A screenshot of a web browser displaying a map of Baltimore, Maryland. The map features a green overlay representing the city's urban area. Key landmarks and streets are labeled, including the University of Maryland, Baltimore, and the Inner Harbor. A search bar at the top left contains the text "Find address or place". The map interface includes a scale bar at the bottom left showing 0.2 miles and a coordinate display. The bottom of the browser window shows the address bar with the URL "https://www.openstreetmap.org/#map=13/39.2925,-76.6272" and the OpenStreetMap logo.
