempt obligations, including the 2006 Series O Bonds, may result in collateral federal income tax consequences to certain taxpayers, including, without limitation, financial institutions, property and casualty insurance companies, individual recipients of social security or railroad retirement benefits, certain S corporations and taxpayers who may be deemed to have incurred or continued indebtedness to purchase or carry such obligations. We offer no opinion as to such collateral tax consequences. Prospective purchasers of the 2006 Series O Bonds should consult their own tax advisor as to such consequences.

In rendering the foregoing opinions, we have assumed the accuracy and truthfulness of all public records and of all certifications, documents and other proceedings examined by us that have been executed or certified by public officials acting within the scope of their official capacities and have not verified the accuracy or truthfulness thereof. We have also assumed the genuineness of the signatures appearing upon such public records, certifications, documents and proceedings.

We call to your attention that the 2006 Series O Bonds are special obligations of the Administration and will be payable solely from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged for the payment thereof under the Resolutions, including the Mortgage Loans pledged thereunder, and the rights thereunder to any income, revenues, issues, profits and insurance proceeds and other sums of money payable thereunder. The Administration has no taxing power. The 2006 Series O Bonds do not constitute a debt of the State, any political subdivision thereof, the Administration or the Department, or a pledge of the faith, credit or taxing power of the State, any such political subdivision, the Administration or the Department.

We express no opinion herein with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the Official Statement prepared in respect of the 2006 Series O Bonds or as to any other matter not set forth herein.

Very truly yours,

[Letterhead of Ballard Spahr Andrews & Ingersoll, LLP, Washington, D.C.]

$95,120,000
Community Development Administration
Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development
Residential Revenue Bonds
2006 Series Q (Non-AMT)

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as Bond Counsel to the Community Development Administration (the “Administration”), an agency in the Division of Development Finance of the Department of Housing and Community Development (the “Department”), a principal department of the government of the State of Maryland (the “State”), in connection with its issuance and sale of $95,120,000 aggregate principal amount of its Residential Revenue Bonds, 2006 Series Q (Non-AMT) (the “2006 Series Q Bonds”). With the proceeds of the 2006 Series Q Bonds, the Administration will currently refund or pay at maturity all or a portion of certain series of bonds (the “Prior Bonds”) previously issued by the Administration, as a result of which certain amounts relating to the Prior Bonds will be transferred to the 2006 Series Q Program Account of the Program Fund under the Bond Resolution (as defined herein). Funds in the Program Fund will be made available to make or purchase mortgage loans (the “Mortgage Loans”) to finance the acquisition of single family residences located in the State.

The 2006 Series Q Bonds are being issued under and pursuant to (1) Sections 4-101 through 4-255 of the Housing and Community Development Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended (the “Act”), (2) the Residential Revenue Bond Resolution (the “Bond Resolution”), originally adopted by the Administration as of August 1, 1997 and amended and restated as of July 15, 2005, and accepted by Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, Baltimore, Maryland, as trustee (the “Trustee”), and (3) the Series Resolution Providing for the Issuance and Sale of $95,120,000 Principal Amount of Residential Revenue Bonds 2006 Series Q, adopted as of December 1, 2006 (the “Series Resolution”), pursuant to which the 2006 Series Q Bonds are authorized to be issued. The Bond Resolution and the Series Resolution are referred to collectively as the Resolutions. Capitalized terms used herein and not defined herein have the respective meanings given to such terms in the Resolutions.

The 2006 Series Q Bonds mature, bear interest and are subject to redemption as provided therein and in the Resolutions. The 2006 Series Q Bonds are issuable initially as fully registered bonds without coupons in the denominations of $5,000 or any integral multiple thereof. Principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the 2006 Series Q Bonds will be paid as provided in the Resolutions by the Trustee to the persons in whose names the 2006 Series Q Bonds are registered on the registration books of the Administration maintained by the Trustee.

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), establishes certain requirements which must be met on a continuing basis subsequent to the delivery of the 2006 Series Q Bonds for interest on the 2006 Series Q Bonds to be excluded from gross income for federal income tax purposes. Failure to comply with certain of such requirements could cause the interest on the 2006 Series Q Bonds to be subject to inclusion in gross income retroactively to the date of issuance of the 2006 Series Q Bonds. We have examined the Resolutions and other relevant single family housing program documents of the Administration which, in our opinion, establish procedures under which, if followed, such requirements would be met. The Administration has covenanted in the Resolutions to comply with all of the applicable requirements of the Code.

In connection with the issuance of the 2006 Series Q Bonds, we have examined and considered the Act, the Resolutions, the Code, a specimen of the 2006 Series Q Bonds and such other opinions, documents, certificates, letters and matters of law as we have deemed necessary to render the opinions set forth below.

Based upon the foregoing we are of the opinion that:

1. The Administration was duly created and validly exists under the provisions of the Act as an agency in the Division of Development Finance of the Department with full power to issue the 2006 Series Q Bonds for the purposes of refunding or paying at maturity certain of the Prior Bonds and financing the Mortgage Loans.

2. The Resolutions have been duly adopted and executed by the Administration, are valid and binding upon the Administration, are in full force and effect and are enforceable in accordance with their terms. The 2006 Series Q Bonds are entitled to the benefit and security of the Resolutions for the payment thereof in accordance with the terms of the Resolutions.

3. The 2006 Series Q Bonds have been duly authorized, executed and issued in accordance with the Constitution and the laws of the State, including the Act, now in force and represent valid and binding special obligations of the Administration, enforceable in accordance with their terms and the terms of the Resolutions, subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights and the reasonable exercise in the future by the State and its governmental bodies of the police power inherent in the sovereignty of the State, the application of equitable principals where equitable remedies are sought and limitation on enforcement of judgments against public bodies. The 2006 Series Q Bonds are payable from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged therefor pursuant to the Resolutions.

4. The form of the specimen 2006 Series Q Bonds is consistent with the form of the 2006 Series Q Bonds provided in the authorizing Series Resolution.

5. The 2006 Series Q Bonds, their transfer, the interest payable thereon and any income derived therefrom, including any profit realized in their sale or exchange, are exempt from taxation of every kind and nature whatsoever by the State or by its political subdivisions, municipal corporations or public units of any kind under existing law, except that no opinion is expressed as to such exemption from Maryland franchise taxes or estate or inheritance taxes.

6. Assuming continuing compliance by the Administration with its covenants in the Resolutions to comply with the Code, interest on the 2006 Series Q Bonds is excludable from the gross income of the holders thereof for federal income tax purposes. We are further of the opinion that interest on the 2006 Series Q Bonds is not an item of preference for purposes of calculating the federal individual or corporate alternative minimum taxes, but interest on 2006 Series Q Bonds held by a corporation (other than an S corporation, regulated investment company, real estate investment trust or real estate mortgage investment conduit) may be indirectly subject to federal alternative minimum tax because of its inclusion in the adjusted current earnings of a corporate holder. Under certain circumstances interest on a 2006 Series Q Bond held by a foreign corporation may be subject to the branch profits tax.

Ownership of tax-exempt obligations, including the 2006 Series Q Bonds, may result in collateral federal income tax consequences to certain taxpayers, including, without limitation, financial institutions, property and casualty insurance companies, individual recipients of social security or railroad retirement benefits, certain S corporations and taxpayers who may be deemed to have incurred or continued indebtedness to purchase or carry such obligations. We offer no opinion as to such collateral tax consequences. Prospective purchasers of the 2006 Series Q Bonds should consult their own tax advisor as to such consequences.

In rendering the foregoing opinions, we have assumed the accuracy and truthfulness of all public records and of all certifications, documents and other proceedings examined by us that have been executed or certified by public officials acting within the scope of their official capacities and have not verified the accuracy or truthfulness thereof. We have also assumed the genuineness of the signatures appearing upon such public records, certifications, documents and proceedings.

We call to your attention that the 2006 Series Q Bonds are special obligations of the Administration and will be payable solely from the revenues and assets of the Administration pledged for the payment thereof under the Resolutions, including the Mortgage Loans pledged thereunder, and the rights thereunder to any income, revenues, issues, profits and insurance proceeds and other sums of money payable thereunder. The Administration has no taxing power. The 2006 Series Q Bonds do not constitute a debt of the State, any political subdivision thereof, the Administration or the Department, or a pledge of the faith, credit or taxing power of the State, any such political subdivision, the Administration or the Department.

We express no opinion herein with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the Official Statement prepared in respect of the 2006 Series Q Bonds or as to any other matter not set forth herein.

Very truly yours,

[Letterhead of Ballard Spahr Andrews & Ingersoll, LLP, Washington, D.C.]
